Acton Free Press

VOLUME XXXIX:---NO. 5.

Every Scheription Paid in Advance

ACTON, ONTARIO, THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 31, 1913.

Behorription Price, $1 oc Yer Annum.

SINGLE COPIES---THREE CENTS

The Acton Free Press M. PUBLISHED

Tunner or Humanustrion-One dollar per year trially in advance. $1,00 to subscribers in the Julius States. All subscriptions discontinued them the time for which they have been paid has expired. The date to which every numerization is paid in depoted on the address label. APPROPRIATION HAVES - Transless advertise-nesses, 26 comts per Nosparell line for first seption and 5 conts per line for each subse-ment insertion. Contract display, advertisements, for 20 or inches baces, per canesa, 10 comts per inch such importion. Yearly contracts for reading matter 25 cents per inch cach imper-

Advertisaments without aposthe directions will be inserted till forbid and charged accordingly. Trabalent advertisements must be paid in advance. Advertisements will be shanged uses easi shows mentioned the extra com-to pold for at regular rases. All assessmes collected menthly.

H. P. MOORK

Ansiness Birectory.

MEDICAL

FINHOS. GRAY, M. D. C. M., McGILL. L. R. C. P. RECIBURGE. L. R. F. P. & R. GLASSOW. Manual Raires Madecal Association Bed

Mos Frederick Street Anton, Out. DOUGLAS LAKE, M. D. Physician and Surgeod I hysician and Surgeon Michigan and College of P. and H., Onterio, Michigan and California.

Frat Graduate University of Michigan and of the Chicago and New York Post Graduate Schools and Hamitale; Late Clinical Assistant Schools and Hamitale; Late Clinical Assistant Schools and Hamitale; London Hamitale Rayal Leaden Opthelmia, Goldon Hamara and Rayal Leaden, Hamitale Street and Lange, London, England.

Also late special examiner for the United States Surean of Pennions, Washington, D. Hames: 2 to 7; 1 to 4; 7 to 2.

Office and residence Dr. Holman late premions, Mill Street, Acton.

DR. G. S. HODDER WILEON Osteopathic Physician Generate of American Hebool of Getsenethy, unfer Dr. A. T. Bill, the founder of the Helenon Boths: 9 to 12, 2 to 4, except Hospeler, Mon-bay and Friday, 3 to 9 p. m. Evenings of public calls by appointment. Wyndham and Cork Siz , over the Bunk TORN M MACDONALL M. D. C. M. Late Frep. and Bapt. Massey Hospital Discount of Women and General Bergery.

W Pape Ave. Phone Morth 2988 LEGAL

3. MACKINHON

MR. BOLLOWSKI, CHRYSLANDS

Corporate—MILL Street, in Storolo' Slock, DEWTAL __

DR. J. M. BRLL, D.D.S., L.D.S. Remon Changary or Tonours Universe The latest amosthetic used if desired.

DR. L. L. BENNETT, DENTIST,

MISCELLANEOUS.

BOOKBINDER,

Account Books of all kinds made to under mindicale of every description earsfully bound, HE's measty and promptly done

MARRIAGE LICENBES. M. P. MOORE Private Office. No witnesses required. Igned residence in the evening.

WAT'M HEMSTREET.

PRINCESON DEPRESENT For the Counties of Wellington and Halson Ordersloft at the France Passe office, Acton, or at my residence in Acton, will be promptly at-unded to Turms Resonable. Also money to lean on the most favorable orms, and at the lowest rutes of interest. In time of $500 and upwards.

J. KERK Par the Counties of Weilington, Hallon, Peel and Dufferin, and the city of Geniph.
States conducted with antisfaction and upon reasonable terms.
Orders by letter to Missoon F. Q., or Caledon belophous in residence in connection with the belophouse in residence in a to dates and advertising can be made. Orders left at Faun Passon with W. X. Sorden, Harmon Maker, after with W. X. Sorden, Harmon Maker, and with the control of the contro people attention to sales in TAMES McDONALD LICENBED AUCTIONER Mediation granusteed in every case. For terms, dates, etc., apply to Nox Ers. Emerorate—17 Sydenham St., QUELPH, Out. Telephone Itl, Gualph. Sales may be arranged at Fann Panns office.

