ACTON, ONTARIO, THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 22, 1915.

SINGLE COPIES --- THREE CENTS

The Acton Free Press IN PULITINEE ONINGE VACENTURY VIEWS

Tanks of Hustunivicon—One dollar per year strictly in advance. $1.50 to subscribers in the United States. All subscriptions discontinued when the time for which they have been hald has expired. The date to which every subscription to neid is denoted on the address label.

Abvantation thather—I remains to describe ments, in come per Nonparell time for drat insertion and 5 cents per line for each subscription to the order of the ments, for by or inches more, for a subscription, Contract display advertise ments, for by or inches more, for a subscript per inches to reading matter 25 cents per inches able insertion. Advertisaments without specific directions will be interted till forbid and charged accordingly. Transient advertisements must be paid Advertisements will be changed once tasks month, if desired. For changes retener than shows mentioned the extra composition blues be paid for as regular rates.

Susiness Birectory.

U. P. MOORE.

Millor and Propelator

MEDICAL. ______

THOS. GRAY, M. D. C. M., McGILL L. M. C. F. MDUNDUNG. L. H. Y. Y. & H. CLASSOW. MERCHA HAITING MADROLL ASSOCIATION MYC

Office-Frederick Street

VETERINARY

AOHN FY MHON Asion Cotrio Veterinary College but.
Other-Atthure block. Healisted, Mill Mr.
Calle day or highl promptly attended to.

LEGAL.

BARRISTER, BOLLOTTON, CONVEYANCE Oveton-Mill Street, in Perryman Block

DENTAL.

R. J. M. BELL, D.D.S., L.D.S. Phone No. 10 ACTON. Office at Residence, Corner Hill and Frederick HONOR CHADULTS OF TORONTO UNIVERSITY The latest ansesthatie used if desired.

THE L. L. BENNETT. DESTIST.

MISCRILLANZOUS.

MRANOIS NUNAN

BOOKBINDER. Wyadham St., Guelph, Outerlo. (Over Williams Store.) Assemb Hooks of all kinds made to order Periodicals of every description earefully bound. Malic weekly sand promptly done

A ARRIAGE LICENSES. H. P. MOORE LAURE OF MARKIAGE LICENSES. Private Office. No witnesses required. Issued

Pres Press Office, AUYON TOOBERT WILLIAM INCHARD AUGMONNER For the Counties of Peel and Halton.
Valentar, Heal Matate Agent. Farm property for sele. Money to loan.
Office: Mill Street, Acton, Ont.
Orders for exciton cales last at Free Press office will receive prompt strention.

LICENSED AUGITORESE For the Countles of Wellington, Halton, Feel and Defferin, and the city of Guelph, Sales conducted with salisfaction and upon reasonable terms.

Orders by latter to Mimosa P. O., or Caledon telephone is residence in connection with the test, where arrangements as to dates and advertising our be made. Orders left at Farm France amon, Anion, will reserve immediate attention, special attention to sales in Anion and vicinity.

PARMS TO BELL OR KNAS.

J. B. CHEEVERS Quebes St. Kast - - Guelph Out. Hooks and Massaines bound in Handsome and Mames lattered to gold on Hibles, Mymn Books and other Books. ALL WORK PROMPTLY EXECUTED

The Old and Reliable Granite and Marble Dealers

We are manufacturers and direct important work. We sell direct to our qualousers as whole sale prises, thus saving our equiconsers to per each prises, thus saving our equiconsers to per each prises, thus saving our equiconsers to per each prise in the Dominion who saving each present from hundreds of our equiconser in words to and other planes, where others have to example and other planes, where others have to example and ball stock of Grants in the Dominion, or loose than any three desired in the Dominion, or loose than any three desired in the West. We are legitimate dealers and employ no agents, and do not amnoy or past our orders by sanding out ignorant agents to indict orders we ampley the character only and dety exceptition.

