NORWAY PINE SYRUP CURED HIM.

Mr. Wallace H. Grange, Vancouver, H.C., writes: "During a cold spell here about the middle of last October (1013), I caught a cold which got worse despite all treatments I could obtain, until about November 22nd, a friend said, 'Why not try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup?' Really, I had no faith in it at the time as I had tried nearly every other remedy I had heard of, to no avail, but I thought I would give this last remedy a trial. I purchased a 50 cent bottle, and in three days I was feeling a different man. My cold was so hard, and the coughing so prolonged, that vomiting occurred after a hard spell of coughing. Y carried the bottle in my pocket, and every time I was seized with a coughing spell I would take a small dose. I can most heartily recommend Dr. Wood's Norway Pins Syrup to anyone with a severe cold, as its powers are most marvelous, and I haver intend being without it at all times."

Sweet recollections are a fortune not af fected by the fluctuations of the stock market. The people whose wealth is all material may wake up some morning and find themselves poor, but there is no such thing as poverty overtaking those who have invested in beautiful memories. Many people who have been reading the terrible war news from day to day, especially those who have relatives at the seat of war, have become so nervous that it is impossible for them to sleep, The nerves have become unstrung and the heart perhaps affected. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will build up the unstrung nervous system

It made me so nervous that I could not steep, but after using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pilis I improved greatly, and could take my school again, I have recommended them to many of my friends."

THREE BOYS Here is a story of the splendilness of work that has a thrill in it : "Let me tell you," said Miss Frances Willard once, in the Young Crusader, "about three splendid boys I know once on a time. Their father died and their dear mother was left to bring these up and to earn the money with which to do it. He the boys set in to help her. By taking a fow boarders; doing the work herself and practicing strict economy, this blossed woman kept out of dold and gave each of her some a thorough college education. But if they hadn't worked like beavers to help her it never could have been done. The oldest boy, only fourteen, treated like mother us though she were the girl he loved best. He took the heavy July of housework off her hands, put on his big apron and went to work with a will, washed the clothes, pounded the petatoes, ground the coffee, waited on the table-did everything and anything that he could coux her to let blin do; and the two youngor once followed his example right along.

Those love nover wasted their mother's money on talucco, hear or cards. They kept at work and found any amount of pleasure in it. They were happiy, felly hoys, too ; full of fun, and everybody not ed in favor of submitting a prohibition only liked them but respected them. All the girls in the town praised them; and I don't know any better fortune for a boy than to be prefed by good girls, nor anything that boys like better. They all married noble and true women, and one o these boys is president of a college, and H. Auxory, M.R., M.C.P.S. in demand for every good word and work As a vernifuge there is nothing so