The Old and Reliable Granite and Marble Dealers

W are scanstanterers and direct importer We will direct to our outlement at whole prices, thus paving our outlessors of per Ww have the best emplishes and the machanist in the Dominion who was specand best stock of Grantie in the or more than any three dealers to We are legitlmate dealers and con-tends, and do not amon or pest our-mending out ignorant agents to policit outploy mechanics only and dely

HAMILTON & SONS Che. and Morfolk Woolyich Bis. GURLPH

DIAMONDS

We buy our Diamonds loose or unset. examine each stone carefully with a powerful magnifying glass to see that they are withoutflaws, then get them set in rings with claws. which being hard are less liable to bend and so loosen the stone.

We carry a large stock of fine diamond Rings, Brooches, Tie Pins, etc.

Our prices are moderate quality consider-

Savage & Co. JEWELLERS Retablished 1848 Guciph

C. SYMONS BAKER OL CONFECTIONER

Teas and light refreshments served. Parties catered for.

Neilson's Ice Cream and Soft drinks of all kinds served at our parlors and lawn. Confectionery, nuts, etc.

Fry's Chocolates always

Willow St.

in stock.

THE ARMY OF THE UNEMPLOYED

Is now, remained from the trained werkers, it is the boy or girl without training that grows up a dependent, incompetent may or woman. Opportunity business at your door in vain, if not promptly welcomed with trained ability. GUELPU BUSINESS COLLEGE

Will give you advention and training that you man readily exchange for deliars and coats. We have trained these and vouns, a heat of near graduates are living testimonicle to the pression efficiency of our methods. Write to-any for particulars, or ourse in and talk it over with prest in the Upper Wyndham Street, Masonic from Steel.

Maicelm MacCormack, B. A., Prin.

SPRING TOOLS. · --- POR YM

Mechanic, Farmer, Gardener & Householder

PAINTS and VARNISHES English Liquid Paints Fresco-Tone for Walls Chinamel for decorating, grain

ALL OTHER SEASONABLE GOING FOR HOME OF PARM

C. C. SPEIGHT RCTON

> Waters Bros. Quelph

HEADQUARTERS FOR O. A. C. School Supplies

NATURE STUDY BOTANICAL ETOMOLOGICAL DRAWING PAINTING

41 Wyndham Street Phone 350

REMOYED! TO NEW STORE IN Warren Block

> FIRST . QUALITY BREAD - CAKES WEDDING CAKES BIRTHDAY CAKES

MAPLE BYRUP and HUNEY 57 varieties

HEIMZ'S PICKLES FRUIT', and VEGE-TABLES

CONFECTIONERY

Statham & Son

BAKERS and GROCERS

or Twino..

breeze.

Ironing Boards $1.35 to $2.00. Broad Boards at 45c. Refrigerators $8,50 to $16.00. A yearl serviceable Refrigerated at $10.00. Ice Ciram Presses from 75c. up to $6.50. Laws Seats for $1.00 Screen Windows, Screen Doors priced according to size and design, all good quality. Croquet Sots, $1.20 to $4 50. Butter Moulds, 45c. to 65c, each. Butter Spades and Ladle, too each. Egg Crates, gross, 70c. each. Pails 35c. each. Stop Ludders 15c. to 25c. per foot, Stirring Spoons toc. each. Manyles, large norviceable size at $17.00. Washing Machine. New Idea, $9.00.

When You Want Woodenware

Call at the Bond Store

The BOND HARDWARE Co. Retail Phone 97 - GUELPH

If Those Headaches

no expense. It is our Lens Grinding Plant that makes possible the low prices we ask for glasson.

