Subscription Price, $1.00 Fer Augum.

SINGLE COPIES---THREE CEN

The Acton Free Press te bunciousn

Tunes or Hunsumbrion—One dollar per year strictly in advance. #1.50 to subscribers in the United States. All subscriptions discontinued when the time for which they have been paid has expired. The date to which every subscription is raid is denoted on the address label.

Abvantished States — Translent advertisements, 10 cents per Nonparell line for Stationartion and 5 cents per line for each subscriptional States of Stationartics. Contrast display advertisements, for 50 or inches more, per annum, 10 cents per inch each insertion. Yearly soutracts for reading matter 25 cents per inch each insertion.

Advertisements without specific directions will be inserted till forbid and sharged accordingly. Translant advertisements must be paid in advance.

Advertisements will be changed once each month, if desired. You changes oftener than above mentioned the axirs composition name be paid for at regular rates.

All accounts collected monthly.

U. P. MOORE. Militor and Proprietor.

Business Birectory.

MEDICAL.

MHO9. GRAY, M. D. C. M., McGILL L. M. C. P. EDINBURGE. L. R. V. P. & H. GLISSOW.

Manage Barries Mudical Association Sec. Ottos-Frederick Street Lator, Oak

VETERINARY

VETERINARY BURGEON, Onterio, Actou Onterio Veterinary College less.
Omes—Arthure Hook. Heeklenes, Mill Mt.
Calle day or hight promptly attended to.

LEGAL.

ARRIVARD, BALLOWGE, COMVEYANCES. Overes-Mill Street, in Persyman block,

______

WH. A. MeLMAN Harrister, Molistor and Notary Publis Ottas-Ko, Blickson's Block, Douglas stres Money to loan. Letaise given spealel sites

DEWYAL.

TAR. J. M. BELL, D.D.S. L.D.S. I'boss Na. W Odlas at Residense, Corner Mill and Frederick HANAS CRIDELYS OF TABANCO UNIVERSITY the latest succethable used if desired.

AU. L. L BENNETT, DESTIST, OSSELMAN SLOOM GROBERTOWN

MISCELLANGOUS.

HANDE SIONANA

Wyscham Rt.,

Assount Hocks of all kinds made to coder Periodicals of every descriptions as well y bound. Helicymessivens prompely done

MARRIAGE CIGENSES. H. P. MOORN Laber of Managers Laurent. Private Odice. No witnesses required. Imael touldener in the svaning. Free Free Office ADTON

For the Counties of Wallington, Hallon, Peal and Dunerly, and the city of Gualph.
Males conducted with ballstapsion and upon below to deleted with mailifuscion and upon beanoughle terms.
Orders by letter to Mimosa F. O., or Caledon felephone in tendense in connection with the tiel, where arrangements as to detected deverticing on he to take. Orders late at Yours Farme police, Asion, will receive immediate attention. Epotial attention to sales in Asion and violally. YARNE TO SELL OR HEUT.

D. ALEX. NIVEN Ontario Lund Surveyor and Civil

Surveys, Subdivisions, Plans, Reports, Descriptions, Blueprints, etc. Certificates for purchasers and mortgages; Surveys for Architects, Bull-ders and Municipal Councils; Drain-age Reports, Estimates, etc. MERCHANTS BANK BLDG. GUMLPH (Phone 1064) . ONT.

CHEEVERS Bt. Kast - - Gualph, Ont Hooks and Majazines bound in Handsome and Substantial Covers. Mamas lattered in gold on Hibles, Hymn Books and other Hooks.

The Old and Reliable Granite and Marble Dealers

ALL WORK PROMPTLY MXHOUTED

Will are ganufacturers and direct important W of all kinds of Monumental and Meadelons work. We sell direct to our sustements whole sale prices, thus saving our sustements whole sant, We have the best appliances and the only mechanics in the Dominion who can operate progratic tools properly. We can give references from hundreds of our sustements in Toronto and other places, where others have to stand law suits in order to collect. We have the largest and best stock of Granite in the Dominion, or thore than any three dealers in the West. We are legitimate dealers and suppley on syants, and do not anany or peet top love on syants, and do not anany or peet top trues by appling out ignorant agents to solicit orders—we employ mechanics only and dety

HAMILTON & SONS Gor, Morfolk and Woolwhish Bis., GURLPH

Meery Subscription Paid in Advance

fore in our peaceful, sheltered Land.

