> Bays found Stelen Goods A considerable portion of the apoli secured by burglars at Hespeler or Friday night has been discovered at Guelph. Two boys, who were playing near the water tank at the G. T. R. diamond orossing discovered it hidden in a hole near the tank, covered over with grass. There was a quantity of whiskey stolen from Wayper's Hotel also a number of razors, razor strops brushes and other articles of considerable value. It is thought that the thiever after securing the booty went to Guelph to dispose of the spoil, and had hidden it until such time as they could safely got rid of it. A Pretty Summer Wedding On Wednesday afternoon, Abgust 20th, the marriage of Miss Kathrine Taylor Holmes, daughter of Mr. Marshall Holmes, of Brookville, to Mr. Arnold Galbraith, Lecturer in Geology at the O.
