Acton Free Press.

VOLUME XL .--- NO. 35.

Every Subscription Faid in Advance

ACTON, ONTARIO, THURSDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 25, 1915.

Subscription Price, $1,00 Fer Annum.

SINGLE COPIES---THREE CENTS

The Arton Free Press to PCP-PROBLED CVERY THE RED LY MORNING

Trans or Hungrup Tion—One delier per year strictly in devence. "1.50 to subscribers in the United States. All subscriptions discontinued when the time for which they have been paid has expired. The date to which every subscription is paid is denoted on the address label.

Advertising that we be a Translant advertisements, 10 cents per Nonparell line for that insertion and 5 cents per line for each subscribent insertion. Contract display advertisements, for 50 or inches more, per subscription seeds per inches more, per subscription cents per inches timesting. Yestivoutracts for reading matter 12 cents per inch each insertion.

Advertisements without specific directions will be inserted till forbid and charged accord-Translent advertisements must be paid Advertisements will be changed once each month, if desired. For changes oftener than above mentioned the extra composition must be paid for at regular races, All accounts collected mentily, H. P. HOOKE. . Editor and Proprietor

> Susiness Directory. ------

MEDICAL. . ": " IMHOS. GRAV, M. D. C. M., McGILL L. R. O. P. EDINBURGH.

L. R. V. P. & H. GLASOW. MEMBER RESTIEU MEDICAL AMOUTATION KYO. Office-Frederick Street 4elou. Oct

VETERINARY ----Acton Onterio Velorium College lied.
Omes-Arthurs Block. Residence, Mill St.
Calle day or night promptly attended to.

LEGAL. ----J. MACKINNON

AMBISTER, HOLIGITON, CONVEYANCES OFFICE-Mill Street, in Persyman Block, DENTAL.

I XIL J. M. BELL. D.D.S., L.D.B. AUTOH. Phone No. 20 omas at Residence, Corner Miliand Frederick HONOR CHADDATE OF TORONTO UNIVERSITY The tatest ansesthetic tuesd of desired

AIL L. L. HENNETT DENTIST. ONBREMAN DEOCE . HUROSTOWN

MISCKLL ANKOUS.

ARABUTH NUNAN HOOKHINDER Wyudham hs., (Over William - htore.)

ruelph, Dutarte Account Blooks of all almos crade to order Periodicals of every description arefully bound.

LEARRIAGE LICENSES. IL. P. MINORK I-shap or Manniage Linguists. Privata Office No witnesses required femind widenes to the evening.

Prop Proc Did re. ACYON DEBRUT MILLION

LICENSED AUCTIONBED Vor the Countles of Paul and Halton.
Valuator, head Helet - Agout, Farm property for alla. House to can.
Odias: Hill Hirust, Acton, that.
Orders for another sales sell at Free Press pass will receive prompt attention.

R. J. APHR LICENSED AUCTIONNES For the Counties of Wellington, Helion, Post and Duporte, and the city of tiusiph, the conducted with estimated and upon resentable terms, Orders by letter to litinosa P. O., or Calaton falsolidas in residence in connection with the falsolidas arrangements so to datas and after their san to make the falsolidas and the fals beller, Astas, will receive immediate attention.

MARKE TO BELL ON MO AT. B. CHEEVERS BOUK BINDER Chiebeo St. Kast - - Guelph, Oat. Books and Majanines bound in Handanassand Names lattered in gold on lithles, Mynam Books and other flooks. ALL WORK PROMPTLY EXECUTED

The Old and Reliable Granite and Marble Dealers

Will are granufasturers and direct importure work. We sail direct to our outcomers at whole sails prises, thus saving our equatomers to permant; We have the heat applicates and the saily blackanies in the liquinion who can operate Phenometic tools properly. We can always provide and other planes, where others have to stand law quits in order to solicat. We have the largest and but stock of Granits in th the west. We are legitimate designs and em-ploy so agents, and do not annoy or peet suc-tionary by sanding out ignorant agents to solicit orders by sanding out ignorant agents to solicit orders by sanding membries only and dely gampatition.

MAMILTON & SONS Co. Martalk and Woodwhich . te. GURLPH

DOUBLE TRACK ALL THE WAY

TOHONTO-CHICAGO TORONTO-MONTREAL Unexcelled Train Services Highest Class at Equipment

WINTER TOURS TO CALIFORNIA Florida and Cunny South Past Trains -- Choice of Routes Low Pares now in Effect

Por full particulars consult (). T. R Ticket agents or write C. M. HO INING. Dist. Pass. Agent, Toronto.

