MARVELLOUS PROPHECYING

In the latter half of last year an officer called on his bank manager in London Eng., with regard to certain dispositions because of his departure for the front.

"You won't be away long," said the mun-"How do you know?" was the reply.

"You'll will be back in quite a short time, wounded in the hand." When the officer actually returned with a wounded hand and in a short time he was puzzled. However, his wound healed and he was off again. He went to bid "Goodbye" at the bank. "Any more prophecical" said he jocular

"You will be away longer this time," replied the manager, "and then you will be ratherbadly wounded in the log." When the officer was wounded in the log and came home he sought the first chance to inte view his farseoing friend at the bank.

OPPORTUNITY

Opportunity is a big word, the biggest in the language. It transforms the baset mind-metals into gold or leaves them leaser than before. It is the fountain from which flow love. fame, and fortune. It leaves its footprints in the country and to the city. It prostretos the wilderness, the desert and the from North Sta. It walts for no man; yet, unbilden, knocks sometime at the gateway of ever beart and only turns away when people refuse to let it in. It is the guarding engel of fate, and they who faithfully follow it reach the goal of life even gracing the halls of science, the counof state, and the high places of employ Those who do not follow it fail in the con filet of life and die without hope, love, and admiration. Hat these who follow attain to that which is important, signifi-Gint, and valuable.

In the beight lexicon of youth there so other word to be compared with the big word "opportunity."

Mrs. Wm. McKilwain, Yemperance Vale, N.B., writes: "I am not much of a believer in medicines, but I must say Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are all right. Some years ago I was troubled with smothering spells. In the night I would waken up with my breath all gone and think I never would get it back. I was telling a friend of my trouble, and be advised me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. He gave me a box, and I had only taken a few of them when I could sleep all night without any trouble. I did not finish the box until some years after when I felt my trouble coming back, so I took the rest of them and they

Mr. Lennox D. Cooke, Indian Path, N.S., writes: "I am writing you a few lines to tell you what Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. Last winter my face was covered with pimples. I tried different kinds of medicine, and all seemed to fail. I was one day to a friend's house, and there they advised me to use B.B.B., so I purchased two bottles, and before I had them taken I found. and before I had them taken I found I was getting better. I got two more, and when they were finished I was completely cured. I find it is a great blood purifier, and I recommend it to all."