HAMILTON & SONS Oor, Morfelk and Woolwhiels Ste., OUNLYH

WANTED

A reliable man to sell Hardy Canadian Grown Stock in Actor and Halton County. Start now at the best selling Bend for list of Spring Offerings and terms to agents.

TORONTO

Liberal Commission, Handsome free outfit. STONE WELLINGTON "The Fonthill Nursery" (Ketabilahed 1857)

Rvery Subscription Paid in Advance

GUELPH

Mulmerspitted Price, $1.00 Per Annum.

Savage & Co. Established 1848

JEWELLER

The old and Reliable

Watchmakers and Jewellers

Savage & Co.

LIFE-LIKE PHOTOGRAPHS

VISIT C.A.MATTHEWS'

MILL Street Acton, Ont. Opposite Haptist Church THE LATESTSTYLES—PROMPT COMPLETION OF WORK

Moving Sale! OF MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS

Violins, Mandolins, Banjos, Guitars, Ogans, Square Pian Phonographs, Gramoselling at HALF PRICE.

We are not going to move our stock. We intend selling

QUELPH - ONT.

Waters Bros. Quelph

HEADQUARTERS FOR O. A. C. School Supplies NATURE STUDY

BOTANICAL

ETOMOLOGICAL

DRAWING

PAINTING

Phone 350

41 Wyndham Street

ncondondonnanaaaaaaaaanna EXCELSION BAKERY George Statham

Church St. - - Acton The bakery husiness of T. Statbans & Son in Acton, which has been conducted for the past thirty years, has been purchased by George Statham and will be conducted in the same first-class manner as in the past. All kinds of Bread, Cakes, Pastry, Wed. ding Cakes and Christmas Cakes will be supplied to the satisfaction of all customers.

GEO. STATHAM Acton Ostario

Seeman ganooo gaadabaadaad

You want to know the price. Well fol-Down by the sea, Sparles at 30c., 1 Se., 1.00. Spading Forkant 1.00 and 1.10. Rukos, Steel, 60c., 63c., 70c., 80c. Rakes, Malleable, 23c., 20c., and 33c. Rakes, Dunn's Lawn at 30c Rakes, wire lawn, 40c, and 43c. each Trowels, garden, 10c., 13c., and 23c Porks, garden, at 1 &c. and 20c. "Iloo yo next thynge." Barrows at $3.00, $3.23. and 3.75 Sprayers at $1.00. 1.23. $4.75 and

$5.00. WE WOULD APPRECIATE YOUR DRDER

Garden Tools

The BOND HARDWARE Co. Phone 10-12 Ten-Twelve) GUELPH

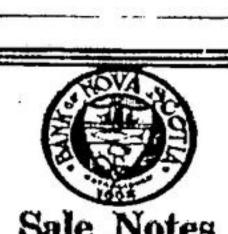

We Employ No Agents

It has been reported to office that agents are using our name to sell their glasses

We will appreciate it if you will phone in (at our expense) should these fakirs claim to have been sent, or have any connection whatever with this establish-

A. D. SAVAGE OPTOMETRIST & MFG. OPTICIAN

hous 637k

Sale Notes We collect or discount sale

Notes left for collection are ned the makers are notified of the due date.

When paid, the money goes to your credit without any trouble on your part. We shall be glad to furnish you with the note forms free of therre. The Bank of Nova Scotia with which is united the Metropolitan Bank

BRANCHES AT Acton, Guelph, Norval, Milton and Streetsville

D. ALEX, NIVEN

Surveys, Subdivisions, Plans, ports, Descriptions, Blueprints, etc. Certificates for purchasers and mort-C. W. Kelly & Son gagoes; Surveys for Architects. Builders and Municipal Councils; Drainage Reports, Estimates, etc. MERCHANTS BANK BLDG. QUELPH (Phone 1084) ONT.