H. S. Holmes, Agent No. 13

Savage & Co. Katabilahad 1849 JEWELLER GUELPH

The old and Reliabe Watchmakers and

Jeweilers

Savage & Co. Guelph

NOBLE'S Flour and Feed Store

Shorts

Oat Chop

Corn Chop

Cracked Corn

Molassine

-POR-Bran Mixed Chop Gluten Meal Corn Feed Flour Bibby's Calf Meal

ROBERT NOBLE, Ltd. J. L. WARREN, Manager

Willow St. Acton Ont.

Grain Chopping

Well Done and Quickly at only 5 cents per bag.

HARRIS& CO., Limited MOCKWOOD

Waters Bros. Guelph

HEADQUARTERS FOR O. A. C. School Supplies NATURE STUDY BOYANICAL ETOHOLOGICAL DRAWING

41 Wyndham Street Phone 880

PAINTING

EXCELSION BAKERY George Statham Church St. . . .

Asies

The bakery business of T. Bratban & Bon it Acton, which has been conducted for the past thirty years, has been purchased by George Statham and will be conducted in the same first-class manner as la the past. All Linds of Bread Cakes, Pastry, Wed ding Cakes and Christ mas Cakes will be supplied to the satisfaction of all customers.

GEO. STATHAM

Acton

A Buy Word for Good Tools

Spring 1915 is Coming with a Rush When you think of Spring Hardware we want you to think of "BOND'S"-"BUY IT AT BONDS."

Martin bollour 100 per cent pure Paint National Portland Consent Peterborough and Vale Locks Linolaum, Alabastine Fending, blding and Hoofing WE HAVE WHAT YOU WANT

The BOND HARDWARE Co. Limited

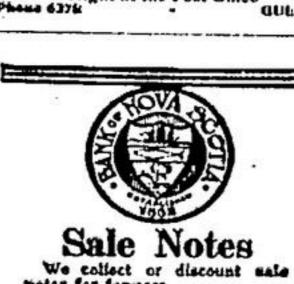

Phone 10-12 Ten-Twelve) GUELPH

NOTICE

To Patrons of this Establishment .D. SAVAGE will be in Detroit, the week of the 21st, taking up Post Graduate Work in connection with the Scientific Section of the Ammerican Optical Assocition of which he is a momber. Our usual prompt service in lens grinding and repair department not effected.

A. D. SAVAGE OPTOMETRIST & MFG. OPTICIAN |

motes for farmers. Notes left for collection are secure against fire or burglary, and the makers are notified or the due date. When pald, the money goes to your credit without any trouble bed your part.

We shall be glad to furnish you with the note forms free of tharge. The Bank of Nova Scotia with which is united the

Metropolitan Bank BRANCHES AT

Acton, Guelph, Norval Millton and Streetsville

The Regal

We have numerous lines of excellent shoes in our well-assortted stock but for genuine comfort

100a

Regal Cushioned Sole Shoe

pleases our customers best. Come in and examine them.

Repairing promptly done. Rub ber heels put on while you wait.

Kenney Bros.

Main St. D. ALEX, NIVEN

Catarlo Land Surveyor and Civil Survoys, Subdivisions, Plans, Re ports, Descriptions, Blueprints, etc. Certificates for purchasers and mort gagees; Surveys for Architects. Buil-ders and Municipal Councils; Drainage Reports, Estimates, otc. MERCHANTS BANK BLOG.

Guelph Business College ONYARIO

GUELPH (Phone (064) ONT.

WE CIVIC experimental to all subject The a neclade it in the beating tractice of incom-The a neclade it in the pain. Parking, Implicate Correspondence, undower Paper, Commercial Arithmetic, Hapid Paloulation, Commercial Law, English Grammer and Composition, Pen-marally, Spalling, Typewriting and dismo-

OUR SPROIAL courses in Preson and German give an absolutely more productive and absolutely more productive for and a practical courses der either language for business surposess. These coursess are of great practical value in view of the expansion, to the near future, of Canada's family trade. BHTER HOW for any of the a courses and

"OII. WILLIE WAS A LAD"), Willie was a lad-who thought it fun To spade in the garden soil :

But ere an hour could pass, he would a and cry, "Alus! It isn't fair that I should have to toil. Oh, Willio was a lad who began with To shovel the snow away : But the work grow old, and his feet And he stayed in the house all day.

