WHAT WE COULD

"I was doing nothing for Jesus," said a boy. "My mother tucked him tightly into his cozy little bed."

"You know, when on Sundays, mother, we go to the little school, we have to go to church to give us a rest."

Then she says: "Next time, children, if you feel like it, fall. You must make no noise at all."

"Then in times so low and tender, when Jesus is laid out still, Of Jesus I would like to say, And ask us to do his will."

So it would be work for Jesus, He would not think it small, If I brought the pith to teacher, So that we might hear it all."

AM CHINA BEATS THE WHITES

"We are always told that the countries of the foreign devils are grand and rich," a Chinese declared, after seeing much of the whites at Shanghai, "but that cannot be true, because they come here for us."

"Then when we are here, they want paid for us to do it. Again, you find them making long trips into the country; but that is probably a religious duty, for when they wave sticks in the air nobody knows why. They have monopoly for they may be found walking with women. Yet the women are to be pitied too. On festive occasions they are dragged around a room to the most hellish music."

Another interesting paragraph is from the pen of a Chinese who had just returned from a tour of Europe and North America. He wrote to us as follows:

"You cannot civilize these foreign devils. They are beyond redemption. They will live for weeks and months without touching a morsel of rice, but they eat the sort of delicacies that will keep in enormous quantities. That is why we call them body. They smell like sheep themselves. Every day they take a bath to rid themselves of their disagreeable odors, but they do not succeed. Nor do they eat their meat cooked in small pieces. It is carried into the rooms in large chunks, often half raw, and they cut and slash and tear it apart. They eat with knives and sponge. It makes a civilization being perfectly satisfied."

One fancied himself in the presence of sword swallowers. They even sit down at the same table with women, and the latter are served first, reversing the order of service."

ADVERTISING US, PRAYING

Here goes deserving of notice:

The small daughter of a Little Rock family had been praying each evening at bed-time for baby sister. The other morning her mother, reading the paper, exclaimed:

"Now Mr. Smith has a little daughter! How do you know that?" asked the child.

"Read it in the paper."

The mother read: "Born—On March 1, to Mr. and Mrs. ——, a daughter."

The child thought a moment, then said:

"I know I am going to do something."

"I am going to pray and begin advertising!" Little Rock Gazette.

There are two sides to every story. The victory you win spells defeat for the other chap.

Had one of our suffragettes been in Mother Eve's place, what a fool she would have made of that fact!

Many a man has lost a good job get away from him because he harbored the delusion that no other man was smart enough to fill his place.

The average wife thinks she is her husband's guiding star—but most husbands' refuse to be guided.

Two and a Half Hours on Operating Table

Specialist Could Not Remove Blood In The Bladder

GIN PILLS PASSED IT

Johannes, P. D.—During August last, I went to Montreal to consult a specialist as I had been failing to urinate while lying down in the bladder.

He decided to operate but said the best way to have it removed was to send to Canada for Dr. Milburn, who was recommended by a friend to try GIN PILLS.

They referred me to Dr. T. I. took two bottles and went back to the specialist. He said the stone was smaller but he could not remove it although he tried for two hours and then retired to take a walk. I took the pills again and to my great surprise and joy, I passed the stone.

Dr. Milburn gave me the bad medicine in the first place, because they did not much good. I will recommend them all the rest of my life.

In Makes New Friends Every Day.—Not a day goes by that Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil does not widen the circle of its friends. Orders for it come from the most unlikely places in the west and far north, for its fame has travelled far. It deserves this attention, for no oil has done so much for humanity. Its moderate cost makes it easy to get it.

Occasionally the breaking of an engagement snubs both parties to live happily ever after.

Faith may be all right in its place, but it doesn't enable a man to deliver the goods on schedule time.
