BICKERSTETH-ANDERSON—At the residence of the bride's parents, Acton, on Wednesday, September 22nd, by Rev. H. W. Avison, M. A., B. D., Rev. J. C. Wilson, B. A., H. P. Moore, J. P., and Mr. J. L. Warren.

At the close of Mr. Warren's remarks a purse of money was presented to Mrs. Howarth on behalf of the congregation. Mr. Warren said it was with genuine regret the Church here was saying farewell to the pastor who has give such faithful and efficient service during the past two years.

Rev. Mr. Howarth made a very fitting reply to the words that had been spoken. He regretted leaving Acton where the friends in the Church and out of it have been so uniformly kind to him and to his family. He had enjoyed his residence here. In removing to a larger sphere of usefulness he felt that he was honestly "following the gleam" and he hoped for success in his new field. He thanked the congregation for their thoughtful remembrance to Mrs. Howarth and said they would always remember the many kind friends they are leaving in Acton.

The proceedings of the evening were interspersed with solos and duets by Mr. D. T. McGuire and Rev. and Mrs. Howarth.

An hour of pleasant social intercourse was spent and dainty refreshments were served at the close.

A MOST ENJOYABLE CONCERT

The Fair Night Made a New Record For Success

SPLENDID TALENT PLEASED ALL

There was ample manifestation on Thursday evening that the people of this community appreciate first-class talent when secured for a public function. The Fair Night Concert had a record attendance and the committee in charge have the gratifying experience that they provided a highly enjoyable evening's entertainment, and at the same time enhanced very appreciably the net receipts of the Fall Fair treasury.

The entertainers of the evening all enjoy wide reputation for the production of high-class and at the same time popular entertainments.

Mabel Manley Pickard is no stranger to an Acton audience. She has repeatedly appeared at concerts here and has never failed to win the appreciation of the audience. Her charming numbers on this occasion brought out the excellent qualities of her sweet and carefully cultured soprano voice, and her pleasing manner won her new friends upon appearance for her first number "The Voice of Spring." Her succeeding selections were most cordially received and her encores generously responded to.

Miss Mildred Walker, has also appeared here before. On her previous visit her reportoire was much enjoyed, and on this occasion her numbers were equally appreciated. Her fine voice is under perfect control and her interpretation of the characters in the various sketches presented was both skilful and true to life. Her military and patriotic numbers brought down the house.

It is a compliment to Eddie Pigott, that after his numerous visits to Acton he was still in such favor that the discerning committee felt warranted in making this engagement. He lived up to his slogan: "Something new, something funny, something really worth the money" every minute he occupied the stage. He is generally dubbed "Canada's Harry Lauder" and he acts well the understudy's part. He has a wide range of transforming costumes, and his impersonations were exceedingly well depicted. Every number he gave was honored with an encore.

In Miss Florence McKay was made a very happy choice of a pianist and accompanist. Miss MacKay is an accomplished musician and not only executed her parts in association with the other artists with great ability, but greatly pleased the audiences with her piano solos: "Marche Militare" from Schubart and the sextette from Donizetti's "Lucia."

The Committee which provided this concert which attracted an audience which taxed the capacity of the hall was Messrs. Murray McDonald, William Johnstone and John R. Kennedy.

A social evening was spent on Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Warren, Mill Street, to give the congregation of the Baptist Church an opportunity of spending a farewell hour or so with Rev. and Mrs. Howarth prior to their removal to Muskinaw City, Mich.

FRUIT NEWS

West Branch—Dept of Agriculture Canning and preserving fruits are almost done, all though some good peaches may even yet be obtained. Those who have not canned or preserved sumicient to last for a year, should set promptly. Do not forget that grape jelly is delicious and a liberal supply should be on the shelves for the coming winter. Get Smock Peaches, the latest and one of the best for canning, this week. If you can still get a few Elbertas take them. Some good purees are still available. Do not forget our soldiers. Do up a few jars for them and communicate with the Canadian Club or Red Cross Branch in the nearest city.

—Beyond question the untiring efforts of Sec. Hydns and his staff, together with the ideal weather which prevailed on Wednesday and Thursday, were large factors in helping to make the Acton fair a success this year.—Guelph Mercury.

The Acton Free Press.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1915

EDITORIAL NOTES

DURING the six months ended June, 30th, 1915, thirty-eight persons were killed and thirty-four were injured on the Grand Trunk Railway while trespassing on its property, in Canada. All but a small percentage of such persons were citizens of the communities in which they were killed and injured—business men, laborers and people generally using the company's tracks and yards as walk ways for their own convenience.

IN the discussion on social problems at the meeting of the General Synod of the Anglican Church in Toronto on Saturday, Rev. C. Carruthers, of Edmonton, said:

"It is time the Church had only one opinion on social and moral problems, it was because the churches co-operated in Alberta that we were able to carry prohibition. If we all got together we would soon have every Province in Canada dry. If a man does not like the report of the Social and Moral Reform Committee he should stay away or get out of the Church and not hinder the progress of reform."

UNITING IN THEIR MISSIONARY INTERESTS

An Interdenominational Banquet to be Held in Acton on October 25th

FOR THE MEN OF THE CHURCHES

A very interesting meeting of the ministers and representative laymen of the churches in town was held in the school room of the Baptist Church on Monday evening to consider the holding of an interdenominational banquet here.

Mr. H. P. Moore was elected chairman and Mr. J. L. Warren, Secretary.

Mr. H. K. Caskey, General Secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, Toronto, was present and in very interesting words explained the value of the coming together of the men of the various churches at a banquet, from a social standpoint, and the inspiration which is engendered from practical addresses on missionary themes by men of experience.

It was decided to hold a banquet on Monday evening, 25th October. It will be held in the Methodist School room, and two prominent speakers will be secured.

A committee on arrangement was appointed as follows: John R. Kennedy, representing the Presbyterian Church, J. L. Warren, the Baptist Church, Chas. A. Moore, the Anglican Church, and H. P. Moore, the Methodist Church.

The following were representatives who attended the meeting:

Anglican Church—Rev. C. O. E. Smith, M. A., and Mr. Chas. A. Moore.

Baptist Church—James L. Warren.

Methodist Church—Rev. H. W. Avison, M. A., B. D., J. S. Coleman, A. T. Brown and H. P. Moore.

Presbyterian Church—Rev. J. C. Wilson, B. A., and John R. Kennedy.

NASSAGAWEYA

It was very fitting that the splendid patriotic fund campaign by which Nassagaweya led the townships of the county by raising over $6,000, should be followed by a patriotic gathering under the auspices of the Woman's Institute of the township. On Tuesday evening a highly interesting and very enjoyable event was held in the township hall at Brookville.

The programme which was lengthy and excellent was presided over with consummate skill and ability by Mrs. Fletcher, President of the Institute, comprised a wealth of splendid numbers by the Methodist Sunday School Orchestra, Acton, the Misses Mason, Miss May Wildgust and Master Andy Frank, Mr. W. Gowdy, Limehouse, Mr. Percy Kitching, Miss Marshall and others. Mrs. George Havill, District Secretary of the Institute, and H. P. Moore, J. P., gave brief patriotic addresses.

Mrs. John Marshall expressed in well-worded terms the thanks of the members of the Institute to all who had taken part in the proceedings.

The interesting function concluded with the serving of tasty refreshments to a large audience.