Too late, ult, then, to make a stand :

Hunn heed not prayer nor curse!

Act not the Allen's part!

Bluttering homes, and - Worse !-

"Ho British !" Hood your Country's cal

And His Peace keep your heart !

—"Mater Millitis.

Select Jamily Reading

次的大學的大學的大學的大學

By WILLIAM BANFORD

He stood in the doorway of the library, hat

the window. "The back door was open just alipped in," he explained, in half apology ; "cut through - so anxious to tell you I couldn't wait to go 'way round to the

The girl did not answer for a moment

He intrusion seemed not to surprise her

It was as though he had the right to come and go as he pleased. Hhe bent her head

a little closer toward her work-as though to gain time. Then auddenly also gave s little cry as of pain. "Oh !" she exclaimed,

You came in so sudden, Rob. What was it you said ! Engaged ! Really, Rob ?"

she turned her face, with itsumall, delicate features toward him. It was quite white.

"Buo !" he was at her side in an instant

"You're sick. The old needle went deep.

er than you thought. Let me get you some hot water in a cup. That will draw out the inflammation-somebody told me

She began to laugh. "Iteally, Itob, no

He looked at her closely, but her eyes

onthusiastic, but rettled on a "Alice Winthrop-only met her a month ago-down first sight, I guess. She said 'yes' last

She laughed very gayly. "Well, you you know. Now I suppose it will be-

"I think-er-it's beginning to swell."

yet the interval was long enough for her regain her self-control. She smiled as

The girl put her finger into the water

"Tell me about her, Rob ; everything

Is she protty-rich? Tell me everything

You know you have always told me every

He was watching the cup very seriously man's ! I guess if I were engaged I would Rob jumped up suddenly. "I'm going

Bue," he spoke the words hurried. "Can't stay any longer. I'll see you again, of course. Glad it made you feel so jolly.

Sue." He disspicated as quickly as he

An awful stillness followed. The gir

Sue, dear little girl, I just had to come lack and find out for sure. There isn't any Allos. I was just joking.' I just told you to see if you cared. But you don't-not that way-that's the horror of it. I'm just going to hold you, though. I'ts the finger that made you sick. You were just about ready to faint when I came in, I also opened her even and looked into his.

No. It wasn't a dress not draw a face like that !"

have gone 'way to the hone !"

Alice, did you say Y of the chair.

Hob Norton spoke the work with a wild, boylsh anthuslam

66 CV UE, I'm engaged !"

ACTON, ONTARIO, THURSDAY MORNING, AUGUST 26, 1915.

Savage & Co.

JEWELLER GUELPH

Savage & Co.

Plymouth

GOLD MEDAL-14c. lb. SILVER SHEAP-11jc. lb. GREEN SHEAF - Dlc. Ib. PLYMOUTH SPECIAL-Dic. 16. PLYMOUTH ROPE-20c lb.

Soap

You can finish your wash earlier and envior—just lot Sunlight Soup do the work.

Sunlight saves the clothes and the hands, because of its perfect

all grocers

Twine'

for twine cash sales—Once use Plymouth Twine or Rope and always use Plymouth The Bond Store has what you want then you want it. Farm and House Hardware and Sporting Goods.

The BOND HARDWARE Co.

Limited Phone 10-12 Ten-Twelve) GUELPH

Guelph Business College

OUR PALL TERM begins Sept. 1st. We offer first-class facilities in every deraining by teachers of long and successful experience, insure the very heat sults. Book keeping, Business Practice Commercial Arithmetic, Rapid Calcula ion, Stenography, Typowriting, Pennian ship, Business Correspondence, English and French are thoroughly taught by the "I've pricked my finger. How it harts i graduates are in demand. They a making good everywhere. All get post

COME DIRECT to the College Office, 137 Upper Wyndham Street or write to-day for full particulars.

Malcolm MacCormack, B.A. Pric

Glasses--Plus

The day when you bought your glasses "any old place"

Present day intelligence will not permit you to triffe or gamble on good vision. If you need glusses you need the knowledge and the service which should go with the best. Here you get just what you want-glasses plus.

A. D. SAVAGE

OPTOMETRIST & MFG. OPTICIAN 'Right at the Post Office"

know how,

FOSTER

awfully lucky you came back, Rob," she Doetry.