). Willie was a but who denoted with Joy When school opened fresh in the full: But before a month was out, he would drag bla feet and pout, "I don't like to go to school at all." , Willie was a lad who began with a When he had any work to do: But the trouble, you see-now, listen

He couldn't stick till it was through.

BUSINESS MAN'S CREED If you want to be rich, give ! If you want to be poor, grasp! If you want abundance, scatter! If you

Belect Yamily Heading

WHO WILL REPAY?

EXELYS ORTHARD

THEY huddled togother, a forlare little group on the quay at Oatend waiting for the dawn and for the teamer that was to take them to the luvon of havens across the North Hea-England, whose doors like the gate of Heaven, are not shut at all by night or day to the call of the woody and the op-

There was Aunt Martho, Madam Hallete from Roulers, where the murderous fire was booming, Clare, Yvonne, Marie, Harle and little Loon, also Auguste, tall and shadowy, whose health did not permit him to collet in the army ; but where was Mathible ?

No one spoke her name or dared to ask, for Mathildo was the flower of the flock and had been fast seen standing in the doorway of their burning house in the village looking deflance at the approaching for. Where was Muthilde! tied in Heavon alone know, but they know what had happened to maklens in other villages. Were the stories not sarred upon their hands had put it in fair order. From near brain and heart ?

the bitter cold, the chill, ust mist clinging lack in that shelter for the homelass. to them as if it would fain hide them from dangers unknown. A little fitful alumber noted the evidence of kindly forethough came to them at moments when they could | and of ready and loving welcome, welled forget their unutterable woo, but the dawn | tears of unutterable thankfulnes. found them stert, wide-eyed, ever olying nearer to the place where the test was torious reason -perhaps because the child

England. The last heat! and after that only God hands and exclaimed, "Vive l'Angleterre!" know! And the boom of the guns was coming nearer. A rod streak scross the door of the little home on that forlors hand sea hereklad the dawn, which stole over of exiles, she lifted her eyes, tear filled, to Shoe the waiting earth softly, as it had done all inscrutable shee, and voiced the question: through the centuries before this frightful carnival of idead and terror had run rio among the nations. With the dawn camo fresh crowds to swell the waiting throng and when at last the men of the ship began to make really for starting, the excitement and the struggle became pitiful. Who shall describe it? None dare try. Beaperation last strength to feelile women, tocry-log children, and the men stood back and gave them their chance. At last, after an appalling bour, Madanie Ralista woulgail tightly in one corner of the dack, counted har little broad machanicaly, as she had counted them a hundred times in the last frightful days.

Clara, Yvonna, Maria, Barlia, little Leon and Auguste! A faint smile of inexpressible sweetness

They were not her own, but she could daffall may have meant much to your answer in prayer now to her slater, flululelle, whom the war had killed, and who had left them in her care. As the shores of Helgium receded from their view they had no sorrow but only ineffalls relief. Love of country had not dlod in these pitiful, loyal hearts, and you who would blame them have never known the egony of unnamable fear and horror. baside which death itself would have been honey-sweet. The kindly see, though tossed under them, was dear as the craillo of the first horn, and the lessening distance filled them with unspeakable gratitude. Madame Hallate, with her proud old head woman's." bont, gave thanks to God for somuch mercy

England they did not know. them there, since England is mother of all. | lurd-Their wonly goods consisted of the few personal articles contained in three vallecs. their money could be counted on the fingers of one hand. The chateau and the vineyards which had yielded so handsome t sum for the mulutonance of a large family in comfort were all destroyed. Madame horself had watched the collapse of the last wall of the chateau, and had bewalled in kind ever her heart her topestries and her old Flemish to hide or bring away. But at that time she cared nothing ; all about herknee were unanathed, all but Muthilde. Up to the grey skies of the North been murciful and taken Mathilde quickly in to get more and so ;-" to Himself. The long hours at last brought | the the other skie of the fence Miss Mary them to the grey shores of England where was gathering a great cluster of golden tions to a successful trans. Home direct to the kindly hands welcomed and feel them, and bloom. There was a new light in hereyes, College Office, 127 Upper Wyndham Street, or after various delays and much waiting Was it from the brightness of the blossome under thosky thay found themselves in a before lier or the radiance of the joy of

They were country people and the size of the city terrified them. In all the world could there be anything so vast? "Hursly hore, mos enfants," observed Aunt Marth, "a whole world could hide." Arrived at a great terminus they were driven on a motor car to the palace of glass given up wholly us a clearing house for the refugees. Under that kindly roof, forlors and tortured Belgium met in one great convention of woo. As Mulamo Colesta looked about her and realized the vantness the completeness of her country's devestotion, she excluimed us one distraught :-"Mon Dien, who is to repay?"