> Guelph Business College ONTARIO

WE CIVE expert instruction in all subjects pertaining to a full graduating Rusiness Course.
These include Rocktroping, Ranking, Rusiness Course Report, Commercial Arithmetic, Rupid Calculation, Commercial Law, Rugish Grammar and Composition, Pentanghip, Repling, Typewriting and Rienography. OUR SPROIAL courses in French and German give an absolutely pure pronunciation and a prartical command of either language for business purposes. These rounces are of great prestical value in view of the expansion, in the near future, of Canada's foreign trade. ENTER NOW for any of these courses and follow the same under most favorable condi-tions to a successful I-sue. Come direct to the College Office, 137 Upper Wyndham Street or address

Malcolm MacCormack, B A., Prin

Che

ted stock but tor genuine comfort

Regal Cushioned Sole Shoe

pleases our customers best.

her heels put on while you walt. Kenney Bros. Main St.

Repairing promptly done. Rub

Poetry.

DOE YE NEXT THYNGE From an old English parsonage

There came, in the twillight A mossage to me : Itaqualut Haxon logond, Dochly ougmvon, Hatle, as it sooms to me, Tonoling from beaven ; And through the hours The quiet words ring Like a low inspiration,

Many a questioning. Many a fear. Many a doubt Hath its quicking bere. Moment by moment; Let down from heaven, Time, opportunity, Guidance are given :

Four not to-morrows, Child of the King : Trust thom with Jusus, "Ike ye next thynge." Do it immediately. Do it with prayer, Castling off care : Ha it with reverence. Trucing his hand Who hath placed it before thee With earnest command. Htayed on Unnipotence, Hufo moath bie wing.

No it reliantly,

"Ika yo next thyngo." -Our Own Fireside

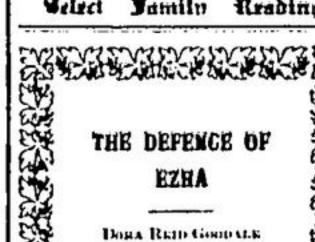

BUSINESS MAN'S CREED Business is but a means to an end It is but the occupation by which you are to exercise and develop your tiod-given qualifications and talents It is the area in which you are t

Belect Jamily Arabing

pratice day in and day out for the great race of the world-the success ful life .- Walter H. Cottingham.

CONCHERE'S going to be trouble tween Matt Ryan and Eary. sald Mr. Kimpy, as he unwound ils muffler and hung it up on a nail. "What now, father! Did you hear any thing now !" asked his wife carrerly, while the two boys in the lackground stopped scuffling and pricked up their cars. "Well, they were telling down at the store how Ityan claims that Eary moved the barn where he did on purpose to spite ilm : sooms it kind o' cuts off his view." "How ridiculous for Ryan to Lay an thing like that I' exclaimed Josle Awk wright, who had run in for an evening

Mrs. Knapp took an old woollen shirt from a hoap of current rugs and began lucing it to strips with vigorous turns of her shears. "Well, don't you be mixed up in any quarrel," also said at last. "I don't calculate to," returned her hus-

land closing his obstinate line in their thicket of board. "Exry's in the right It-I haven't a doubt of that, but Ryan's Ontario Land Hurveyor and Civit an ugly man to cross, and there's no need of us tuking sides. etc. to stand up for him, though," ventured ed to "speak up for teacher." (Exra had "That'il do, Dan." Josio, a shade loss positively than usual, for Mr. Knapp was as old as her father. course-get their feed of him and so on. same as usual r but if they know what's good for them, they'll mind their own inglisers us far us Ryan to concerned." Joslo made no answer, but her lips ourlod so robolilously that good Mrs. Knapp hastoned to unstop her vial of oil. "When you're us old us we are, dear," she sald, "you won't be in any hurry to have a hand in other people's quarrela. It's always best to keep on good terms with your neighbors, even with new folks like the Ryans." "Well, I'm sorry for Exra, anywaylos kind man. I think he's been shamefully used," returned Josle. "Come. Roy. I suppose we had better be going.

before bodtima." show you those skees," volunteered Rov. looking around for his care Dan' Bawin rose as if used to taking orders and followed a step behind as the young Awkwrights went down the moonlight path together. It was a chilly autumpal night and he found himself wonthree eleters and he none. He was a tall. slanck-headed boy of eighteen, ruther plot-isen his father's recommondation." "The idea of anyone's according Egralower of doing a mean thing out of suite. It's enough to make a dog laugh," observed beliave it : that's one thing sure."

chores at the Knapps' that winter.