"Hue !" he eriod masionately, "why don't you unswer? I love you-love you MOTHER TO MOTHERS -love you. I'm just crazy about you. To lid him go to light :-Hlways have been.".

She closed her eyes again. She was o face the florman shot and shell Where Wrong is throttling Hight? no burry to answer. The sweetness of life Think you those mothers who have sent was pulsing back into her veins. He Their some to face the foc. would never know the ageny of those felt not their souls with angulah rent minutes. She opened her eyes, sweet and E'en while they bade them "tlo !" clear, and gazed into bis-filled with a ) Blind to Duty's finger-post, deep unxlety. And Deaf to Duty's call, Let Fear bestir you, lest the host Barbarian on us fall.

"Kinn the hurt finger, dear," also said, "and make it well."

THE LITTLE PELT SHOES

"But it's so little to do." Eve looked down at the bits of white felt and the blue flose with koon disastisfaction. 'It seemed to her that the little shoes were an illustration of what she was always doing. hoping for big things, and being content perforce, with little ones. Between her aspiration and her achievement, a gulf so dishearteningly wide !

For a moment Eva was prompted to aween the deinty material into her workbag, and took the working into the darkest corner of the trunk. For a moment that mood had its way, then her native good sense came to her ald.

"Just because I can't find that child a good home, and make sure that the getyer education, and all that, I don't know a that's any reason why I shouldn't do wha I can. Those little booties aren't much but as long as they represent my best ought to be satisfied."

Blie went down to the beach with the worklag on her erm, and the piece of fai in her working. Hhe found a chair while commanded a good view of the beach and of the cosen, and settled herself comfort ably, her attention was divided between her work, and the white-created waves, in hand, his eyes on the face of the girl by and the antice of the bathers.

"What charming little shoes," a voi sald in Eve's car. "I never saw anything so dainty. You're making them for a baby brother or sister, I suppose." Eva turned. A lady dressed in black and with a face poculiarly sail beneath its superficial vivabilty, leaned toward her with a flattering air of interest. Eve returned her smile. "Why, no I'm unlucky enough to be the youngest in the family.'

"Indeed. I wondered when I saw you so husy this lovely morning if by any possibility you made them for sale." "Why, no. I never have. The fact is, continued Eva, feeling as if some explanation were due the stranger's interest, "the fact is, that I'm making them for un un fortunate little baby I happen to know about. It isn't very much to do to show my sympathy," she added, almost shamefacedly, "but it's all I can do." "Bear ms. Do tall me about it.

est not so had, after all. My dreadful locan't soom quite fair, does it," said the lady with her sad smile, "that misfortune carelessness-not you. Rob, who's the should come to a baby." "Well, I don't suppose it would mean as much to anybody else, but the baby's father and mother lived in the same blook with us for several years. And when the baby was born two months ago, you would at Cambridge. Awful folly girl-love at have said it was the tuckiest lisby in the world. They weren't rich folks, you know, night, I wanted you to be the first to but he had a good salary, and they had such a dear little home."

"Yes, and then what happened?" did steal a march on us all," she said "Why, Mrs. Trent died when the baby "Won't the crowd be surprised ! But you was a month old. It was absolutely unexmight have waited until after the Cardners pected. And two weeks later the father lance. You promised to take me to that was killed by the electric cars. Hewelked right on the track in front of the car. He less expensive." had seemed in a sort of daze over since his Of a sudden she bent her head. "Perwife's death. And now it looks as if the haps you had better get me some hot water haby will have to go to an orphanage. in a cup, after all," also said, very quietly. He dashed out into the kitchen with when things are settled up." Bhe looked down at the little felt shoes in her hand, and the tears came auddenly to her even. came in. One hand was gripping the side "They're almost ridiculous," she said. "but it seems as if I must do something." The two talked for some time, and Eva

"Sue, does it hurt swfully ? It must told more of herself than she had any kies of. When they parted, the lady in black had taken the pattern of the felt shoes. same place. The lady who had worn black was now dressed in shimmering gray, and the sadness had vanished in a beauti ful aunny radiance. "Oh," she cried, putting out her hand as Eva approached. know you. You're the girl who was making shoss for the baby."

