Burlington on Monday. A very onjoyable gamo was played. -Itichard Teats, who was reported to have been blown up in an explosion for Pennsylvania several weeks ago, turned up here on Saturday as sound as over. -Pto. Edwin Maddock, of the headquarters staff at Shorneliffe, Eng., has been promoted to the office of Horgeant. His Acton friends offer congratulations. -A split log drag on the new gravel road from the third to the fifth lines for half a day would greatly improve it now.

The rute are becoming troublesome. -Miss Bertie Speight and her Sunday School class motored up to Crodit Forks last Wednesday and had a delightful plonie on the grounds of the Trout Club.

-The plane won by Miss Kathleen Bar ber in the voting contest held by L. Hourigan, was presented to the Raptist Bunday School, -Georgetown Herald. -Extensive improvements have lately been made to the buildings on the Board more farm on Main Street.