"Nobody who knows him, perhaps," roturned Joule, thoughtfully, "but if a lie isn't malled on the snot, it seems to leave a nasty improvious a good many people soom to think there must be some truth in it. I'd like to luar anyone tell me he was andtoful. I wonder what that turned Mr. Ityan agrainst him."

"Why, it logun with Hyan's wanting to buy Exra's mill for bla son-in-law. Exna wouldn't sall and now Ryan means to force him out of husiness and out of the neighborhood if he can. He's working with all his might to get some office-town oterk, from him at this next election."

driving through Mr. Ryan's lots before he chance to have a puzzling matter pleased so every one says. You know that harn of I on the candy case, noting incidentally that Exra's stood away back in the fickle-two | the ocurse red wrist projecting from his threatened to arrest Exra if he set foot on "It was like his inscionce, claiming the premises. Exre couldn't or wouldn't right to drive through those lack lots of go to law, though he was sure he was inine. Why, man, he knew well enough chrewdness. right ; so he moved the barn down near his that I was going to fence 'em and plough 'om; it was all talked over when I bought guess," he said healtatingly. the place and he as good as told me he meant to pull down that old barn of hi Instead of that-well, you know where he's planted it."

A lump like a marble rose in Dan's threat. Why didn't Descen Pettingill speak ? He was influential, fluent, a leador in prayer meetings, an old associate of count on him for trade or employment, and Lira's Tower's. the other half think, like the Knappe, that

But Hawkins bimealf had an answer this "You don't say so," he drawled non ommittally. "Wall, now his tall is, he wanted to put it down in black and white about driving in through them late an you said the wa'n't no need, and kind persuaded him out on't." "He said that? Woll, it's a lie," de clared flyan.

Ikn faced about with a sudden surve blood to the brain. "Who's that you'r talking about?" he demanded hearest "If it's Ears Yower I say he's up groud man as ever lived, and I won't keep stil or two man discussed the price of the and hear him abused, and he not here to defend himself."

"You won't sh?" ansarol Mr. Ityan con

ment. No boy, least of all a clumey, hirac boy was worth noticing in his eyes. "Nosir, I've known him more years than and slander took root among the jealous you have months-went to school to him two winters and worked for him summer luying and teaming; and I'd take his word against any man in town, I don't care "Go it han!" until an irrepressible volor from the corner, and there was a little Mr. Knapp on the street with a plan for shuffling of feet meant for applause. Bu the olders sat dumb and embarrased. "There ain't a man here but has had dealings with Exra Tower and they or In the same breath : "That old Holstoin of tall whether he's used them honest." Dead silence. In which the hir close cked with painful distinctness. "Maybe there's some hasn't forgotter how he sat up with them when they we Mr. Knapp was anxious to get rid of the sick, doctored their horses or let their bill run when it wasn't handy to pay. I know he gave me a coat once and I won't keep "Ife did, sh? Well I dare say he's promised you another for this, you big, lumbering blockhead," thundered Ryan, neighbors. You can't set things right; so whose temper was as violent as his methods

"Bomehody's been electionsering mebbe." Den pushed back his plate and a slow hazarded one man with a wink while Mr. "It does seem as if Exra's friends ought flush mounted to his forehead. "He want- Knapp merely looked up to say dryly, once procided over the school in the dis- Ilan grasped his jug and stumbed out