You Need THAT ORGAN

A few splendid instruments are to be sold at especially low prices. How would you like to purchase a really beautitul organ in handsome walnut case, full five octave, every key in perfect condition, as good as can be, at a price that makes you wonder how we do it, and on telms so easy that you have no trouble in the paying, and delivered

These can only be had

C. W. KELLY 133 Upper Wyndham St GUELPH - ONT.

THE THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY O ACTON' Planing Mills

ARE you thinking of mak-ing a change in the arrangement of rooms your residence, as the time for annual house-cleaning arrives Does it require repairs t plaster? If so, we have it stock Patent Hard Wall Plaster in sacks. This only requires the adding of water to make it ready to apply.

How about renewing the old pine floors with # in. hardwood making them sanitary and upto-the-minute in styles? We have this flooring in Oak, Birch and Maple.

A Full Line of Building Supplies now in our Yards J. B. McKENZIE

Contractor Acton - Georgetown And the second second second second second

R. NOBLE FLOUR and FEED

Full stock of Flour : Norval National and King's Choice; Brau, Shorts, Rolled Oats, Millet, Buckwheat; Plymouth Bind.

Merchant Miller

Paetry. THE DUEL

How tow, blow low! The 'spreads' Her petals to the sun And thirstly be draineth all Her dew-cups, one by one. kanny What may be told to none Motors $15.00 and Sec.on. Bath South at $1.50. Cont Holders at 250. Clothes Baskets 75c. to $1.50. Brooms. All further information on request.

Are still keeping up come in and have your eyes examined at once. If glasses fail to give relief there will be absolutely

A. D. SAVAGE OF TOMETRIST

Blow low, blow low, that none may ou gently touched her emitting lipe. You beard them swear to me. How frall an oath may be !

When vagrant mathe lea

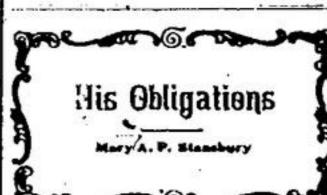

How low, blow low! Last night word. His rose within her hair, His hand had placed it there! Blow low, blow low, that none know

Her smile and my despare! tlow low, blow low ! O gentle brocks, The dawn had scarcely abone Ifre he and I stood, pold with hate. Blow low, blow low, that none may

How hate has slaimed her own! Blow low, blow low! The wild rose Her fragrant polals wide,

For, when the sun had drained She drooped her head and died. Blow low, blow low, that none m The death that death would hide ! -Inhel Kcclestone Mackay.

Select Yamily Reading

TOT WAS an afternoon of mid July and sufficatingly bot as became that torrid season. The morning-glories clambering up the pillars of the porch had long since hung their heads, and over the lawn little shimmoring waves of beat danced in the sunlight. Even the birds seems salesp in the branches, an occasions low chirp wounding like the babble dreams. Dandy, the curley cockerspaniel, had discarded his beloved cushion and lay stretched uncomfortably upon the hardwood floor, uttering at intervals, a profound sigh as be vainly sought relief by change of posi-

It was a day tempting to idle reclic ing in some shadily swong hammock with the latest "best seller" or the newest magazine for companionship but a rhythmic thud-thud from th Maynard kitchen indicated a quit different sort of occupation for the older daughter of the house. Klais Maynard would doubtless have declared that she "looked like a fright," but one peering through the open door inight have expressed another opinion. The sweet face, bending over the troning table was flushed, indeed, but the blue eyes under the dark lashes were deep and clear, and the damp gold-brown bair curled and crinkled charmingly about She had turned back her print gown at the throat, and rolled her eleeves above the elbows, while the round arms wielded the heavy from with a only lately familiar with such tasks.

strongth and grace unusual for one The whistle of a locomotive and the near rush of the suburban train tore the stillness into shreds of discordant sound, and a look of analous expectation stole into the girl's face. Again and again, within the next few minuter, she gazed down the street which led from the rallway station. length the figure of a tall, young fellow appeared in sight. He was walking very lelaurely and the girl's face fell at the sight. "How slowly he is coming!" she said sloud. "I wonder-oh, I won-But by the time he had reached the gate, she had forced the smile back to "Hello, sist" called her brother.

