Veteran Mail Carriage Injured. Mr. Alex. McLeod, the veteran mail carrier who delivers Rural Route No. 4 was seriously injured in a run-away accident while on his route, Monday of last week. For some purpose he had stopped his horse, and the animal had lowered its head to eat some grass. The saddle became unfastened, and slipped over the horse's ears. When being restrained by a girl, who was passing, the horse bolted, and Mr. McLeod was left in the air in a helpless condition, being unable to exercise the least control over the horse. It started to run at Mr. P. McFadden's, and tore along at terrific speed, and finally threw him out. He sustained a severe fracture of one rib, besides being painfully lacerated on his side. His son is conducting the mail delivery, but the postal personality of Mr. McLeod is much missed from the route.

PRESENTATION AT BILCOAM

Rev. Robt. Johnston and Miss Johnston recipients of Evidences of Goodness.

About 70 of the members of Bilcoam Church met at the home of Mr. Basil Johnston, first line, Erin, on Wednesday of last week to pay a parting tribute to Mrs. Robt. Johnston and Miss Johnston, prior to their leaving to take up residence in Acton.

For over fifty years, Mrs. Johnston, who was one of the pioneers of the district, has been a member of Bilcoam Church and a loyal supporter in all its enterprises, and Miss Johnston has been actively associated with all endeavors among younger people.

Upon the assembling of the guests the following address was read by Mrs. Bert McKowin, and the presentation address, kindly made by Mrs. Edward Cleave and Mrs. Murray.

To Mrs. ROBERT AND MISS JOHNSTON: Our dear friends: We are proud of Bilcoam here to appreciate the value you have been to our church and community here. Very reluctantly do we say farewell to you as you move away from the old home, the old church and the old home.

You, Mrs. Johnston, have been a member of our church these fifty-one years that the "brick church" has been existing. During all these years you have been earnestly interested in her welfare. You have rendered the enthusiastic, devoted and constant service that has made our church a joy and inspiration to all. The church owes you more than we can tell.

As a neighbor you have been kind, considerate and neighborly at all times and to all. In our sicknesses and bereavements you gave splendid and loving aid for which you are endeared to-day to every house. You shall not soon be forgotten.

We hope that many and pleasant years may be yours in which to enjoy them and that their value to you may largely be in their offering to your outside the love and seasons in which you are held by your family around Bilcoam.

Signed on behalf of Bilcoam Friends: Mrs. A. McRae, Mrs. E. Cleave, T. H. Clark, Pastor.

A short program of songs and recitation. Rev. T. R. Clark, pastor of the church, delivered a short, felicitous address. Responses were also made by Mrs. Bert McKowin, Geo. Leila, Andrew Murray, James Todd, Ed. Thomas, Wm. Allen, Joe Leila, Richard Johnson, Mr. McLeod.

The address was interspersed by duets by Miss Elva and Beatrice Pearson, a solo by Miss Luella Reed, recitations by Miss Lily McKowin and by Clara Johnston. Mr. Fred Denny had for his photograph present and was very liberal with his selections.

Mrs. Johnston replied for Miss Johnston and herself, expressing sorrow at severing old-time friendship and intimacies, but optimistic in the hope of frequent opportunities to renew old friendships.

Many were the expressions of sorrow at the departure of this esteemed couple from the country, but the fact was emphasized that it was not a removal of great distance, but optimistic in the hope of frequent opportunities to renew old friendships.

THE METHODIST GENERAL CONFERENCE

A change has been made with regard to the General Superintendency. Rev. Dr. Carson, who at the time of Union in 1883 was elected one of two, along with Rev. Dr. Rice and who has been since 1883 elected in eight-year terms, had four more years of his term. But having attained to about the fourteenth term of life, he is now elected General Superintendent.

Rev. Dr. Carson has had a wonderful life. As Bishop of the M. E. Church before the Union he was all over the province attending meetings of all kinds, and since, continued travelling in every direction. For years his engagements for services at well attended churches covering two or three months, all over the Dominion. He was always a fine, outspoken, doctrinal preacher, strong on theology, and as a preaching officer probably never had an equal. He was a practical example of the truth that a people are often in small parcels—he is well weighed about 125 pounds. He preached in Acton on three anniversary occasions—in 1886 for Rev. T. Phillips in 1893 for Rev. Joseph Edge, and in 1903 for Rev. J. H. Macdonald.

The office of Rev. Dr. Carson has been held over since the Union by Rev. Dr. William Briggs, who had held it in the chief uniting body for over four years previously so that it is 39 years since his first election and he sustained for another four years. One of the finest preachers in the church in the days of his pastorate—"the silver-tongued orator of Methow"—he has preached almost incessantly while managing the large book and Publishing House.

He has been a member of the M. E. Church since 1845 for Rev. J. O. Callaghan, in 1853 for Rev. J. E. Howell, in 1903 for Rev. A. E. Smith, and in 1910 for Rev. Dr. Antill.

In his early life he was in the mercantile business which gave him a special fitness for his present position—which by the way has always been held by a minister since its beginning in Canada by Rev. Egerton Heywood about 1820. Dr. Briggs is said to have been the first to take up the work of his country's wit. When elected President of Toronto Conference many years ago he was one of four youths who had to preach their trial sermons on the same occasion. One of the last returned, he said, "I have been the first to take up the 'Presidency', and revealed Mr. Briggs, 'there is now, the last of the four to attain this honor.'

Rev. Dr. Griffin, another of the associates, now about seventy, again alluded to the "Presidency" of the Superintendency. No man in the convention was a more outspoken champion of the "work-out" position as the term used to be spoken. He was a frequent figure in Acton Church. Nine years pastorate in Guelph and those of Galt gave him a country life for various occasions. He was in his active days one of the country's valiant temperance advocates. He was a Waterloo boy in the adjoining county of Wentworth.

Rev. Dr. T. R. Clark, pastor of the church, delivered a short, felicitous address. Responses were also made by Mrs. Bert McKowin, Geo. Leila, Andrew Murray, James Todd, Ed. Thomas, Wm. Allen, Joe Leila, Richard Johnson, Mr. McLeod.