"Well, they can stand up for him, of grim mouth and at Mrs. Knapp's puckered sciousness, too angry and too confused motherly fuce, sufficed to daunt and to to take note of the faces around him. Hawking was grinning, he knew that : After the table was cleared the farmer Ityan had gained his contemptuous sueer, announced that he "greesed he'd go down and he himself felt like a feel. He had to the store a spell," for the approaching imagined-if he had over dreamed of such election stimulated the gathering of village a some at all-that others would come to his aid, that there would be at least a "Bon't forget the molasses jug : it's on | hearty "That's so !" or "Good for you."

the green chist," Mrs. Knapp reminded | One or two blg blubbering sobe hurst blm, diving into a peach tasket filled with from him on his way home. Why hadn't he left Exra's defence to some one wi Half an hour had slipped drowelly by knew how to drose it up in proper words. spied the molasses jug still in its place on weapons, Mr. Awkright, or Josie herself. the meal-chest. He ploked it up, put on maybe? Anyone or no one, so that he has his cap, and went out by no means averse | left it stone! A pretty fool he had made to a turn in the frosty night airl for head of himself, meddling in what was none displeasure for nothing. His only hope now was that matters keep his blood in motion he remembered | might be threshed out after he left : but he how Exra Tower had once made him stop had hardly reached the shed chambe to borrow a coat when the mercury was before a team passed, and then another. running down hill and he could hear him Land Mr. Kumpp came in, and went straigh say with his kind humorous smile, "I'ms to bad. The truth was, no one shower it on to the regimen when you get through | the least disposition to pursue the subject

The next night was the Eve of All Haints and not long after midnight Butter Hil to kind Exri. And now teacher was in was startful by the ringing of the church bell, the patter of running feet, and shri to give him. If he were a man of position cries of "Fire !" It was soon seen that the source of the blaze which streamed up toward heaven was no other than Exra Tower's lare, already the subject of heated In the midst of such vague, disturbing controversy and windy debates. Fortun thoughts he pushed open the grocery door. ately it was empty except for three or four amoke were sitting around the fat-hodied the fire had gained such headway that coul stove in which a fresh fire had been there was nothing to do but let it burn. started. Over by the letter hox Matt Half the townspeople were there, even Hyan, swaggering and self-confident, was those from a distance. Descon Pettingill deep lu converention with that, notorious | und Parson Awkwright himself in a solomn gossip, Jim Hawkins, while several boys, black coat said no collar. Among the late including Roy Awkwright, were whisper- comors was Mr. Matt Ryan, shaking his hymoritical sorrow. "He lives the mearest, and sleeps this sklo of the house; and yet he's the last one here, the old for !" muttered Den to Roy Awkright. "I'll lay he wasn't in uny hurry to rouse the neighbors up when the glare come in ut his winders."

Others had noted the same circumstance "You didn't happen to light a pipe the moved the burn?" unked han seeing a of us are buying our feed semawhere's last time you went by?" One or unother

"You haven't any idea how the thing of the yard. Exm laughed nervously. He was slight, youngish man, with a face stamped with benevolence and a cortain natural

"Well, I could make a protty There was an instant shook, and a stirof expectation umong the by-standers, already

Mr. Hawking felt that the crystallizing moment had come. "You don't suppose --- " he insinuated, Jarking a significant thumb over his shoulder. "No-no-no-not" eleculated langthaning the disaussive syllable with the low, pleasant laugh known to every child in town. "Palaw, neighbors, lan't this Hallowe'en? And weren't you and I shavers once, and didn't we stop in somebody's harn to light up our Jack-lanterns? That's about what happened to-night, if I'm not mistaken. Anyway, there was a good show of candle punking out on front fonce at boiltime." "You don't say so!" returned Hawkins in a tone comfeelly divided between relief and disappointment. "And who were the hoys?" he continued eagerly. "You didn't see 'em to know 'em did ye?" "Well, if I did, I guess I won't tellmight make them feel worse when they feel but stready. No, no, don't stir up any fresh ill will where there's been more than enough. What with one thing after another."-the anxious cloud of habitual care sattled over his features,-"business so dull, and now my tern burnt, I may be obliged to make a change before I'm many months older." "Pool, pool !" put in Mr. Knapp, clear ing ble throat. "Butter Hill can't spare you yet awhite. You're a good man, Eary Tower ; and I know whom I'm going to vote for judge of probate come fee-