"Not quite, Tom dear, but it will be very soon. You see, I wasn't certain by which train to look for you." "I hope you didn't expect me to stay

n town any later on a day like this!" was the answer in a half-aggrieved tone. "It's perfectly unendurable! The walls and pavements fairly blazel ldes-" he stopped suddenly. "Ironing ! Of all the crasy things! Could- ing to accept the principal of 'value n't you have found something a little received.' My husband says 'that hotter to make a martyr: of yourself | when he was young'-you see we.

The deepening red on Klaic's checks that phrase-what was wanted was was hardly due to heightened temper- chance to work, but now it is the privi ature. Without waiting for a reply lege of drawing wager.' It was the her brother went on less satirically. Kisle looked up quickly with the heavy lron poleed in her hand. "Then you didn't take-" mond? I should think not! Why. the absurd hours is enough to decide the question, even if there had been no other drawbacks, and there were plenty of them. I should be expected to be ready for duty at a quarter past soven, Fanoy! That would mean getting you up in the small hours if I were to have any breakfast, and-" ".bobela "Well's I should ! And I'm by no ly everybody in the place. A regular you have presched me a sermon withmental position!"

"But, Tom-" 'There are no bute about it, Kiele! One would think that you wanted me to be somebody's slave!"

The boy spoke almost engrily. been considered, and - with father ginning at the foot of the ladder." twins to be taken pare of the need is tears as she took the boy's right hand Blow low, blow low, that none may so great! I don't 'understand, of le both ber sleader palma, not all jobs bard at first ?" "Klain," said Tom in a changed tone, than you. You are his image. all in a bed boat just at present, but I his name and memory !" don't often put forward my own side of the case.

"It len't a very small thing to be

MOb. Tom. I know -" "Let me talk, Klaie! It has to be-I know that-and I've no intention of trying to get out of it. But if my life has to be changed through and for torn up by the roots, I do feel thought unresconable or lazy."

"Tom, I never said-" fair to me. I'm keeping a keen looking my own trumpet if I say that I think I'm fit for something a little higher up than a Jack-of-all-work or an office-boy !"

"Forgive me, Tom. I never meant doonly what is right and best." 'Then we'll drop the subject, shall pleasanter? Just now that is supper.

Hullo ! here comes the twins!" "And Edle will set the table for als ter, while Ted brings a pitcher of fresh away, glad to hide her tell tale cheeks hands." and misty eyes.

Three days later Tom. Maynard, making his way along a thronged of the city, noticed evidences of some unusual excitement at the entrance of a great department store. A mob of curious people were being exhorted by a stalwart policeman to "move on, while another, pushing through the press, halfled and half carried a pale disheveled girl to an ambulance in walting at the ourh.

At the same moment Tom caught sight of an elderly lady, whom he recognized as an old friend of his mother, besitating upon the outer sircle of the crowd as if fearful to a tempt a passing. In a moment or two be had reached her side.

"Will you take my arm, Mrs. Hamil-The lady's face lighted at eight of the tall, handsome lad. "You, Tom, and thank you!" she answered warmly. "I am not so strong as once, and crowds frighten

me. Fortune is kind to send me so my car yonder, I shall be glad to take | 11you wherever you are going and we can have a bit of visit by the way. The sight of that poor child has upset me dreedfully," she went on when they were comfortably seated in the "I did not understand what happen

"It seems that there is a bargain sele to-day in the basement, and the press is terrific-women pushing and enathing like wild creatures. A finor walker explained to me that this girl lost ber footing and was trampled. She fainted and her arm seems to b broken." Tom uttered an exclamation.