Prosuntly a kindly quick Scotoliwoman speaking excellent French and wearing the hulgo of the moognized, worker, came to them and heard their story. Her deep grey syow were pittful, her wide, kind mouth quivored as Madaur Hallsto's voice broke on the name of Mathilde. But none must give way too much for when there is stern work to be done as well as pitiful, the emotions must be kept under strict control. All details were taken down in a book and then after consultation with others. Madame Saliste was informed that they would be passed on for a few days to a pension until a home in the country could be "A home, mademolselle " said Madame Hallete, wistfully, "what kind of a home ?

"In the country people are giving or preparing houses where groups such as you can live together in some semblance of family life. We find that it is letter so." "And one will be found for us," crist Malame Saliste carrerly, "where all my children can be about me while we wait

"While you wait for what?" asked the worker on the spur of the moment, tempted by the significance of the exile's words. "While we walt the great return mademokello, and the compensation which the good God will arrange when the day

ornes for the just punishment to be moted "God speed that day, madame," said the Bootchwoman fervently, and Mudame Halisto knewered "Amen !" inexpressible dreary days in a boarding house where not a word of French was unchange. Two French-speaking, brightfaced English girls came one afternoon to served in the old church, and at 7.30 the inform Madamo Haliste that the home in new building was crowded. Prof. Leopard the country was ready and they would take of Toronto, conducted a brief organ recital, them to it. Another railway fourney, a Rev. J. C. Smith, of tiuelph, led in prayer, windows were all alight like so many smil- duced Rav. Wm. Patterson, of Cooke's ing eyes and from the roof of which flew Church, Toronto, as an esteemed college the Belgian flag. hum; cross the threshold with her brood, thanks was moved by Reva. Howell and follo of last by the tall Auguste, in whose and Bryen. Hev. Mr. Res before closing frank blue eyes dwelt a great sadness. For spoke of the liberality which had been the man who is rejected and who has to shown, and the excellent work done by the stay healds the women in war time leather

It was a little house but most complete Kindly hearts had planned it, capable ly every house in the little town something All night they had huddled together in had been brought, so that nothing might

Into the even of Madame Raliste, on the Little Pierre, overloyed, for some tays lving, uniting the signal to set unil for beyond all others feels a house to be an intimate ascoralty.-enddonly throw up his But when the Bootelswoman closed the "Who will repay?" "NI OKIVIO"

"But don't you think," Boctor Merelith said gently, "that we sometimes win our greatest victories just by-giving in?" "It's the principle of the thing." Miss Mary Insisted. "That woman means to be diagresable. If I let her ride over me little things-"

"Mayle she's only tired-ton tired take the langer way round the grass to the well. And as for having picked that daffodill-did you never feet hungry for a flower, or the night and touch some heautiul thing?" "But I wouldn't steal it." "Steal it?" repeated the old man, ble by Rev. H. Il. Christie, from Victoria eyes on the wind-to-od blossoms beyond ourved her sail, proud mouth as the count the gravel walk. "Head it from whom? ed them all, none missing, -but only It was tied's earth and sir, tied's rain and gaways. unshine that brought it into being. That

> "But it's the principle of the thing. lurely you don't udvocate-" gently. "I've lived almost twice as long as soon extinguished by those first at hand by you have, and I've come to believe that an application of snow. It was in the coal there is only one indispensable principle house, but the stable doors were open and -and that is love. We out never really hay was scattered therefrom to the scene of > know the pain and weariness of another's the fire where there was a quantity unconlife. Only love our understand-a little." sumed. It being clearly a case of attempt-Mary was weeding near the white was ned fence that volces sounded on the side. Was it Dr. Meredith's? You, and "that "It has done her a world of good-just that one blossom. They used to grow What was going to happen to them in our old home and it's been year's since sho's evensmolled enound I meant to usk A mother-heart would doubtless enfold the lady for it but she seemed so kind of-"Hat she isn't when you really know her," the doctor sald and tears of gratitude sprang to Miss Mary's even "Well," the other returned, "wo'd lad some words about the puth, and I made up my mind not to sneak to her ugain-" "And you wouldn't give in?" The doctor shook like bond wistful smile in his

"My elster said I was wrong," the other glass and the silver she had not had time returned. "His save us we near the box derland, things like that don't soom worth noticing. Oh, if you know how that flower that matter was that the fairheads grouped | has helped the time to pass with my sister. It has almost made me want to go the lady and thank her, but of course she wouldn't Heawinged a volceless prayer that field had understand, should only think I was giving the rules!