"That's so," spoke up Descon Pettingill, hough he supplied Mr. Hyan with fire. wood. "I wrote my son Willard vesterday-you know he's a lawyer in Westfield. and ho'll be down next week to talk over payers-in the school fair districts, didn't that right-of-way business. Won't cost you | see anything worth while in the fair idea. nything, either; he hasn't forgotten who Now, they are putting grants for the fairs was a youngster." "We all know there's one man in town with the farmers who know it. whose word doesn't need any guaranty, said ; but the hearty murmur and rustle of simply starting where all education has secont which greated the doctor's speech started-except, till now, agricultural was music to sweeten adversity in a good education. The novelty of the way in speaking three boys with cendle greass on petitive striving as the driving power, heir lackets slunk aliently homeward. I instead of the old-fashloned strap ! Then They were Jerry and Luke Hawkins-and is no compulsion about the new policy of Mr. Ryan's only son, Tom Ryan.

mistake, wasn't it, now?" exclaimed Dan | everyone wants to come in and enjoy the Sawin, meeting Josle und Roy a day or fun of learning interesting things, and of two after election. "I bet Matt. Ryan showing how much they have fourned. lan't so sure he owing the town as he was There is the guarantee of the tremoudous

"I mat him coming from mill with a load of feed yesterday. He's given up the right of way, and Exa is going to put up a school their start in agriculture and what new harn track where the other one stood. All the neighbors have offered to turn out the eyes of their purents, and warming and help," announced Roy.

"I guess he know he'd have to give up if ated" from the school into farm work, they Willard Pettingill took hold of it. They are anxious to keep on learning. This is say he's terrible amart." "Well, I really believe he's sahamed of agriculture, conducted by the district himself," broke in Josle. "You know representative with whom the bays have what the Hawkins boys let out? That become acquainted in school fair days. young Ryan was skylarking with them Here a close friendship between the boys that night. And Exra knew it, and would and their representative naturally develope not tell who it was. I'm so mind you during the two to six weeks of the course. spoke up for him when you did. Than ; I and the boys go back to their homes with a thought those dear old fossile only needed realization of worth-white things to be to have their eyes open. I was dying for scoomplished on the home farm, of greater a chance myself, but a girl hus to stay at service they can render to their parents, of home and keep quiet," and Josio groaned greater possibilities of profit and west in over the restrictions that hedge in her sex. | their life work. "It was what you said," muttered Dan : and there he stuck fast, turning redder and redder up to his stock of tousied hair, until thousand are gathered in groups for six Roy helped him out by remarking consol- weeks of training and intercourse. This

"Ihm touched off the powder, Sis; but I on Ontario's young farmers. guess it was you that lighted the fuse."-C. E. World.

For Harains and Bruken - There is nothour better for sprains and contusions than Hr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. It will reduce the swelling that follows a sprain, will cool the inflamed fish and draw the pain as if by marrie. It will take the ache out of a bruise and prevent the fluit from discoloring. It seems as if there was magio in it. houl with a mixture of triumph and so speedily does the injury disappear under students of these courses, in which the con-

> A Mild Pill for Delicate Women. - The most delicato woman can undergo a course of Parmeleu's Vegetable l'ills without four of unploasant consequences. Their action. while wholly effective, is mild and agreeable. No violent pains or pargings follow their use, as thousands of women who have used them can testify. They are, therefore, strongly recommended to women, who are

If you don't goodly about your troubler. probably you won't trouble the good pa.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Gleaned From the Froe Press of Thursday, April 25th, 1895

Cycling is likely to be popular with the ladies this season. Hoveral lutter invo oither purchased or given orders. Councillor Williams' new windmill completed and works like a charm.