"How can people behave like that?" he exclaimed

"It is their frantle desire to get something for nothing, or at least for less than its real value," said Mrs. Hamilton. "And with all their mad struggle they have little success. "Where are you? Is suppor ready either damaged, solled or imperfect if need be. Unfortunately the losing

"I've heard my mother say the same . "But If bergain sales were all it would not matter so much. The same point makes mischief elsewhere. Prople are But, of course, out here you have no | wild for more than they are ready to work and walt for. They are unwill both growing old enough to be fond of 'easy job' that used often to go begging "It's a shame, puss! But we'll but now nothing else soums good change that as soon he I get something enough for anything but a dago.' But le the long run, be says it's nothing give, nothing have,' whether in time labor or money. Pussibly he is a little possimistic, but you know, his business "That place with Wood and Hay, brings him toto contact with all sort of neople. "But I want to ask for your mother Tom. I hope that she is improving. "Thank you, Mrs. Hamilton. Si seems a little stronger, we think." "And your sister? Busy as a ! whah I last saw her !"

"Ricio is mother's malnetay." Too

(age had sobered strangely.

ton!" The words seemed forced from him without his will. means willing to get up at such an . "Tom! Your mother tells a ver unearthly time either. Then, the real different story !" julcoments were anything but desir- "I know-mothers are prejudiced able. It appeared that I was to be But it's been true all the same.

out knowing it. I've wanted work. to be sure, but pleasant work, some thing that wouldn't soil my hands-a bargaia job !

"I thank you more than I can for what you said, and now, if you "Oh, Tom! dear Tom, don't talk like | will let your man set me down in the that! You can't possibly think that I next block at Wood and Raymond's, wish hardships for you. It's only that I'll see if I can still have the chance I there has seemed to be something turned down the other day because Blow low, blow low! O whisp'ring wrong about every position that has wasn't willing to pay the price of he. kat, gone, dear mother so Irail, and the ! The lady's gentle eyes filled with > course - I'm only a girl-but, Tom, are Tom," she said, "I retsember your lather perfectly when he was no older "put down that borrid iron and let's son of his could permanently shirk his talk this thing out. Of course, I'm not obligations. I do not fear for you. such a fool as not to know that we're With God's blessing you will bonour and trembling and looked around him with these officers: Hon. Pres.-Rev. Lameon, "if I wasn't thankful when I ed the basket and bundle be had been Mann; Secretary-Miss Mabel Ismood; utes' peace'-that's all the time I ride I should be allowed a little time to be returned presently with a porter, to ciples have sleven members, and their able to choose my work without being whom he spoke some words about the officers : Prev.-Hobt. Stewart : Vicesame time, who had witnessed the ties in Acton churches, out, but I don't know that I am blow- advent of the boy and the old man, said as the door was reached :

"SOMESODY'S GRANDFATHER" Who does not love the boy who ree-

"Your grandfather, I suppose? Going on a journey?" "Not mine, but somebody's grand-Tather," was the reply given with a to burt you. I am sure you want to little laugh. "Poor old gentleman! I not nearly hold the growd that went get a word in edgewise. And if she to school. He'd lost his way to the we, little sister, and think of something depot and was all of a tramble. He's tremble. He's going to his daughter's in the suburbs. I wish I had had time to put him on his train, but I should have been late for school if I had walt

"That was very right and kind of you," the gentleman said with an street in one of the business quarters blood surge to the boy's face, but the latter only said :

"Thank you, sir."

