None from Toronto.
About one hour's ride.
In a place they call Georgetown,
J. A. Willoughby resides.
He sits about ten farms,
Of different shapes and sizes;
No fancy talk to idle ears.
His ears has got some pricks,
If your farm is not so good,
Your profits getting low,
Just take a trip to Georgetown,
Good farms to you he'll show.

The Action Free Press

THURSDAY, JULY 6, 1916

BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS

You have renewed your Free Press subscription?
Burlington tax rate for 1916 has been struck at 30 mills.
Having has commenced in this section.
The crop is a bumper one on most farms.
The Twelfth will be spent at Oakville by the members of Action Orange Lodge.
Mr. Williamson, horse buyer, of Toronto, secured five splendid horses here on Monday.
Dominion Day—Canada's fiftieth birthday as a unit—had glorious summer weather.
James Kelher was fined $300 and costs at Guelph on Tuesday for selling liquor without a license.
Mr. Thomas Kennedy left a fine sample of fall wheat at this office yesterday. It measures five feet, six inches.
Guelph electors turned down the by-law for improvement of Main Street roadway by a vote of 90 to 62.
Mrs. Hugh McLaughlin has sold her property on Wellington Street, to Mr. George Duke. The consideration was $1000.

Action Orange Lodge will parade to Kew Church on Sunday evening. Rev. J. C. Wilson, B. A. will preach a special sermon.

Burlington has carried a by-law to raise nearly $3,000 for duesheets for the purpose of improving the fire fighting system of the town.

Mrs. Norma Matthews, of Barrie, Col., sang very sweetly the solo "My Will Be Done," in the Methodist Church at the Sunday evening service.

Having completed the work on the stone and tarvia roadway on Main Street, operations have begun on Martin Street, from the corner of Main Street to the limit of the corporation.—Milton Champion.

—Yesteryear, the Italian, sentenced to be hanged yesterday in Guelph for murder, committed suicide Tuesday morning by cutting his throat with the handle of his drinking cup.

Arthur Johns, aged 11, was drowned in the Grand River, Guelph, on Monday. He died from a spring-board, but failed to come up, and it is thought he struck his head on a stone and drowned.

R. W. Armstrong, superintendent of the Peel-Halton house of refuge, had an increase to his salary and that of Mrs. Armstrong as master, $100 each, paid by the county council of Halton and Peel.

The July issue of Red and Gun is replete with material of interest to the sportsman, whether he be falconer, hunter, dog fancier, gun cracker or what not. The July issue is a good one to take into the outer kit when setting forth on his vacation.

Mr. W. Stark, Vancouver, B. C., in his customary appreciative article writes: "This past summer the Free Press is particularly welcome, in that it entertains, temporarily at least, to forget the woes and sorrows of the present in the scenes of the past."

Cobbeck-Laverty Marriages

A marriage of considerable interest took place recently at the Methodist congregation, Montreal, on Wednesday, June 29, at 3 o'clock when Lillian May, only child of Mr. and Mrs. John Laverty, of Moncton, was united in bonds of holy wedlock to Mr. Joseph Cobbeck, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Hobson V. Cobbeck, of Cobbeck. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. Thornton Meek, pastor of the young couple. The bride was beautifully attired in a gown of cream Chantilly lace over ivory bridal satin, trimmed with pearls and changeable head dressing. Miss Leila Cobbeck, sister of the groom, makes lovely bridegroom, while the groom's brother, Mr. James Cobbeck acted as groomsman. The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a bangle and a bracelet and to the last a shaving set. After the ceremony the couple drove to the home of the bride's parents in West Luther where the wedding repast awaited them. After a sumptuous meal to points east the happy young couple will reside on the Cobbeck homestead, Montebello. The bride made many friends while visiting at Acton at different times.

COUGAROUS CHILD

Nellie, aged four, was gazing intently at the visitor's new bonnet. "Well, dear," asked the lady at last, "what do you think of it?" "Oh," replied the small observer, "I think it's all right. Aunt Mary told mamma it was a perfect fright, but it doesn't frighten me any."

Cataract Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to get rid of cataract deafness and that is by a constitutional remedy.

