Mr. N. F. Moore, who has been man ager of the besiness in Acton of 1 Noble, miller, Norval, the past five or six years, left on Tuesday to take position with the J. K. McLauchlan Sapply Co., Owen Sound. Mr. Moore's removal is a distinct loss to Acton. He has proven himself a most trustworthy and useful citizen and business man. His interest in the church, choir. orchestra and hand has been most belpful and acceptable. Mrs. Moore, John L. and wee Margaret will follow in the course of a few weeks. James L. Warren, who has filled a position in the business here for sever al years, has succeeded Mr. Moore.

When returning the roll at th meeting of the Municipal Council of Monday evening Tax Collector Harvey remarked that while the roll showed a sum of 57c, uncollected, the aggregate amount of the taxes levied was really overpaid. During his rounds citizen had stopped him and saked the rate of the dog tax. Mr. Harvey re plied that it was $2.00. "Well," said the map, "I have moved to Acton slace the assessment was completed, but own a dog, and here is the $2.00." The collector was naturally somewhat overcome, but be succeeded in writing the receipt and the new citizen went away with the inward consciousness that he had acted the part of an honest
