BAD WEATHER FOR ERIN FAIR Splendid Show and Large Attend

anes of Vistore IT MAINED HEARLY ALL DAY It was at one time a cost of by-word when the time for Brin' show came around that "Rain is sure th-day." For several years, however, this popular show enjoyed splendid weather But last Friday the old order of thing steady downpoor and during the refortable drizzle prevalled. The attendance was large but it said that hundreds of those who went to Brin never went to the show at al owing to the wet weather. As a result the stores and hotels were crowded with people all day. It is estimated

there were 3,000 persons on the grounds

during the aftersoos. The list of entries was unusually large and the showing of stock was expeedingly gold. There were probably a thousand people surrounding the big horse ring all afternoon Never before was there & finer lot o horses on exhibition at Brin Fair. The competition in the various classes was extremely keen, and it was with difficulty that the judges made their awards. This was particularly the case in the classes for light horses, shown. The agricultural classes were also well filled, some fine farm borses being shown. The other outdoor exhibits, such as cattle, sheep and bogs, exceeded last year, which was a record, to a considble deeres. The cattle show was one of the best ever seen in Biln. The exhibit in the ball were also

A BREACH OF PROMISE CASE

Triffing with Widow's Affec-

RIAL ON THE STA OF OCTORS For some time, it is alleged, one our prominent citizens has paid mous or less attention to a young and beautiful widow of this town, forgetting, or at least not beeding, the advice of the Immortal Mr. Weller to his son, Samuel, to "beware of the vidders."

He now claims that he was not recious in his intentions and that he was not attached to ber, but, however that may have been, the widow became attached to him, and as he seems to have lost interest in the matter she has attached his property, which is a form of attachment that he does not

The result is that he finds himself be defendant in a first-class Breach of Promise case, and his questionable attitude towards the widow will be given an airing in the near future. The parties in the case are so promlnent that it is feared no court room will hold the vest crowd desirous of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Landsborough in Acton Town Hall, on Monday even-Mosers. William and Arthur Kenney ing, October 27th, under the auspices of the Epworth Lague.

In other words it will be I. Mook of the most enjoyable affairs of many years, as a large number of our leading people will participate in the process

The committee having the trial is charge have engaged Ool. A. V. Newtop, the well-known lawyer-lecturer, of Worcester, Mais, to attend to the details and personally conduct the entertalnment.

Col. Newton has had remarkable success in conducting similar entertalnments and without doubt the as elsewhere, an event long to be Mr. Jas. Duncan, of Toronto, the remembered with pleasure.

Not Quite Statutory, but Humans A decidedly novel sentence was was the suest of Principal handed out in the Atthur police court the other day, By it James Coughlin may, for the next twelve months, enloy the pleasures which Arthur's main street affords for one hour each week only. The botels of the town, like, the main street, are out of bounds. but unlike the main street, they are not to receive Mr. Coughlin even during the favored hour of the week. Coughlin appeared before the magistrate charged with assault, with havng used improper language, with having been disorderly, etc.

Honor handed out a three option award which permitted the accused to aquare up with the law and justice by paying $30 cash, going to jail for 2 months, or by taking his liberty under suspended sentence on the conditions that he remain off George and Smith streets for one year except for one bour sech week and out of the hotels of the town altogether for that period. The third option was accepted.—Elora Express.
