"The War Summary" Almost from the very day the great European war began in August last, the outstanding feature in Canadian Journalism covering the conflict has been "The War summary" daily on pages I and 2 of THE GLOHE. In the conclusat possible form the writer has given his readers a pen picture of the developments to all parts of the world. While the details of the movements glong the extended frontiers have not been averlooked, the readers of THE GLOHE have been enabled to follow intelligently and with confidence the unional outlines of the stupendous conflict. "The War Businery" of THE GLOBE is reproduced daily by several papers throughout the floatiston.

The Editorial Page THE GEOME on the editorial page has striven to place before the struggle. This series of articles has attracted the attention not only of the Canadian people, but of leading men and journals in all parts of the world. The causes leading up to the war, the elements entering into its conduct, and the results likely to flow from the resistion of hostilities have been dealt with in that hold and clear-cut form characteristic of THE OLIES editorial page.

News Service The above features, in addition to a cable and letter service from the front unmatched in Canada, have placed VIIR 61.0018; for in the lead of Canadian papers, and partly explain the phenomenal increase of 331-8 per cent. In THE GEORES circulation during recent months.
