FOR THE BOY'S SAKE

A Sunday School superintendent made the following confession at a country Sunday School convention:

THREE YEARS AGO

From Our Issue of the Free Press of Thursday, July 23rd, 1906

KEEP A SMILING

"There ain't no use in kickin', friend, if things don't come your way; It does no good to holler 'round and grumble night and day. The thing to do is to curb your grief, and put your little wiles on, And when they ask you how you are, why just smile and say, 'I'm feelin' fine.'"

THIEF OBEYS THE LAW

"Breaking and entering is a rare crime on the island of Manx, in the Cook group, but an amusing instance of it is described in 'The Hon. R. H. Rodden's Visit to the South Sea Islands.'"

IF YOU WERE THE "BOSS"

If you applied to yourself for a job, would you get it? Think it over! Just be "boss" for a few minutes—think back up your record for the past month as an employee.

That was the last meeting between the lovers for some time. The next word Edith received from her lover was a letter from Colorado in which he informed her he had received a severe blow, which must also fall on her with equal force. He informed her that he had been so severely injured that he could not bring himself to marry a girl with negro blood in her veins. He was heartbroken.

A few days later, having been furnished with what money she needed, Edith started for Colorado, arriving there she went at once to the cabin of her foster mother, Aunt Sue.

Edith had a long and interesting conversation with her foster mother, Aunt Sue, who had been so severely injured that she could not bring herself to marry a girl with negro blood in her veins.