ou were so interested in that baby. appened just as I was afraid it would. They took it to an orphan saylum in the the worthy man must be ill. western part of the state. It did seem The lady's face did not reflect the distress of Eva's. "Maria," she called, turning, "Maria t" ... A smiling nurse maid, all in white, appeared, leading by the hand toddling child who regarded the world serenely from a pair of sea-blue ever "This is my little Alice," the lady said whom you made the shoes." Eva gasped.

looked at her fluger and smiled faintly "Dear old Rob, dear old pal ! No, the pain lan't there." Hhe spoke the words t herself in dull, expressionless tones. glad I stood it until you were gone. I was afraid I would just drop. How dark it getting-and cold !" She shivered. wonder if I shall live on-and on. You to see her, my experience was just the always called me your guardian, 'ever alnos maite of Casar's. I came, I saw, and we were little tota, and now-now you won't need me any-" Bomething weemed was conquered. She has been the light our home for a year and a balf, thanks to to give way within ber and she felt herself you, door pirl." swaying-swaying-then . . Surely it was Rob's voice ; his arms about her. Yes-it was a dream. But she would not of the little shoes with the solution that had settled two puzzles, that of a childless home, and that of a homeless child. Ther with a little throb of gratitude, she unde stood that the greater things she had he ed for had been possible because she ha done the little thing within her power.

MOT TOO HAND Mr. Littlerest-"Doctor. what did-

A NARROW LIFE

"Her home is in a little country town, you know," said the city girl patronisingly. "And so, of course, she line had a very harrow life."

That apoorly oxpresses the shoors opinion of a great many people. They have an idea that city realdence necessarily broadens one out, that country life is of necousity narrowing, and that life on the farm is the most limited and ourtailed all. Nothing could be further from truth Indeed the girl quoted above, the member of a small and arrogantly exclusive set whose life was a round of gayeties, whose interests solden get beyond the point of enjoying herself was as good a represent ative as could be found of a narrow exist-

The girl to whom she referred so gold fields in 1802. He returned here about 1875, but removed to Hamilton with patronizingly lived in a small town it is true. but the town did not represent the limit of her interest. Hhe was foud of reading. Hhe road ten books to her city friend's one, and books of a very superior port to the other's favorites. Blie had travelled a little and made the most of that little. She knew more about the cities also had visited and their various points of interest, then many of their residents could have beriush and some 17 years ago, she has told to save their lives. She never had resided at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. gone abroad, but the was more familiar Edward Matthews. Owing to the long with French history and Italian art and distance from her family, only Mr. Chris. he recorreply of Europe in general, than many a favored young person who acknowdeduce to "running scross" every summer.

This country girl is German by descent, of Penetang, apent a week with her She learned to speak German in the home of her grandmother, studied it in school, return home. and now carries on a correspondence in that language with a cousin several times removed whose bone is in Barlin. Hhe b the president of a little circle of girls who are authorting an orphangiri in a mission school in India. And in addition she can be depended on to lend a hand in any good work undertaken in her community. It would not take a prejudiced person loan to decide which of these narrower, the one selfish and frivolous, with he hold for the right. Pointed reference hardly an interest beyond herself and her was made to prevalent gambling in town own enjoyment, makes a poor showing beilds this other girl whose interests and the much evil arlaing therefrom. reach up and out, and whose kindly helpfulness extends half way around the world. To live in a small town or in an isolated farmhouse, does not make the life narrow, unless the heart is satisfied with a crampal borizon.

ORTY DOLLARS WORTH OF TREPER

Whoever wishes to hear a solemu, almost temper should apply to a certain scientific centleman in Washington, of whom the Star tells a tragio story.

He had a negro servant who exasperated him by his stupidity. One day, when he was more atupid than usual the angry master of the house threw a book at bis head. The negro ducked and the book flow out of the window.

"Now go and pick that book up !" order ad the master. The narro started to obey, but a passerby had saved him the trouble, and had walked off with the book. The scientist thereupon began to wonder what book had thrown away, and to his horror covered that it was a quaint and rare little volume on mathematics, which he had purchased in London, and paid fifty dollars although he is a total abstainer.

"The next time I feel that it is absolutely necessary to throw things," he exclaim-

But his troubles were not over. The weeks went by and Time the great healer. had begun to assuage his grief, when, There aren't any close relatives, and there strolling into a second hand book shop, he stringent laws against the use of certain perceived to his great delight a copy of the drugs that are not nearly as harmful, and

"Well," said the dealer, reflectively, guess we can let you have it for forty have togo. dolldrs. It's a pretty rare book, and dare say I could get seventy-five for it by holding on a while."

