BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS

High school show to-morrow. Approving Fall Fair at Georgetown to-day. It was a great gathering of the old boys and girls. September's closing week gave us a very fine weather. George O. A. C. has 413 young men enrolled as students. The membership tickets for the Women's Institute are out. Grand Valley's tax rate has been fixed at 20 mills for this year. The Acton Council has imposed a 25-cent license fee of $40 a year. The opening services in the school in Acton were held Sunday, Oct. 1st. The Methodist Church re-opening services will commence next Sunday. The midnight train now arrives from Toronto half an hour earlier. The work of the new Post Office is now well under way on the 8th story. The success of Acton Fall Fair is still a current topic of conversation for miles around. Mrs. Richard N. Brown brought the PRIZE FAMES a very fine bouquet of flowers the other day. Interesting household papers have been presented from Mr. Henry F. Hill, of that noble city. The surrounding forests are now clothed in great beauty. The autumn tints are magnificent. The funeral of the late Miss Jeanne Guelph who died in Toronto on Monday, was held yesterday. The Home Teachers Association will meet in Georgetown on October 15th and 17th in annual institute session. A number of our citizens have attended the late Madam Malin's concert in Toronto last Tuesday evening. The Fall Fair last Friday was a very gratifying success. The show grounds are speedily being vacated for winter. The death took place on Thursday of the late Robert Johnson, Registrar of Food for the last six years, at the age of 74. The late Mr. Johnson left the primary school an orphan and did considerable housework. Housebreaking is a very common offence. The new bridge and dam at the mouth of Georgetown has been completed at last and that roadway is now open to the public. Mrs. Glass, of Ontario, pleaded guilty to a charge of selling liquor and was fined $100. She was fined $100. The Public Trustee reports that Mr. J. J. Gibson of Georgetown, was one of the speakers at the National Bread and Oat Makers' Convention at Hamilton. The 10th Anniversary Children's Day service was held in Knox Church on Sunday evening. The programme was of a highly interesting and instructive character. The 10th Anniversary Children's Day service was held in Knox Church on Sunday evening. ACTON'S SPLENDID FALL FAIR

The successful fair was the result of a decision of the people of Acton to have a fair of our own. For twenty years or more the Esquimaux Township fall fair has alternated every two years between Acton and Georgetown... The show grounds are speedily being vacated for winter... The death took place on Thursday of the late Robert Johnson, Registrar of Food for the last six years, at the age of 74... OBITUARY

LACHLAN GURRIE. The subject of this sketch died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Duane Sinclair, Young Street, Acton, on Thursday, at the age of 81 years. He was a native of Erin township and removed to Waterloo a good many years ago. About a year ago he came to Acton to reside with his sister. For several months he was in poor health but was ministered to with loving care and attention in the home. In his young manhood Mr. Gurrie had the misfortune to lose one of his limbs in an old-fashioned horse power, but with rare courage he battled with life's afflictions notwithstanding his affliction. He was a member of the Baptist Church. There remains were interred in Providence Cemetery, Acton, on Saturday afternoon, Rev. J. C. Wilson officiating.

REV. JOSEPH UNSWORTH. Rev. Joseph Unsworth, for 33 years a resident of Canada and a Congressional minister, died on Tuesday at the residence of his son, W. B. Unsworth, 94 South Drive, in his 71st year. The late Mr. Unsworth was born in England, and after coming to Canada, married a daughter of an U. E. L. For thirty years he was minister of the Georgetown and Acton Congregational Churches, and for another ten years he ministered in Stouffville. He retired owing to ill health about twenty-two years ago and lived in the city since. He is survived by three sons: Mr. W. B. Unsworth, of Toronto; Rev. J. C. Unsworth, of Vancouver, B. C.; and Mr. J. A. Unsworth, of Seattle, U. S. A., and two daughters, Mrs. F. D. Dalley, of Marville, and Mrs. J. H. Short, of Orillia. His funeral will take place in Forest Lawn Mausoleum this afternoon at 2 p. m. from his son's residence.