TWENTY YEARS AGO Notes From the Free Press of Thursday, February 28th, 1805 Knox Church opening services were hold | its full strength in its own defence. Hut on Hunday, February 24th, and were it failed. Public opinion declares that the characterized by excellent sermons and large sulcon, the barroom, and the drinking club congregations, aspecially in the evening, are all gone, gone past recall. This, of When half an hour before 7 o'clock fully course, is only a straw. But it is a straw 1000 persons were assembled, and the which shows the way the wind is blowing. service began at 6.45, no more persons The currents of life in all parts of the could find standing room. The pastor, United States are running strongly, and

THE DOOM OF THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC

BosMolnos, the capital city of Iowa, wipod out all of itemore than 10 liquor licensos on Monday last. The traille marshalled

REV. J. W. RAE

Rev. J. W. Rue, led in the morning openpresently will run irredutably against the log prayer, and conducted the services liquor traffic and the social drinking ousthroughout the day, which will be one toms. Newspaper men in all the Htates of regarded by members of the congregation as an important date for all coming time. After using the old church for between 40 and 50 years they have moved into the fine now edition. Rev. D. C. Hossack, of Park-dale, preached in the morning from Acta 24: 23 "And as Paulressoned of rightsousness, temperance and judgment to come, Felly troubled ;" and in the evening from More journeyings across London, a few | Matt. 21 : 28 "Bon, go work to-day in my vineyard." Rev. J. E. Howell, of the Mothadiat Church, proached in the after derstood, and where all, even the food was | mon, from Matt. 26 : 8 "To what purpose strange and unpalatelile then unother is this waste." On Monday evening a teameeting was held. A bountiful table was they draw up before a house where the Lament," and then Rov. Mr. Rao introclassmate, who delivered a spleniki lecture With what carerness did Madana Haliste on "Ireland and the Irish." A vote of contractors, J. J. Lawson, carpenter work lossph Auderson, plastering, and Nicholas Forles, stone work. "Houther Bell," an occasional contribu tor to the Pure Pursa, who heard Re-Mr. Hosaock's evening sermon, was mov to compose the following heautiful lines;

WORK FOR THE MASTER Tolling in the vineyard In the morning glow; Cease not, nor resting, Till the aun is low. Working for the Master, Winning souls for Him, Raising up the fallen From the depths of aln Who have gone estray;

Calling in the carelass

From the world's highway Placing with the wayward In tandarest tones of love : Yelling them of Jesus And the home above; Working for the Master Casting error down ; Winning souls for Jeaus Jewels for your crown. The County Sunday School Convention two days last week in the Method! Church was of great interest and profit Rev. John McEwen, Normal Becretary, was the Provincial representative, and gave Important addresses. Rev. J. E. Howell M. A., gave the address of welcome. Hev. R. Haddow, B. A., of Milton, presided until the last session when he gave way to Mr. W. V. Hopkins, of Burlington, the new President. The Brick Church tea mosting last week was very successful. Addresses were given University : Itev. J. F. Howell, Acton, Rev. Mr. Amy, and Mr. Harbares, Nassa-

Persons leaving Knox Church on Mor day ulght were alarmed by the fire bell. and it was discovered that there was a blazoet Mr. Thos. Easton's. Mr. and Mrs. Easton had been asleen but were aroused "Miss Mary," the doctor interposed by the strong odor of smoke. The fire was It was the mext afternoon, when Miss ed erson. The Council is offering 8100 re-

Miss Elica McQueen, of Hockwood, visit ul Miss Minnis Holmes a few days last

The root of Mr. John Arthurs' residence over Matthews' harness shop, caught fire from a spark on Mouday ufternoon. ire, however, was soon extinguished.