Ald. L. O. Barber, of Guelph, one of the most extensive cattle dealers in Ontario, died of paralysis last week. Mr. Joshua Prooman, woll-known by many in this vicinity, died suddenly at his home in Ht. Marys last week aged 45. 111 father lived for many years on the home. stead adjoining Cleargetown. His wife was a daughter of Alex. Brown, Sr., of Actor He leaves two daughters and two sons.

Trologvon, Aylmer. Roy. Mr. Leggett, the new minister of the the Congregational Church, is rapidly whiting the hearts of his people.

One of the daughters is wife of Rov. Mr.

Mr. Lachlan Konnedy, of Winnipog, started, have you?" Jim Hawkins was sakwho was here this week, has suggested ing Ezra in a lowered tone in another part that the site of the old Knex Church which is to be offered for sale, be purchased cither by the Council or a symbleate, and converted into a little park. The location is good, and the blos would preserve the place with more respect for just memories than the srection of factory or dwellings. Then are some fine maples, seats could be urranged, a band stand prected, and when the waterworks, which Reave Pearson has busy with suspicious and half spoken declared insvitable soon, arrives, a fountain might be added. Mr. J. H. Hacking, who founded the Furr Purse in 1875, died at the home of ble son-in-law, Mr. Henry F. Hill, in Buffalo, last week.

Mr. Rold. Wallaco, Chalman of the Board of Health, has issued the usual spring notice to cleaning up of premises in A barn-raising was held on the farm o

Wm. McCutchson, lot 15, con. I Erin, last week. Everything went together without an accklant Mrs. B. W. Nicklin, who has soon living with her brother, Mr. Oliver Lusby, near Crawson Corners, loaves this week for Lowell, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Brousco, of Duluth Minn., are visiting at Limehouse. Mr. Robt. Ebbage left last week for Uloveravillo, N. V. Mr. George Ritchie, who has been living in Acton the past year, has removed to the Scotch Block, and returned to farming. Roy. Mr. Goldon, the new mater of Bt. Alban's, arrived with his family from Allandale on Tuesday.

Curning traditions upside down Under the surfcultural department's new policy, the youngest school children catch the interest in farming that is now the biggest game in rural school life. That interest continues steadily, without a break, till the young farmer has proven his ability to manage the farm and make now records in profits. At first the furmer -- fathers and taxfished him out of the milt pond when he into the township estimates without being asked. The school fair has made good

The bles of this policy is real service to and that's Exra Tower," declared Dr. agriculture that can be felt and soon by the most skeptical. In starting education "Thank you, neighbore," was all Exra in better farming with the children, it is which the Department is now going at the No one observed that while they were job lies chiefly in their introducing comthe department, which "begins with the babies," us one farmer smilingly put it. "Twas a landside for Mr. Tower and no There is scarcely any coaxing, cithersuccess of the Department's policy and of Ontario agriculture. School fairs give the boys and girls is they have been accomplishing is quantum their hearts. When the boys have "gradprovided for in High Behool courses in

Three years ago 363 boys took the course; last year 600, and this year a increase shows the grip this movement has

Up to this period in their lives the bove have been learning farming as they learned arithmetic, but getting the principles first. and preaching them on their school fair plots-of which more later. When they have taken the course in surriculture that are ready for tougher tusks, and are caper for them. Under the New Policy of the Hepartment, they are provided here with fun und fresh knowledge, to be obtained by entering a competition-open only to testants strive to prove which can produce the greatest not profit on an acre of a crop selected by agreement among themselves. or on hoge fed for market. The winner in each district is given, by the department, out of the Federal grant in aid of agricolture, a two weeks' short course at Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, with all expenses puld. Here from all over Untario the county winners came in January this year, meeting on common pround for the ambition-to tearn more about better more prone to disorders of the digestive farming. Here again the competition is a feature, a wold watch being donated by the Deputy Ministers personally to the best Judge of live strick .- The Constitute toos Baldwin and her Vellow Levisthan Mangels, which was the first prize plot In the school fair. Roots were six inches across on August let miles ground to get to it unless you drove | sleeve was smeared with molasses. through the Ryan place. Well, Ryan | Mr. Ryan again took up the thread of suddenly fenced off this private road, and his accusations. house, and all the thanks he got is to be

