at Oakville HALTON COUNTY HAS EXCELLED

The natriotic garden party under the auspless of the Oakville Hand tendered on Monday evening as a welcome to Col. Ballantyne, who for his bravery at Ht. Julian has been awarded the D. S. O., was here. a great success. A torchlight procession was formed and Col. Hallantyne was excerted to the grounds by the recruits of the 76th Battalion under Captain Chisholm, the Boy Scouts hearled by Scoutmaster John Cowan, and the landsmen.

Col. Ballantine, the principal speaker, said that Britain was now confronted by a brave but unscrupulous enemy. There was no finer lattalion in the army than the 4th he said. More recruits were needed. Halton County, he declared, has done better, considering its population and size, than any other county in Ontario, but the agricultural districts had not yet done their duty as the towns had. Canada will sand 100,000 more men in the field before the war is over he said.

Acton Citizons' Band discoursed an ex cellent programme of patriotic selections at the door of the hall before the meeting. This in itself gave a tone to the gathering and fanned the flame of patriotian which has been burning brightly in most hearts those trying days. lteovo Hynda occupied the chair and awoolated with him on the platform were the Officers and Captains of the campaign, Warden Campbell and others. Roy. Dr. Kloratead, Professor at Mc

Master University, Toronto, was the fire apeaker. In a masterly address he prosented the high ideals aimed at by the British Empiro, ideals which Great Britain and the Allies are flybillag for in the prosent great war. Those ideals we should emulate as individuals, in our home life our busidess life, our community life. numerous elequent and impressive periods the Dr. pointed out our duties and privileges as citizens of this great empire. His address throughout appealed strongly to the large audience and was greated with round after round of appluuse, Little Miss May Wildgust sang with mlendid effect a patriotic solo "Our Holdier Boy," being accompanied by Miss Lillian

Mr. N. L. Davidson, K. C., of Toronto, followed with a most able presentation of the important work being accomplished through the contributions of the people of Canada to the l'atrictic Fund and the position we occupy as a British Colony in relation to the great war. Mr. Bavidson pointed out in most vivid and convincing terms what the result would be to our country, our towns, our homes and our families if an invasion by forces under the Kalser were to eventuate in Canada. Harrowing indeed was the recital of what has actually occurred in Belgium and France, where these hordes of organized militarists have overrun and dovasted wide areas and whose disrespect for law and signed conventions is utterly disreputable. Thoduty