Cataract Deafness is caused by an internal condition of the human body, of the brain and the tubes. When the tubes are infected you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness follows. The cure must be internal and the disease removed to its normal condition, leaving will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by cataract, which is an affection of the eye, of the retina and face. Hall's Cataract Cure acts through the blood on the mucous surface of the eye.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Cataract Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Cataract Cure. Circumstances free. All expenses paid.

NEWS OF LOCAL IMPORT

None Organist at Knox Church
Mrs. H. L. Whittman has been engaged as organist of Knox Church to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Miss Lillian Williams who has very faithfully performed the duties of organist for several years. They Were All Successful

Misses Jane O'Brien, Margaret and Christine Henderson and Ethelred White examined for second class certificates. These candidates all passed with first-class certificates. These candidates all passed with first-class certificates. These candidates all passed with first-class certificates.

Misses L. O. Brethaupt, of Berlin, formerly Miss Mabel White, passed away after a few hours' illness on Tuesday of last week.

Deceased was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. E. White, of this town, and after their death went to live with her aunt, Mrs. Dr. McColl, until her marriage to Mr. Brethaupt about a year ago. She was a lovely girl and very popular with her friends and acquaintances, who deeply deplored her untimely death.—Milton Reophysical League at Rockwood

The delightful weather on Dominion Day rendered the union picnic at Rockwood a delight. The League of Acton, Waterloo Memorial, Guelph, and Rockwood participated and enjoyed a very pleasant outing. The day was spent on the rocks, investigating the caves, enjoying the romantic scenery, in athletic sports and delightful social intercourse. Action League was represented by fifty-six members and friends, who were under the leadership of Rev. Mr. Aviatic, the energetic, athletic and experienced director of his young people's activities. The picnic was one of the most satisfactory functions the League has ever had. They went to Rockwood in train, had two picnic meals together, and returned on the evening train. The Rockwood members proved themselves admirable hosts.

Dr. McIlwain Retires Dr. Lake

Owing to ill health Dr. A. D. Lake has disposed of his practice to Dr. J. A. McNiven, of Oakville, who commenced his professional work in Action this week. Dr. McNiven has base practicing for the past sixteen or seventeen years in Coulter, Ontario, but owing to the heavy clay roads in that section retired from his profession there.

For some time he has been residing at Oakville, the home of Mrs. McNiven. Mrs. McNiven is a sister of Rev. Mr. T. W. White, minister of First United Church in this good old county of Halton at her birthplace. Dr. and Mrs. McNiven will find a congenial home and will no doubt soon feel quite at home in our midst. They have leased a house in the heart of the village.

The Summer School at Oakville

The Epworth League summer school opens at Oakville on Saturday evening and for a week the young people of Hamilton Conference, who embrace the splendid privilege provided will profit from helpful instruction, worthy inspiration and artistic recreation.

The school will be conducted on modern lines calculated to afford the young people the most profitable and interesting studies.

Misses Jeanie Anderson, Acton, and Emily Young, Erin, visited their aunt

Mr. W. A. Murray this week.

CREWSBON'S CORNERS

Dominion Day passed over quietly here. The farmers having had so many holidays this spring at account of the weather, that a fine, dry day is appreciated for work.

Last Thursday the pupils of Lorne School presented their teacher, Miss N. A. Jasline, who is leaving the school, with a handsome ebony dressing case.

Miss Jasline, who is leaving the school, was the daughter of Master Donald McIoughlin, and the presentation made by Master Hector McDonald and Harold Swackhamer.

Dear Teacher!—We, the pupils of Lorne School, find great pleasure in expressing our hearty appreciation of your work among us during the past few years. We ask you to accept this gift, not for its mere value but as a token of our high esteem for you.

Every person in the section units in wishing you unlimited success in the future.

Signed on behalf of the school, Elmer Johnson, Donald McIoughlin, Hugh Brown, Campbell Miller, Roy Johnston, Eddie McElderry, Isabelle Watkins, Clara Lane, Caroline Ryder.

Miss Jasline, though very much surprised, made a suitable reply the schools for their kind words.