"Imagine putting such a man in for town officer," exclaimed Josle with disgust. "Why don't all his old neighbors stand by Fire! That's what I don't understand." "Half of them are under Ryan's thomb in one way or another-owe him money, or > is, too t und, if you or I were to hear him railing against Eura-you know what a big blustering bully he is - we should shut ou carriend pretend to be absorbed in roun thing on the other side of the street." itoy laughal tantalizingly ; Josla launch ed out into an indignant denial; and in the milist of it they reached the parsonage where they rested the argument in favor of ha's an ogly man to run up against.

algebra and the merits of chose. This conversation made a strong impresion on thin, and roused his interest in cars that was econ a subject of goods wharever two women exchanged patterns apple crop. It was "t' bad, t' had about Exry Tower," but Matt Ryan had brough a good deal of money into town, and would temptuously a moment's glare of astenish naturally be "dictatorious." Erra, like every man, had his datractors and disaffected; now, too, he hegen to look shabby and anxious ; and first one are than another expressed the conviction that the bost thing he could do would be to sall out (to Ryan, of course,) and try his luck | who it is." samewhere else. One day in October Mr. Ryan stopped combining with two or three others to buy a carload of grain-mentioning a price a fow couts lower than that charged by Exra.

yours, Knapp-I heard you were willing to self and she's just what I'm looking for I'll step in and make you an offer noxt oow, and returned a vague answer about the grain; he didn't "need any just at present." "Business is business though still-" it's a mean trick to run Exry out that way," he said to Mrs. Knapp at augper. "It's what comes of ill will amongst the lest way is not to get mixed up in it," were devious. cautional his wife. trict) but one glance at his employer's the room, smitten with sudden self-con allence him.

many-hued carnet rare. when Dan, passing through the kitchen, someone who could turn Mr. Hyan's promised Eva I'd help her with her algebra and heart throbbed with disquieting fan- his business, and call down his simpleyer's As he awang along at a rapid pace to with it. Dan." A clumsy club he had been after that explosion of Dan's. Shoe dering with a jung of eavy why Roy had always at the foot of his class in those illplad, shivery days when he went to school trouble, and he had not so much us a vote ding and slow-witted, who was dolner

s slow ; but he, aln't disapp'inting," had substance like Mr. Knapp or Besoon Pottingill how cany it would be to turn the tide in his favor. Itoy, midling comfortably, "Nobody will Hix or eight men in a haze of tolucco fatting calves and a few barrels of feed, for began to fill it from a hogshead. Heveral Solous were holding forth but the only volce that I'm distinguished was Ryan's. "I tell you what," he was saylog with husky protonce of speaking confidentially, isn't it, Dan, or judge of proluto !- away "I tell you what every man will, hear watching. If he's hones 'bwon's hurt him "Wasn't there some trouble about his | any, and if he lan't-" he lanks off wit has

Thus limitly advanced to the counter where the storekeeper took his jug and ing together in the further corner.

Dan's heart gave a thump to his brawny oltoment and the Hickoring light Actors they was thought with that understandlided ties exclair, but inclied to fixel his was the bern for a foringut.

unplement laugh. "Ho that's why a few

I aml it was but a stop to yet more sinste conjecturou "You win't interested know how it keich, I suppose, Mr. Ryan !

flung out those bints under cover of there for the last hundred years and the breasts He wanted to turn and decounce. Mr. Ityan new that he had not been