The man of science pulled out his wallst and produced the money, delighted at the opportunity of replacing his lost treasure. Two years later they met almost in the When he reached home he sat down at the table to gloat over his find, and ropped out of the leaves. The card his own, and further exemination showed that he had bought back his own property. "Vorty dollars' worth of temper ! Huh, I think I shall mend my ways," he was overheard to say. His daughter, who tells "Yes, and I remember you perfectly. the story with glee, declares that the negro servent is positively worried over the supply

THE PEOPLE ON WHOM YOU CAN

"One of the things which amazes to nost in my observation of moonle," said women whose wide interests have brought her in contact with a great variety of human kind, "is the small percentage who can be depended on. It dose not matter whether you are engaging a woman to do washing, or securing the co-operation of some society girl in a charitable project. You can never feel certain that the one who makes such ready promises will deliver the goods' till the crucial moment

There is hardly a more serious charge to be brought against young people than thi of being undependable. A dealer to he thought oldiging prompts to the giving of easy promises, which seemingly rest as lightly on the hearts of the giver as if they were not promises at all. It is incredible how many people pledge themselves to sid with this thing or that, to be present on some occasion, to give something, to help somewhere, and then when the time arrives serenely present any excuse which happens to occur to them for failing to carry out

n who block the wheels of progress, upset | sloud in a farm kitched. Up to that the calculations of real workers, and break | that moment he had set content, down the dependable people who are per- led in his ignorance but he left the kitchen force obliged to attempt not only their own | another man. There were day-dreams, work, but that of the unreliable, bookle. It appeared, divine daydreams, written "He's not remarkable in any way but one." and printed and bound, and to said a business man recommending one of bought for money and enjoyed at pleasure. guess. Sue, sweetheart, lan't there any tell me was your special treatment for his workers, "but you can always rely on Hown he sat that day, painfully learned to him." And that peculiarity secured the read Welsh, and returned to borrow the long run, reliability outwelghs brilliancy.

It is the people who cannot be depended

"Come, little left Hand Hald good little Itight, "I want you to help me With all your might.

Haid little Right Hand, 'Yes, I will help you, But you must remember.

So little Right Hand And busy Left, too, Just helped each other

For one couldn't do

Without help, you see ! And this is a losson

To you and to me,

For each girl and boy Should belong to a band Of Help-One-Another,

CIDER YIME. Clder barrels nigh the woodshed. A-frothin' at the bung:

I wisht that I was young. Layin' flat upon a barrel Buckin' fulco today. And you, old chum, was pumpln' with mo-

Cool and sweet as clover has Luscious, thupld Juleyl'inte or quarte as free as water Can't you feel it ouze

Hame as long age? Ain't it fun to think about it Jest as if 'twee so? -Yaba Smith to Rural Parmer

Rev. Elljah Kellogg did not confine his good works to the composition of "Bparaus" and the preparation of carital books for boys. He was foremost in practical on "Hilden Sine," appealing especially to benevolence, and never so happy as whee helping out his neighbors. One Sunday morning, just before the sermon, be made

"The Whlow Jones' grass is getting protty long. I shall be there with my soythe, rake and pitchfork at four o'clock to-morrow morning, and I hope every male member of my congregation will be there.

In answer to this broad hint the Widow Jones' field was well filled the next moreing. Among the volunteers was a Captain Grigge, who stood six feet two in his stockings, and weighed about two hundred

"Parson," sald ho, "look out for ma I'm goln' to cut you corners this mornin'." Mr. Kellogg was a small man, weighing harely one hundred and thirty pounds, but he was an old hand with the soythe, and before long the captain lay under a tree knocked out by his passmaker. And the "person" used to tell the story with great glee, always concluding with :

"He did'nt out any corner that morning."

NEEDED PROOF He had a couple of good-sized German

"What kind of fish are them?" saked a man next to him on the back platform. "Carp," he said, regarding his catch with anything but pride, "and they ain't worth the last they swallowed."

then " asked the other. The man with the mud fish eved the questioner for a moment. "How the --am I going to make them believe I caught anything if I haven't the goods to show

'em ?" he demanded.