WHAT A BOY DID Jamin Polligrow was the amarico boy in the class. Willie Hunter was real good fellow, too, and Willie and Jamie used to run neck and neck for the prises. Either the one or the other was always at the top of the Examination day came round, and we were asked such a lot of pussling questions that one by one, we all dropped off till, just as we expected the first prise lay between Jamie and

I shall never forget how astonished we were when question after question was answered by Willie, while Jamie was silent; and Willie took the prize I went home with Jamie that afternoon, for our roads lay together, but Instead of being cast down at losing gallant a equire. If you will belp me to the prise, be seemed rather to be mightglad. I couldn't understand it "Why, Jamie, "you could have answered some of those quations;

> "Of course I could," he said with a light laugh. "Then why didn't you?" I asked. He wouldn't answer for a while, but I kept pressing and pressing him till he turned round with such a strange kind look in his bonnie brown ayes. "Look bere," he said, "how bould belp it? There's poor Willie. mother died last week ; and if it had not been examination day, he would not have been at school. Do you think I was going to be so mean as to take a prise from a fellow who had just lost bls mother !" LOST-A BOY

Not kidnapped by bandits and bld den in a cave to weep and starve and rouse a nation to frensied searching; most every so called 'bargain,' when if that were the case, one hundred calmly examined at home, proves thousand men would rise to the rescue enough to be worth no more than the of the lad is without any dramatic exreduced price paid for it. For my citement, though very sad and very own part I distrust 'marked down' roal. The fact is, his father lost him. Being too bosy to sit with him at the fireside and answer trivial questions during the years when fathers are the great and only heroes of boys, and let go his hold upon him. You, his mother lost him! Being much engrossed in her toas, dinners and club proboy say his prayers and thus her grip elipped and the boy was lost to the home. Aye, ble church lost blm ! Being so much occupied with sermons for the wise and elderly who pay the bills, and baving good care for digulty the minister and elder were unmind ful of the human feelings of the boy in the pew, and made no provision in sermon or song or manly sport for hi buylshness, and so the church and won ora sinerac betrack-base years ooking earnestly for the lost boy.

'He must be found. He can be found -found just where those two careless but plous parents en route from Jeru salem found their boy : in that particular east in the church where interceted men were willing to meet him and answer in simple fashion the dir ect questions of his awakening man hood conserning the realities of life and duty. Here is where the lost boy will be found by men who are willing to look for bim !-- Men at Work.

Jealousy is the offspring of distrust. Treat people kindly and you will find bem easier to work. Many a man has married in hast ready to dance attendance upon near- sha'n't be any longer. Mrs. Hamilton and paid alimony at loisure. SMELLS FOR BUERY DAY

TWENTY YEARS AGO Notes from the Free Frees of Thurs day, August 3rd, 1808

A union plo-nic for the echolary of the Presbyterian and Methodist Sunday Schools is being arranged for the last week of August. Metars, Robertson Bros. and David Williamson have shipped a car or two

There le too much whiskey business being done in the hotels of this town on Sunday. There is trouble in store for the sellers who thus persist in defying the law.

parlicet settlers in Kaquesing, died this week at the home of her pephew, Mr. Poter McLaren, la Poslinch. Last week at the Salvation Army barracks, Capt. Jayiwanti I., Orchard

Mrs. Donald Campbell, one of

gave an address on Salvation Army work in India. The recent County Convention here ready for college, entrance examina- pects old age? Recently, in one of the of Young People's Societies has led to tions all passed, even plans made for | waiting rooms in the depot of a large | the formation of two new local sociestudying for a profession afterwards, city, there entered a bright-faced ties in the Baptlet and Disciples Lamson seated herself with a jounce and then have to give up everything -" boy, leading by the erm a man with Churches. The Baptist young people smiled at the newcomer, but had no snow-white bair. The latter was old have organized with twelve members, time to speak. "My land," said Mrs. A. K. de St. Dalman; Pres. -J. L. saw you as I came into this car! The boy secorted bim to a seat, plac- Warren : Vice-Free. - Miss Susan Thinks I, 'At least Pil have five min-through and all the things I've hoped carrying on the floor beside him, then Cor. Sec .- Miss Barbara . Warren; in this car before I make my next with a word or two went away. He Treas. - Miss Kate Massles. The Dischange. one sitting down. Then, with a hearty Pros.-Lewis Orr; Secretary-Miss blocks. But goodness me! I've got hand-shake accompanying a bright Hella Hill; Tressurer-Miss Aggie my transfer, and I couldn't walk the "No, you never said, but you've smile, he started in the direction of the Tovell. There are now over a hundred distance, so I ought not to complain. thought all the same, and it just len't door. A gentleman going out at the members of the young peoples' socie. My ankles won't bear me up on the