HEUSYKERY-At Milton, on February 26th, Humals E., claughter of Mr. Hichard STORY OF ROOSEVELY

In Colonel Rossovelt's autobiography l an incklant that onlivened a tedious don't lock in the New York Logislature. occurred before the Lagislature was organized for the session. A mamber unmod Brogen suddenly rose. Brogen-Mister Cler-rk !

The Clerk-The gentleman from New York. The Clark -There are no rules. Brogen-Thin I object to thim.

VIRST PARTOR OF NEW KNOX CHERCO

that in ten years it will be outlawed. It is going to quit school and go to work."

traffic in all the progressive nations. nations a generation ago, is Canada to sink of "making good" to Miss Perry's satisfacto the roar with the decadent peoples? short drive through the falling rain and Prof. Leopard sang "The Irish Emigrant's Is Ontario to forfeit the front-line place in social reform as well as in educational progreas? The man who to-day boasts about firm. He was to have two weeks' trial be-world of living civilization. The Logislature of Ontario now in session will be put to the proof in these searching weeks. For years the Provincial House has been marking time, if indeed it has not gravely, "I told you that after sweeping lisen retrogressing, in the march of modern the office you were to guther up the dirt ideas. By various expedients in legislation and throw it into the waste hox in the the organized liquor truffic has been hamp- stockroom. Do you remember that?" erest here and hedged in there, but now that the Government is brought face to suldued voice.

face with the direct issue its mattle as well as its moruls will be tested. his chance, a chance that comesto few men at all, but was simply swept into some out once, to no man twice. These stern wer of the way corner and left there. I don't times are a robuke to the pifile talked by like that kind of work. The shipping clark by the salf-indulgent. The consumption of tells use, too, that you've made three or expensive wines and liquors at public din- four very carcless mistakes in delivering ners and languots, even if it were a harm- packages. I think you'd better look for an thousands of our fellow-citizens, men, women, and children, must shiver in the less to bed. Public opinion is speaking reminded him disagreeably of Miss Perry. starnly about the nosdiase waste of grain He bagan again the scarch for a place but in enervating haverages at a time when he walked many a mile and investigated half the nations are facing a year of famine. Everything in economics, everything in sociology, everything in the logic of events combine to make it just and proper for Premier Hearst to do a great right and crust and slameless for him to do a great wrong. The liquor traffic is doomed. - Globe.

ACAINST THE WIND It is a fine thing to have circumstances favorable when you have work to do, to feel yourself tingling with vitality to your finger sails, to know that you are at your bast, physically and mentally, and that all your surroundings are helpful. But such silvuntageous conditions are exceptional. It is only occasionally that you can do your work with everything favorable. And so the most important lesson for any worker to learn is to live independent of circum-Manoas. Perhaps you did not sleep well. thunderstorm or a feline concert in the luck yard may have robbed you of some of the hours which mount rest and refrachment. But you cannot afford to let your day's work go to amush because you rise weary instead of energetic. The work of certain days must be done with the band! cup of a headache, twitching nerves, or possibly an attack of indigestion. Bometimes the first mail brings had news and the misfortune of some friend or anxiety regarding our own future must be resolute ly sot saldo hefore we can give to our daily task the attention it demands for its succossful accomplishment. And instead of having bleat surroundings to ald concentration, most of us must contain with noise confusion and numberless distractions. McDonard-In Enqueding, on February 5th, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McDonald, a the fact that much of the world's best work daughter. This would seem disheartening but for has been done in spite of these handlespa-Ill health, overwork, crushing responsibilities, interruptions have all been powerless to interfere with the success of the world's great workers. As a matter of fact, if we study the curears of the men whose lives have been most splendidly worth while. we realize that the mujerity of them had hundleans which might soom almost over wholming. "Kitos rise not with, but unainst the wind," and the worker wholise dissilvantages to overcome is likely to surpass lile more favored competitor.

> Miller's Worm Powders are a prompt reliaf from the attacks of worms in ohitdron. They are powerful in their action ing fover, lilliousnoss, lose of appetite,

An APPEAL

We gave our sons to England With pride and secret tears, With all the hope and promise Of their unturnished years, That they might do her bidding, That they might know her worth,

And hold the troth of England Above all guin on earth. And sho-how has she guarded. The men who heard her call, Cast off their eare and plousure And gladly gove their all.
Lost, while young knighthood watches
Its armer, like a source

Some fool floud of the darkness Croop on it-unaware? Her drinkshops rock around them Her vice entrapa their way, Their souls are hers to slay.

