Lesson II.—Second Quarter. For

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

April 9, 1916.

Text of the Lesson, Acts In. 32-43. Memory Verses, 30, 40-Golden Yest, Tit. II, 7-Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Blearne. We leave Saul at Turana, his native town, for a time and return for a few leasons to Poter us the human instrument through whom the risen and ascended Christ continues to prove that He is alive and the same Jeaus. The one only thing that believers are on earth for is to magnify the Lard and glorify Illm in all things and win people to Mim. Unless we are turning people to Ilim we are not mignify-There is one procesy store to every 300 Ing Him, for when He to lifted up hefore people in our lives by word or doed Ife who was lifted up on the cross for us will draw unto Himself all whom the Father has given unto Illim to form Ills body. We must think of Poter as in chapter vill, 25, preachfor the word of the Lord wherever he went to save sinners and to strengthen and comfort the saints. So he came to Lydds and was used Several garages is Southern California by the Lord to give health to a man eight years, being pulsted. His words to him were, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole; arise and make thy bed." He was made whole and arose immediately, and one result was that all who dwelt there, seeing this miracle, turned to the Lord. I have often thought that perhaps the Lard would still heat more people if He saw that the restored bealth would storify Ilim or win others to Ilim. He knows whom lie can trust with bealth or trials and which will be best for the the Lazarus was allowed to die it was that In some way the Bon of God might be glorided (Yohn MI, 4). The man of John Ix. & was born blind that the works of God should be made mant feet in him. If only we can say "!

have giorified Thee on the earth" we shall have life "Well done." Turning to Peter at Joppa, we are introduced to a saint, called Dorcas, who while she lived was full of good works and alms deeds which she did. Hhe was not full of talk about good works which might be done, nor did she spend her time telling of ulmi deeds which she know that others were able to do and ought to do, but she was in the Yord's hand to be used by Him as the needle was in her hand, a willing instrument. Good works are prepared beforehend for each believer to walk in (Eph. U, 10), not in any Lydia E. Pinkham's way to add to our safety which is Vegetable Com- wholly due to the blood of Jesus Christ, Mis finished work, but as an evidence to people that we are indeed Ills workmanship. Good works are not necessary to God to prove to Illia our faith, for I'e reads the heart, but the good works of believers are good and profitable unto men who cannot read the beart (Tit. III. 8). This faithful saint became sick an died. She departed to be with Christ which is far better than continuing here. She was absent from the body and present with the Lord. She rest ed from her labore (Phil. 1, 21, 23; II Cor. v. 8; Rev. xiv. 13). Consider this well and then note the conduct of these disciples at Jopps. Two men were sent to Kydds to find Peter an bring him without delay, boping that from the dead. This was all very nat- cure the cough or cold and prove a pre-be might being Doreas back to them ural, and the same desire provalls everywhere today, as a rule, to have loved ones come back to earth oven though we know that they have gone to be with Christ and have the galu. the very far better. But quietly consider it. When our loved ones on earth to away for a few days or weeks or months to rest or for their health, and we know that they are well and hapmy, what would it be but utter selffahness on the part of those left at bome to send for them to come back after a day or two, saying: "Oh, I am away. Come right back to me. Now, what was the difference in this case? I hope that I am not misjudg ing those weeping widows, but us see them showing the coats and mrments which Dorces had made I at wondering a little if they wanted her back to do some more sowing for them when perhaps she had simply worked herself to death for them. can almost imagine the Lord Jouns saying to Dorcan after she had reached has beevenly home and was enjoying something of the bliss of pareither "Dorcas, they are asking to have you come back to earth for awbile, but you stay, for X love to have my redasmed ones with me in glory (John zvii, 24), but if you are willing to go back for a time I will let you bring others with you." I think that would decide Dercas to return, and we know that by her return to the earth many believed in the Lord (verse 42). The result was the same in the cas of Laurens, brother of Mary and Marthe for we read that "by reason of him many of the Jews went away and bolleved on Jenus" (John xii, 11) man who found himself in tornien after c' 'th wanted some one to w his brushers who were still on envi last ther should come to the sun swhil place (Luke avt. 27, 24, Ha is not difficult to think that might be willing to come back from beaven if they could take others to that place of bites.