There is one place in the world which has probably not yet heard of the war. This is the British island of Tristen da Cunha, in the South Atlantic, the Secretary to the British Postmaster General recently stating that the island has not received a mail since the outbrok of heatilities. The faland is independent on chance communi end of the month, however, that lady's of shipwrecked sailors. They are of mixed advertisement again appeared in the origin-English, Scotch, Irish, American,

Dutch, Italian, Asiatio and Nagro.

THE ONLY WAY Little Jack was full of mischief, and during his first year at school hardly a day nessed that he was not sent to stand in the corner. The schoolroom being burnt down a new one was immediately begun. Jackie went to his father, who was a school inspector :- "Don't you think you could get the builder to build a round school house this time, dail ?" he maked." "Why sonnier' his father asked in satonishment. But all too soon I found that Ellen's "Because," the little roque answered, "I'm getting very tired of standing in the > been chattering away like a magple all morning, suddenly became allent when a lady, dressed in the extreme of the fashion, called on her mother. Wishing to be amiable, the visitor said to the chatterhous "Have you lost your tongue, my dear?" "Oh, no, ma'am, ' was the reply ; "only my breath."-New York Tribune.

----JIM'S MEASUREMENT

"Here, Jim," the old man's master said, "take this footrule and measure that marble seat in the garden for me. Jim sald on his return :- "The seat is the length of the rule, sir, with three fingers over, and this place of string, and the breadth of my hand and arm from here to there, barrin' a thumb."

Miller's Worm Powders will eradicate the worm suit that hours so heavily on children and is believed to cause many fatalities. They are an acceptable medicine to children and can be fully relied upon to clear the food channels thoroughly of these destruction parasites and restore the inflamed and painful surfaces to bealthfulness. They are an excellent remedy for these cylla

THE RUDAY MORNING Established 1048

> The Old and Reliable Watchmakers and Jewellern

LIFE-LIKE

C.A.MATTHEWS'

STUDIO

Opposite Haptist Church

Acton, Ont.

THE LATESTSTYLES-PROMPT COMPLETION OF WORK

will birest

Instruments is measured the world. This well-known and world famous lustrument is sold by us in all ity different sizes on payments and terms that everybody can meet. $20 to $300. GUELPH'S VICTOR STORE C. W. Kelly @ Son 33 Lower Wyndham St

GUELPH - ONT.

ONLY A Few Days More!

Waters Bros. STOCK must be cleared out immediately Pictures Artists' Supplies

China and Fancy Goods Kelly's Old Stand

ibs Wyndham St.

OURLPH

MARKADODDUNUGUDDOD 4MARK EXCELSION BAKERY George Statham Church 8t.

Aston

The bakery business of T. Statham & Son in Auton, which has been conducted for the past thirty years, has been purchased by George Statham and will be conducted in the same first-class manner as in Cakes, Pastry, Wedding Cakes and Christmas Cakes will be sup. plied to the satisfaction of all customers.

All kinds of Bread

the past.

The other fellow didn't

It cannot be done. Let us have a look at it. We

BECAUSE

DON'T THINK awaken. Hetter die than ever awaken

CEMENT

K. COOPER, ACTON, CEMENT CONTRACTOR for Bridges Silos, Walks, Floors, Walls etc. Also Agent for De Laval Silos, Separators etc High grade Portland Cement for sale.

"Oh, she's just awfully jolly and nice," he answered. "You've got the middle finger in the water, Sue. I thought it was the little one." "That just shows how observing you are about me," she remarked with a laugh Rob. You won't need me for a 'quardian' any more-me with my whole two years more than you. Well, I relinquish the honor." She bowed with mock solemnity. then laughed, as she met his serious face "What a face! As serious as an old

make a success of repairing your watch or clock tenderly. "My Alice, and the baby for "Yes, my dear. Your words haunted ma. I had lost a little one and I was ver inhappy. But I kept thinking about the hild that had lost father and mother, before she could know either, and my bear carned over her. And finally I wrote t find what had become of her, and learne where she had been taken. When I wen

It was so like a fairy tale that not some time did Eve realize the connection sloeplessness ?"

TWENTY YEARS AGO From Our Issue of the Free Press of Thursday, August 20th, 1805

Dr. A. H. Elliott, son of Mr. J. T.

