There is Local Responsibility
In the investigation into the recent charges of liquor violations at Trenton, Ont., the Ontario Liquor Commission Officer, criticized Mr. Abbott, who had been a member of the local license board, for not seeing to it that the "blind pigs" were put out of business. "It is a perfect outrage," declared Mr. Saunders, "that this commission should exist and the local people who are aware of it do nothing to remedy it. Why should you throw on this board the burden of enforcing the law throughout the whole Province? What are the local police doing? It would seem that they were not doing their duty."

Practical Results at Summer School
In a letter to the Oakville Star, thanking the people of Oakville for the interest they took in assisting to make the recent Epworth League Summer School there a success, Rev. C. D. Surely the school at Oakville will be having some future effect upon a wide and varied field of effort, to say nothing of its effect upon those immediately connected with it."
