EDITORIAL NOTES

DOMINION PARLIAMENT is summoned for next Thursday, January 18th. It will be a fitting occasion as a general election is expected to follow closely after prorogation. Premier Borden will attend the House for a month and then go to England to join the other Premiers in an Imperial Conference.

THE COUNTY COUNCIL of the Province are urging the Legislature to have a larger share of the cost of improved highways throughout the Province under the Good Roads System. This would seem reasonable especially as the leading roads of the Province are the common property of the people everywhere who are, as never before, making use of them.

AT A MEETING of the Halton County Farmer's Club, held in Milton recently, it was moved by Mr. Sam Harrop, seconded by Mr. J. G. Ellenton and carried unanimously, that we bear with much pleasure of the members of the School Gardening under the guidance of Inspector Denys and we appreciate the work he is doing for agriculture, the principal industry of the country.

COMMANDER BELLAIRE, who is regarded as an authority on British naval affairs, contributed to the Canadian Magazine an article on the patriotic song entitled "The Siege of Derry from the Sea," in which he shows how it is possible fully to audience this great Germanic power. It is announced as the first of a series of notable articles dealing with "the last phase" of the war.

An article in the Standard in the January 10th and 11th, which is on the subject of "The Pilgrimage," by H. C. Hastings, "Starting the New Year Right," by F. V. Williams, "Camping in the Heart of the Rockies," by R. Anderson, "The Lost Mine of Calcas Creek" by Mike Jay, "A Hunting and Fishing Trip in British Columbia" by T. S. Scott, "With the Oceanographers" by R. J. Fraser, etc., etc. Reginald Coupland contributes an article on "Our Passing Game Birds" to the Conservation Department and the other regular departments are well maintained.

THE ACTON OF THE MUNICIPAL COUNCIL at their meeting on Monday, in introducing a by-law for the appointment of an officer to enforce the provisions of the Ontario Temperance Act, has much to commend it. It will not only make prompt and satisfactory enforcement of the law which prohibits the sale of intoxicating liquors, and all drink-sessions on the streets, but it diverts the treasury of the municipality a large proportion of such fines as may be imposed when convictions of violation of the act are registered.

During the return of Local Option Law Acton will be hundred of dollars of fine paid here for violations of the law were sent to the provincial treasury.

AS USUAL THERE IS quite a stir over the Wardenship of the County for 1917. In all districts the town of Oakville and Oakville's Pastoral have been selected for a distribution of the honor to the municipalities and the members who serve the country for a number of years are generally recognized by the bestowment of the Wardenship. If therefore the claim of thamnocracy is to be recognized Oakville's claim is stronger than that of any other in the county. It is conjointly with this the claim of the member is also considered. Mr. A. S. Foster Reeve of Oakville, will be favored, inasmuch as he is one of the oldest and most useful members of the Council. For the past 11 years the municipalities whose Reeve have had the office have been as follows: 1906, Georgetown; 1907, Oakville; 1908, Esquinton; 1909, Acton; 1910, Burlington; 1911, Trafalgar; 1912, Nelson; 1913, Milton; 1914, Acton; 1915, Georgetown; 1916, Guelph. Oakville should consequently have the Wardenship this year, and Esquinton in 1918.

MILITARY NOTES

Sgt. R. Swankhamer and Lance Corp. H. Davis are home recovering from the mumps.

Gunner S. B. Marshall, of Limehouse, is now with D. Company, Canadian Machine Gun Depot, at Crowther, Eng.

Mr. Collier has received word that Pte. Peter McIlrath of the 73rd Batt. has been awarded the Military Medal for Justin, quashed by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

An interesting letter to his mother from Lieutenant-Colonel E. W. Meldick, from "Shoreham, Essex," on December 18th, 1916, says he has just been promoted from the rank of Company Quartermaster to that of Regimental Quartermaster. He also acknowledges receipt of the Christmas parcel sent by the ladies of Acton Red Cross, which he appreciated very highly.

Guiney A. M. Smith writes the Fins Puss from Hubber Barracks, Shoreham, Eng., on Dec. 24th, that he is now a qualified gunner and expects to leave for the front in France in a few days. He met Major J. G. Ellenton, Pte. H. W. Win, R.A.M.C. of the 1st Battalion, Royal Fusiliers, on the 1st day of December, 1916, and they are now at the beginning of the end.

Lieut.-Col. H. A. Genet, of Brantford, officer commanding the 8th Battalion, now a unit of the 3rd Canadian Division, has been awarded the Distinguished Service Order. The 8th Battalion was one of the best equipped, trained, and disciplined battalions that left Toronto, and it was due to Col. Genet's ability as a soldier that the battalion went to France as a complete unit. Col. Genet left Toronto, Nov. 20, 1916, for overseas and in March, the battalion was selected for the 3rd Division and has been in the fighting ever since at Ypres, Zillebeke, Hooge, Salient Woods and on the Somme, and have been badly cut up three times. The late Capt. McNair, Pte. G. H. Latta and Pte. Geo. Caswell belong to this unit.