A garden party was hold last week | haft in connection with Crewsons Corners Methodist Sunday School at the home of Mr. N. Forbes, Jr.

opened on Sunday. The church would | such a talk in all my days! I couldn't found him on the corner as I was going to hear Hev. Mr. Neil in the morning, said anything, "twouldn't be so bad, and was filled also at night. of wheat in Mr. Dick's field, near Asb- tiam.

was not far from the barn. water," and Risie turned hurriedly ed, so I gave him into the porter's black on Friday evening when the I tell Josiah, we've had a trial of our members of Acton Temperance Union. | patience this year if ever we had. No decorated with their nest bedges, apring, then jumping right into heat marched to the park for their pic-nic | when we weren't ready. And rain! appreciative look that made the hot led by the band and 'accompanied by Wall, there's no use dwelling on it as I sympathising citizens. Between four pay. and five hundred were present and the week ago, aged 86.

this work. Rev. R. B. Cook.

friends prior to removing from Milton you. Good-by I'to Gloversville, N. Y. Mrs. P. O. Maddock and children, of London, are at Postmaster Matthews' Miss Tena Pitair, of Kilbride, is visiting friends here.

Milton, visited friends here this week. Acton pupils who passed at the entrance examination: Mabel Grant

Will Gurnby_ John McGill. Nellie Kelly, James Tovell. Barnes-In Toronto, on July M, to Mr. and Mrs.

MARRIED

HTLANE-VICKERMAN-At Compbellville, by Nov.

J. W. Bobiston, at the home of the bride's father, Hamuel Stager, Haspeler, to Berah Vickerman.

". we had to let him gu."

THE NEAREIGHTED ONE "Yes, he was doing good work with ss, and was on his way to a good and permanent position here, where be would have been better placed than most young follows at his age. Bu be proved to be very near-sighted and

There was a moment of surprised allence from the listener, thea: "But surely that could have bee remedied. Properly adjusted glasses would have corrected- but the business man interrupted him with a kindly laugh. lake no longer existed the ground will "The glasses have not been invented bore the name of the Holy Lake. Now to correct this kind of neareightedthe lake has reappeared. pees. I wish we could buy them

You see it was this way. He was working here in a rather humble way but learning all the intricate lue and outs of this complicated business. All our men have begun in the same way. It is the only way that any one can | universal panacea in one remedy for ever hope to get into any of the higher all like to which flesh is helr. What places in this house. He was doing would relieve one ill in turn would, wall; but another house offered blm a little higher wages at once, yet with no prospect of reaching anything like in a sound, unadulterated state a what he would win here in a few remedy for many and grievous illeyears. He was neareighted-he must By its gradual and judicious use the have been -or he would not have taken frallest systems are led into convales the present slight advance at the expense of a future high position with

The long look shead is the wisest one. and if a pearby "raise obscuree future advancement that could be won waiting-by remaining with the work that gives the best training for the future-then there is a case of near sight of ness on hand that requires immediate attention. - Helected."

that can be settled in a day or a year.

The question of success is

WISE DECISION

"What caused the rupfure between you?"

her, and she didn't seem disposed to By the opinion of scientists, the wine argue it, so I decided that she didn't approaches nearest perfection of any

On Monday there's a suday small, Like soap and boiling clo'es ; On Tuesday there's a scorching amal From Iroding, Tappone ?

