Raliable Letter Weekly A letter from a PARE PARSE scriber In Saskatchewan received yesterday says: "I am very glad to get the FREE PRESS every week. is truly a letter from my old home town and does not postpone its coming like ordinary letters from friends."

May Appeal the Case In the Mackenzie ve. Lindsay case, which has been in the County Court for several months, Judge Gorham has given a decision in favor of Contractor Mackenzie. Mr. Lindsay is much diseatisfied with the outcome and proposes to appeal the case to's higher court.

Another Colony of Foreigners Acton has been the objective point of a good many emigrants from the countries of Northern and Bouthern Europe the past year or two. The latest arrival was a lot of sixteen of the natires of the island of Malta, who came to town on Monday to work in the tanneries. They are domiciled on Beardmore Crescent.

Bwat the fly-Do It Now It ten't a bit too early to begin swatting the fly. Kvery fly killed now is equivalent to killing millions of them in the summer. A mature fly of April may be the ancestor of over six billion flice by the first of September. The killing of all the winter flies would do away with the great work required in the summer. The greatest preventive measure for the destruction of the housefly is the avoidance accumulations of stable refuse. Railway Construction New Lively The contractors for the construction of the new electric rallway through Acton are now getting down to work bere in real earnest. A car of horses and 75 men are reported to have arrived in town for the work during the week. The approaches to the bridge over Fairy Lake are now being filled in. The remaining bouses on the right of way in town are being removed.
