EDITORIAL NOTES

THE INDIANS of Ontario, in Grand Coucil at Chemony, near l'oterboro, to the lasting credit for characteristic loyalty, voted down by a large majerity a proposal to ask exemption from drafting under the military service act. But they also in dignified way made an urgent demand the franchise, as a right withhold, and as won by service in war.

THE DOMINION CARINET is undergoing recenstruction and changes of a more less momentous character are being effected befere the Government goes to the country for a general election. Mr. C. Bellanting, a prominent Liberal of Mon treal, has been swern in as Minister of in the near future if those at present being Public Works, and Mr. Hugh Guthrie, prospected are found to be suppossful. Liberal, member for Boath Wellington, has become Soliciter General.

Tun Une of grain to the manufacturing of boor and spirits, except alcohol for musttien work, will probably be probibited in MILTON YESTERDAY; ERIH TO-MOR-Canada. Some such action is expected to go into effect almost immediately. Such use of grain will be stepped to conserve the food supply. The United States has prohibited the use of grain in the manufacture Friday of last week. It was, however, of spirits, but permits the manufacture of boar. It is expected that the Canadian law will be much more drastic, going even to the extent of stopping the production of two per cent. hours.

THE VOTE given by the electors of the province will shortly follow the step taken by all the other provinces of the Deminion in the outlawry of the baneful liquor traffic. The Roman Catholic Church, so powerful in the province of Quebec, has taken issue is showing the effect of the great influx of against the liquer interests and this in- automobiles on the farm. THAT ONTAKIO in the past ton years has spent $23,000,000 on rural bighways, which less than one-quarter remains as a bended debt, is the information given by the annual report of the Department of Public Highways, just issued. To-day there are only six counties in Optario that are without county road systems and two of these are committed to the early adoption of road building schomes. The report which this year is propared chiefly as an explanation of the county roads system reviews last year's road construction and outlines the machinery of organization re-

Goorgetown and Rockwood Last Hold Successful Shows

Georgetown and Rockwood Fall Fairs had fairly good weather on Thursday and attendance at neither was above the aver-

The Georgetown fair had many fine oxhibits. The hall presented an exceedingly fine appearance. The showing of roots was a great contrast over that of last year, city of Quebec of over 3,000 majority for while that of apples and other fruit was prohibition was a magnificent victory. It much better than was looked for. The is more. It is a cortain index that the ladies' departments were well filled and had many attractive features. The outside show was also good. There was a fine lot of horses entered, though it must be admitted that this fair, like others, poses. There were nevertheless a number of very floo single and double turnouts in carriage and readster classes. The showing of cattle was good and that of hoga, aboop and poultry vary creditable. The 20th Battalion Band discoursed awood music during the afternoon.

Rockwood show soffered from showers is he forences and will have a just claim rom the rain insurance fund of the province. The people turned out in goodly numbers and enjoyed the excellent fair. The hall exhibits were excellent but i some classes the entries were not up to the usual large number. The culinary department was well represented and the lady exhibitors of broad, pastry, butter and canned fruits, etc., deserved the numerous red tickets they secured. The showing of roots and vegatables was admirable and the fruit classes had some fine exhibits, the year being considered. The entries of horses was good and the Foresters with other overseas contingents | borse ring had big crowds all the afternoon on Saturday from Pto.