On Wednesday there's a smell of bread

On Thursday it sells very good, When mother gets the tea; On Friday there's the small of dust And polish for the floor, liceides the stuff they use to shine. of hay which goes to the English mar-

With little loaves for me :

The bandle of the door; On Saturday the smells are fine, For that's the day we bake All sorts of bread, and ple and things. And yellow ginger cake : But Sabbath has the strangestamells-

Sometimes it's like the pews, And sometimes like the blackening On Brother Harold's above. It makes you feel so very still, the Sabbath small, and good I You wouldn't run or climb a tree.

even if you could. Most every day has got a smell, some good once and some not. The world is full of funny things, and you can learn a lot!

-'Sumbeam.

THE BALM OF BILENCE

"It's perfectly ridiculous having to change, anyway, just to ride a few sidewalks since I took on all this extra "The reason I was so glad to see you -of course I'm always glad - is because I've been riding with that Dobbe Sodom Presbyterian Church was re- woman, and I declare I never heard but she doesn't. Just maunders on Lightning struck and burned a sheaf about the weather and her rheuma-

grove, on Tuesday night. The sheaf "Now, we all know that the weather isn't anything we can belp; we've just Rain was falling and the skies were got to bear it, bowsver bad 'tie, and as "And when you come to rheumatism weather conditions were better than it was real cheeky of her to tell maher symptoms,-that's what 'twas,-any-Mr. John Stewart, the leader of the | body that's endured what I have right men who marched from the Scotch in my own family! I wish you could Block, Requesing, to assist Mackenzie | see Jusiah's knuckles. I tell him I in 1837 to capture the fortified seat of dog't see what he will do if they keep Government, died at Palaley, about a on. And he has it so in the back of ble neck and his elbows. I've rubbed Rov. and Mrs. W. H. McTavlah, H. him and rubbed him till I've been D., of St. George, visited friends here about dead. And do you know, day before yesterday I had a sharp pain Rev. O. A. Cook, of Bloomfield, N. shoot right through my elbow, and I I., is visiting at the bome of his father | said to myself-Mercy, this is where I change! Good-by, dear! I'm really

Mrs. Joseph Feters is visiting Acton | rested, just riding this little way with

HE IS MH. BHAW'S PARTNER NOW "I know a young man who commenced working at $10 a month. He Mr. and Mrs. Harry Strauser, of was finally, advanced to $50 a month and a little later he went to his em-Mrs. T. A. Swackhamer, of Hannon, ployer and said : 'I think I ought to visited friends in this vicinity this have an increase of salary.' His employer replied, 'No, you don't need an increase of salary. What you need is an increase of usefulness.' And then be went on to explain the opportunities that were before him. That man pover asked for an increase of salary after that, but inside of twelve months be was getting, unasked, a hundred dollars a month. He is worth a very handsome fortune now. If his salary had been increased then, uncarned, there would have been no fortune for blm. What he needed was usefulness not salary. Halary takes care of itself as a rule."-Katract from Hecretary Shaw's Speech in Philadelphia.

> HOLY LAKE IS REPILLING A quaint logond attaches to the rect of land about 15 acres in extent which has subsided in Westphalis. Germany. According to the old tale a convent stood on this wooded heatle some posturies ago, and one night this building was suddenly swallowed up in a subsidence, which was followed by the formation of a lake to which was given the name of the Holy Lake. Gradually the waters dried up and fit ally disappeared, but even when the

A sentimental girl is lost at a wed ding without a dainty handkerchief.

There pover was and never will laggravate the others. We have, how ever, in Quinine Wine, when obtained cence and strengt by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restoratives. It relieves those to whom a chronic state of morbi despondency and lack of interest in life is a disease, and by tranquilising the perves disposes to sound and refreshing sleep-imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which being atimulated, courses through the veins strengthening the healthy, animal functions of the system, thereby making activity a necessary result strengthening the frame and giving naturally demand increased substance -result, Improved appetits. Northrop & Lyman, of Toronto, have giver. "Oh, I told her I was unworthy of to the public their superior Quining. on the market. All druggists sell it.