BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS

June weddings are looming up. Send us the news. It is always welcome.

Calendonian games in Acton next Wednesday.

A big crowd is looked for at the Calendonian games next Wednesday.

Principal Stewart is presiding at the examinations at Georgetown this week and Principal Green is at Acton.

The usual June frosts have been experienced and tender plants such as beans and corn have been slightly nipped.

Prof. Campbell, of McMaster University, Toronto, preached very able discourses in the Baptist Church last Sunday.

$1400 has been subscribed towards the fund to improve Georgetown library building. Another thousand is asked for.

It is said that spotters are on the look-out for horsemen who have neglected to attend to the enrollment of their saddle horses this season.

The Lockwood Pipers Band will be a drawing feature of the Calendonian Games to be held next Wednesday in Acton by the Sons of Scotland.

With the exception of June of last year, one is obliged to go to Toronto to find a parallel temperature to that of the present month, says the Meteorological Bureau.

The Park Committee is rebuilding the grand stand. It was found that some of the seats had rotted off. Contractor Swankhamer is making a substantial job of the repairs.

The Trustees of the Methodist Church will meet this evening to decide upon the proposed alterations to the church and make other desired improvements.

The prizes to be given at the Calendonian Games next Wednesday, will be on exhibition in Mr. E. J. Hazard's window. The plan of the ball is also open at Hazard's.

Geo. A. Proctor, Barrie, was the successful tenderer for the new Post Office and Outposts House building here. He will be in town this week and will commence operations in a few days.

Mr. A. J. Mackinnon, barrister, has leased the office of the late R. J. McNabb and the adjoining office in the Ferryman Block and will have the premises arranged on suit. They will be ready for occupation in a few days.

At the Women's Institute meeting at Ballantrae last week, Mrs. Stewart, of Acton, gave an address on "What Money Cannot Buy." The address was highly appreciated by all present. -Georgetown Herald.

Mr. Donald McGregor has taken a position at the Prison Farm, Guelph, and reports thereto to-day. He sold his property at the corner of Church and John streets to Mr. James Brown. Acton regrets losing such worthy citizen.

Miss B. Howens Humphries of the High School staff is on the examining staff at Toronto on the papers on art. It is quite an honor to Acton school to have both Principal Stewart and Miss Humphries appointed as examiners.

Mr. W. H. Walker broke the record last week for a small hen egg. One of his best layers produced an egg weighing less than half an ounce. On Monday Wesley Masalas beat this record with a perfectly formed Plymouth Rock egg which weighed less than quarter of an ounce.

Arrangement are completed for a notable Reform demonstration at Acton to be held at Stanley Park on Friday afternoon. Among the speakers will be the Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Wm. Proudfoot, K. G., M. P., P., Hugh Guthrie, K. G., M. P., D. D. Richardson, M. P., P., Dr. James MacQueen, M. P., P., R. M. Haselwood, Liberal candidate for North Wellington, and others. There will be a meeting of the East Wellington Reform Association in the City Hall at 8 p. m., to which all Liberals are invited, and the public meeting in the park will begin at 3 p. m. Launch may be obtained on the grounds or at the hotels. This is a fine opportunity for church parties, as the public gathering, including ladies, are cordially invited, and it will be the opening of Stanley Park for the season. It is expected, with favorable weather, that the attendance will run up into the thousands, and that many of these will be from a distance.