Too weak to guard her trust. Him leaves the lives we lent her The spoil of drink and lust. O, England, we have given Our best to serve thy need. Not for a brewer's profit.

Fuir in their life's first promise, Earth's foul ways yet untrod, Their lives are thine, O England, But guard their souls for tind.

Alliance Nows.

-Canon J. H. B. Masterman, in the

"YOU'LL HAVE TO MAKE GOOD" An after-school interview with his teach or had left Not sulky, and determined that

"Hhe thinks I ought to make good every His suggestion, made that night at the

in the war. The probibition of the use of hard to make his modest salary cover all vodka already is making a new Russia. The needs of a growing family, and it is not France, delivered from the ourse of sheinthe to be wondered at if secretly he welcomed will be a new France. If Britain really | the thought of a lightening of the burden, awakens to the peril of intemperance as however alight. If he felt uncomfortable seen in the lurid war light, there will at the idea of outting Nat's schooling shore emerge a new Britain. The handwriting he consoled himself with the thought that on the wall forotells the doom of the liquor the boy could go back to school later on when things eased up a bit. And so, rather In Canada to lag boblisd? Having start- I to his surprise but very much to his joy, oil well, loading the way for the new Nat found himself free from the necessity

> tion every day. In less than a week he had found a place employer's office and found to his surprise > that his work had not been satisfactory. "When I explained to you what you would have to do," his employer sald

"Yes, sir," was Nat's answer in a very "I've been watching things pretty close ly the last two wooks, and soveral mornings What will Premier Hearst do? He has I've noticed that the dirt was not taken up loss tuxury, is a social crime so long as other place, Nat. I'm afraid you won's make good hero." Out on the street Nat made a wry face cast-off garments of charity and go supper- at the memory of those last words, which many a "Boy Wanted" sign before he found work once more, this time us a telegraph massanger boy. Again his time of employment was short, for in some way that he

"We can't keep any loys here who don't convenience. It came over him suddenly that if he did not "make good" he would be the one who would have to suffer. On his way to the West skie of the city the river. The warning gong was ringing of railroad tracks and he hurried to get on the bridge before it should swing to lat a ing over the bridge rail onto the deek of The words were evidently addressed to a new band. "You'll have to make good if you're go ug to stay on this boat. Nat sighed. It was as had as going to

"You understand, of course," his new employer said kindly, "that this is only on condition that you make good. We can't

- With the opening of the next term Nuthi anial was in his old sout at school.

"Yes," answered his teacher.

The Terror of Asthms comes like a thief in the night with its dreadful throttling. robbing its victim of breath. It seems beyoul the power of human ald to relieve Life becomes worth living, and, if the Refere they fuce the battle . Too blind to see her duty,

Not for a harlot's greed,

he would put an oud to these disagreeable half hours alone with Miss Perry, of which he had already had more than he cared day !" he said to himself in deep disgust as the Republic declare that the trade is al- hetrudged homeward, his hands thrust deep ready ostracized in business circles and into his pockets. "If dui'll let me, I'm

In Europe the same movement has set in, supper table, met with more favor than be especially among the nations of the Allies had expected. Nat's father was finding is as office and errand how for a down town Ontario's leadership only reveals his own fore he was permanently engaged. At the ignorance of what is happening in the end of the two weeks he was called to his could not understand or explain he tost an important message on which a great deal make good," he was told, and with those words ringing in his mind he started out a thind time in search of work. He did not relish the thought that there would be no pay envelope the following flaturday although he had had only a few so fur, both he and the family had found them a great he had to cross one of the drawbridges over as he crossed the visduot over a network big lumber barge through. As stood lookthe barge, an angry voice came to his cars.

school to Miss Perry, he thought dismally. He was fortunate in finding a place on the West side that promised fair wages and a good chance for advancement.

keep you at all if you don't." When Nat went home that night there was an air of determination about him that had been lacking before. His even had opened at last to the fact that everywhere he world insisted that one should make

"Yes," he told Miss Perry, "I think that

'd better keep on and so does futher

now. It taken a good deal of practice and real knowledge to 'make good' in what one taker in hand, you know."

and, while leaving nothing to be desired as until one trial is made of that remarkable a worm expollant, have an invigorating preparation, Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Brogan-Oh! (non-plused, but immedi- slooplossness, and other allmonts that utely recovering bimself) This I move that I follow disorders caused by worms in the they be amended until there arerere.