SONS OF ENGLAND BANQUET

Enjoyable Function Honoring the Visiting of the Supreme President

On Sunday, December 31st, you completed thirty years of service as Superintendent of our Sunday School. In that time several of us people passed through the school and remained from our town to other churches in near and distant places. Many of them attribute their beginnings in the church to the influence of the Superintendent. I am sure your earnest and peaceful direction always were appointed that this address was a public service in last issue. Therefore, in the interests of the reader of the Fins Puss, resident in Acton and elsewhere who have been in one way or another associated with the school, I earnestly request that you will print in the columns of your paper the address that was presented to you on your last Sunday in the capacity of Superintendent. This will recall to all who read it the work you have so faithfully accomplished to produce the present efficiency that makes our school one of the model schools in our district. I am, very sincerely,

Yours in Sunday School work,

H. W. AVISON,
Editor Acton Methodist Church.

The banquet of Lodge Woodgreen No. 303, of the Sons of England Benefit Lodge, held in the Parish Hall last Friday, was a very enjoyable evening. The function was in honor of Mr. H. P. Moore, Toronto, the Supreme President of the Order.

The menu was an excellent one and reflects credit upon Mr. and Mrs. W. Colas who superintended the culinary department. It was follows:

CELERI SALTED ALMONDS
DEVILLED HADDOCK SOUP ROYAL
FRIED FILLETS OF FISH
LOBSTER RAVIOLI
BAKED POTATOES SAVOY CABBAGE
PRAWNS MINCE PIE
FRUIT RUM PUDDING
CRACKERS AND CHEESES
COFFEE

A dozen Boy Scouts acted as waiters and they did exceedingly well in the services rendered.

The toast list embraced an interesting series and it was much enjoyed. After singing the National Anthem and an excellent Scotch song by little Jeannie Orr, Rev. C. H. E. Smith, M. A., spoke very effectively to the toast, "We are Britons together, whether English, Irish or Scotch." He emphasized what a wonderful country Canada is, and the British people who have come here are learning this to their satisfaction. Wheat and other products of the field and garden are abundant. Its forests, lakes, and rivers yield vast resources. Our boys and girls of Canada are becoming known and appreciated abroad.

You have shown wisdom by settling in Canada, he said to the Englishmen present. Honest industry and thrift are well repaid. Our bracing climate breeds the dominating men who shall yet control this northern Hemisphere. Reference was made to the numbers of Sons of England who are in Mackay and who are an honor to the country. Canada of the future shall be great, a country of high ideals and vast resources.

Mr. Harold Wildgust then sang a patriotic song with splendid effect.

District Deputy W. Colas, P. P., then proposed the toast, "Our Guest and Order," which was responded to heartily and Mr. D. J. Prentiss, the Supreme President, was introduced.

We realize that the work of our church is being adequately conducted without effort being made to conserve the youthful heart, and mind for the Lord Jesus Christ. And we further believe that it ought to be the ideal of every church to use all possible consecrated methods to attract the child life to the higher things.

We gladly acknowledge the contribution you have made to this work in your person, your time, talents and means. For thirty years, with such few exceptions as to be hardly mentioned, you have been in your school. Sunday after Sunday, and with alacrity and promptness, the fact—and much patience, have kept the school a model of order and decorum, and the successive staffs, loyal and helpful so that the School is well known as a model Suplaid School.

Not only so, but your interest in the spiritual welfare of the young has been deep and general. In times of evangelistic effort few, if any, ever surpassed your self-sacrifice in an effort to win to Christ and in anxious effort to win to Christ and the church the youthful heart. But beside this at all seasons it is a matter of common knowledge that you were always solicitous for the moral and spiritual safeguarding of children and youth.

We gladly acknowledge under our hearts the Fatherhood of the conspiracy to force him to his post and sacred calling:

A godly parentage is a great blessing to any soul and to any community.

We know that your years have been employed by yourself so that acquaintance with Diving things at home made such attractive in church; therefore:

2. Early surrender to Christ and identification with the church was only to be expected and realized. So when at fifteen you were found in your Father's house about His business we recognize a contributing element.

3. Using your gifts gradually as work has been laid upon you, prepared the way naturally for the higher responsibility laid upon you, so that secretary and treasurer, so that presidency came almost automatically. And it would be a pleasing incident in the life of Rev. Robt. Phillips who in 1873 received you into the church, in a later pastorate in 1887, installed you into the school superintendence.

4. We must note also the associations you contracted with eminent workers by attendance on conventions and by wide reading of successful methods. So much that you have been entrusted with official work in several associations, and particularly as President of the County and Provincial Associations.

5. We gladly give tribute to your loyalty to the church of your choice, so that your influence in the school has always been directing and winning, if possible, the youthful mind thereto. Especially the great work of missions has been given strong emphasis in your efforts, with the result that our school ranks easily among the first in our church at large in regard.

6. We cannot omit reference to the great assistance given in your useful career by your noble and painstaking wife, whose countenance and counsel and co-operation have been so marked.

Therefore, now, at the termination of this long period of highly useful service, in looking back over which we can recall many, very many persons, in all directions, throughout this wide Dominion, who have gone forth from our school, who cannot fail to rejoice in the great favor under which they have been privileged as members of Action Methodist Sunday School.