Elliott, one of Esquesing's prominent farmers, has commenced the practice of his profession in Acton. A large cortege followed the remain of Mrs. George Cook, of Esquesing, mother of Mr. Adam Cook, to Limehouse Cometery yesterday. His was 7t yours of uge. Mr. John Il. Barns, formerly of Acton, was accidentally killed at Hamilton on Tuesday, by being struck by a Hamilton and Dandas train. He was an early realdont of Acton, and married a daughter of the late Mr. Abram Matthews. With nine other-young men he went to the Cariboo his non five years ago. Mrs. Francis Dempady, for over seventy years's resident of this community, died last week. About eighty years ago her father removed to Esquesing and settled on lot 32, con. 4, giving the family name to what has since been known as "Swackhamer's Hill." Hince the death of Dennesy, of St. Thomas, and Mr. Alfred Walker, of Waterford, were able to be at the funeral. Her son Mr. Jacob Dempasy. previous to her death, but was obliged to

In the Municipal Council, Coun. Willame' asked that the caretaker of the Hall be empowered to secure printed carde prohibiting the use of tobacco in the Council Chamber, corridors and auditorium. The request was granted. The question of defining fire limits for the town was also Rev. J. W. Ras has returned, and Bunday night presched a powerful sermon

WHO CARRIES THE BURDEN

We spend about one hundred million dollars in drink every year and about the same amount in food and clothing. If the money spent in liquor were spent in foo and clothing, it would give employment to about sight times as many workman and tearful oration on the evile of losing one's we would hear nothing about man being out of employment. It would require about seven million dollars worth of raw

> Of course we receive a large revenu from the liquor traffic but it has been shown that it costs five times as much as we receive in revenue to pay for the poverty, crime, child desertion, insanity, and so on, caused by drink. Who paye for all this? The working man of course, who produces all wealth. He has to pay his taxes, even when the rich man often evades a large portion. The working man carries on his back all non-producers and of course those who have to be cared for by the State are non-producers. Thus the working man material, and so farmers, merchants and all classes would share in the benefit.

is paying to support the bar-room, even We hear a great deal about persons liberty, but in this country there is no such thing as absolute liberty. A man may sd, in his sorrow, "I'll choose something not not wear his wife's clothes, spit on the side-walk, or even kill himself. If he succeeds in killing himself, Billy Bunday says he will go to hell, and if he column headed, "Help Wanted."

"Ellen was a very well-meaning girl," said Ellen's late employer. "And at first I thought I was very lucky in finding ed me us to all the details of her work servant so anxious to suit. Bhe question-

Blould she put the spoons at the right or laft or above the plate, in setting the table .

nrefer the muffine awestened or without sugar? It seemed to me that in course of time I would have everything done to my susations were merely a device to save herself the assessity of acting on her own renonsibility. Aftet she had been with me long enough to have learned my ways. the to decide it. My efforts to encourage har |

to use her own judgment were unavailing

And now I am advertising for another girl

if ters obliging and anxious to please, will be capable of deciding a few matters for

The attitude of this housekeeper is not exceptional. Along with other qualities that amployers pay for, is the ability to de-

WHERE THERE'S A WILL

blacksmith who at twenty-five could neither read nor write, at which time he heard a chapter of "Robinson Crusos" read

Robert Louis Stavenson knew a Welst

in hopes that I may discover someone questions came as thick and fast ever.

matter how trivial a question was.

Ind I want my coffee to boll or not? Did room dispenses poison the bar-room will H. Arnott, M.B., M.C.P.S Shirking Responsibility A lady who had engaged a new servant was inclined at first to be very well satis-lianceltion of her father. He fears that as much as people who can be depended on. Crusos."-The Atlantic.

HELPPULNESS

I'll need your help, to.

The whole day through.

Like Left and Right Hand .- Ex.

Boys with straws absorbin'

And kind o' trickle down your

THE PARSON AS A PACEMAKER

this announcement :

and fifty nounds.

carp on a string in one hand and a flahingpole under his arm.

"What are you taking them home for

if a majority of people decide that the barcations from the Caps of Good Hope, 1,500 fiel with her acquisition, for the girl seem- | miles away. The inhabitants number ed willing and anxious to please. At the about eighty, and are mainly descendants

> TOOK HER BREATH AWAY A very talkative little pitl, who had another copy, only one in English. Down Mr. Littlerest-"You don't may not There is nothing the business and the he sat once more, learned English, and at Worm Exterminator has proved a boon to social and the religious world needs quite length with entire delight read "Robinson suffering children everywhere. It selder