NEWS FROM THE 164TH BATTALION

Two Recruiting Corps are canvassing Halton and Dufferin

The officers and men of the battalion received the news of the death from wounds received in action of Lieut. Leslie, a former officer of the 164th, with great sorrow. Lieut. Leslie was much respected by his fellow officers and men and many expressions of regret were voiced when it was known that he had succumbed to his injuries.

On Sunday, Dec. 3rd, the Batt. paraded to Charlton Avenue Methodist Church for Divine Service. The pastor, Rev. W. Large, gave an inspiring address. Capt. Rev. Woodcock assisted in the service.

A determined effort is being made to recruit the Batt. up to strength. Two recruiting parties have been formed and sent out into the two counties. The Halton detachment is in charge of Capt. Rev.
