BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS

Splendid sleighing now. Now for another year's business in earnest. It is your duty to fill out your registration card. Saw logs are being delivered at Henderson's mill. Heavy timbers for the new shoe factory are being delivered. Be sure to secure and fill out one of the National Service cards.

WANTED—Board and room. Conveniences preferred. Apply, Box 142, Farnham, Acton.

Mr. Alan G. Smith has sunk a well at the shoe factory, six feet in diameter and twenty-two feet deep.

Comptometer N. E. Moore reports that the Boy Scouts' Drum and Bugle Band is making satisfactory progress.

The Junior Red Cross social gathering in the town hall on New Year's night was gratifyingly successful to the young ladies who exploited it.

The annual meeting of the directors and members of Acton Fall Fair will be held in the Council Chamber on the 18th inst. at 2 o'clock.

The Sons of England annual banquet will be held to-morrow evening in the Parish Hall. Mr. J. D. Proctor, Supreme President, will be present.

Sleigh driving is being enjoyed these days. The merry sleigh bells, the good sleighing, the bracing atmosphere all add their quota to these enjoyable outings.

The Christmas and New Year's holidays this year had many enjoyable features. Happy home gatherings prevailed. The home-comings bring much of pleasurable experience.

The sacramental services at Knox Church were well attended. Rev. Mr. Dodd's sermon at the preparatory service on Friday afternoon was very appropriate and impressive.

In the report of the High School "At Home" in last week's Free Press, it was inadvertently stated that George Agnew was President of the High School "Literary." However, George Anderson holds the responsible position. The other George was president last year.

Mr. W. T. Smyth, who has for over a quarter of a century been the leading traveller for Messrs. W. H. Storey & Sons, has retired. Mr. A. E. Nicklin, a former traveller for the company, but who has been doing a jobbing business for several years, has accepted Mr. Smyth's position.

MILITARY NOTES

A letter from Driver Tom Fryer of the B. H. F. says he is back in France again after a short absence.

Pte. Harry Watson, of the 164th Batt., came home from the Westinghouse Barracks, suffering from a severe cold which has since developed into pneumonia.

Pte. Bert Taylor, who came to Canada on escort duty in the fall and who has been on a visit to his parents at Brandon, Man., spent Tuesday with boyhood friends in town.

Pte. Harold F. Travers, son of Mrs. J. Travers (née Minnie Brown, formerly of Acton) paid the supreme sacrifice at the front on November 18th. He was 20 years of age.

Pte. G. H. Lantz is writing to his wife from the Granville Canadian Hospital, Mogadish, says: "I received a Christmas parcel from Acton Red Cross and I wish you to thank the ladies of the Red Cross for their kindness in remembering me. The box arrived in good shape and the contents were thoroughly appreciated, but the dearest thing in the box was a real maple leaf from dear Canada. I wonder if they know how much cheer it would carry when they post it."

CREWSONS CORNER

The Christmas Tree entertainment here last Thursday night was most enjoyed by the children and their parents and friends. The following programme was rendered: Opening chorus by school and vocalizing of "yuletide" gifts; recitation, "Tiny Tot," by Ruth French; recitation, Lester Lamberts' flag drill; eight girls sang, "Our King," by four boys; recitation, Eddie Kingsbury; solo, Miss Wilson recitation, Eddie Cripps, and Cecil Nesles' tableau, "Little Candies"; six little girls' recitation, Victor Burleighman, and Kathleen Miller; song, Lauretta Moore; recitation, Charles Ludloff; tableau, "Heroes"; recitation, Jean Miller; duet, Rhea and Eddie Cawsey; recitation, Campbell Miller, and Marie Lantz (song, "Holly," four girls); recitation, Murray Kingsbury; solo, Miss Wilson recitation, Eddie Cripps, and Cecil Nesles' tableau; "Little Candies"; six little girls' recitation, Victor Burleighman, and Kathleen Miller; song, Lauretta Moore; recitation, Charles Ludloff; tableau, "Heroes"; recitation, Jean Miller; duet, Rhea and Eddie Cawsey; recitation, Campbell Miller, and Marie Lantz (song, "Holly," four girls); recitation, Murray Kingsbury); flag drill; eight girls' recitation, Bobbie Kingsbury; solo by Miss Wilson and John Kingsbury; recitation, Olive McLaughlin; song, "Two French Maid"; closing chorus by school. The young ladies of the Sunday School deserve credit for the very efficient way the children were treated. Miss Hazel Daniels especially deserved much time in their training. Santa Claus gave an appearance at the end of the programme and presented each child with a bag of candy and an orange.

Mr. Abbott, Carman, Man., is visiting his sister, Mrs. James Moore. This is Mr. Abbott's first visit home since going what seems like a year ago.
