Success This Year PRES. HAVILL THANKS EVERYBODY

A meeting of the Board of Directors of Acton Fall Fair was held in the Council Chamber on Monday afternoon to receive the Secretary's report of the fair of 1917. Provident Havill occupied the chair and faced a group of directors well satisfied with the results of the present years fair. The good fortune of balmy summer weathor ; the splendid spirit of co-operation and effective team work by the directors; the good natured and well-satisfied list of exhibitors, and the throngs of visitors; all came in for gratulatory remarks. The Prosident expressed his grateful thanks to all who had assisted to making the Fair the gratifying success which had been achieved. · Secretary Hynds said is afforded him a good deal of pleasure to present so satisfactory's report. The receipts from all sources aggregated $1275.45. The expenditures for prizes awarded, administration expenses and necessary improvements totalled $1158.53. This left a not surplus of $110.02 The receipte at the gate were nearly $300 in access of those of 1910. Financially Acton Fall Fair is in a very sound financial position. When all prize money and other expenses are paid the Treasurer will have nearly $900 cash on doposit in the bank.

may to secured at all book stores after Oct-It is remarkable that not a single protest against any award was entered this year The Secretary-Treasurer was authorized to refund to the Woman's Institute and to the Boy Hoonts the respective sums they had paid for fair privileges.

Various matters looking to the improvement of the fair for 1918 were discussed. A resolution was adoption appointing he Secretary and Director Murray Mo-Donald as a committee to confer with some experienced and competent lady with a view to encouraging a greater interest by Dover. local exhibitors in the Ladice' Department. It was felt that the display by the outside exhibitors has become such a valued and interceting feature of the Fair that it should be continued with, perhaps, a few desirable changes, but that local axhibitors should have a class where they might compote with one another without the handicap of running up against the so-called professional exhibitors. To offeet this it is proposed to include next year a compresensive list of ladies' work open to exhibitors resident within the four adjoining townships of Esquesing, Namagawaya, committee will come as a recommendation to the annual meeting in January. It was the general consensus of opinio at the meeting that the effort of this and past years to provide an attraction by the "Trials of Spood" had signally failed, and that this feature was not worth what it has cost annually to the society. An effort will be made still further to improve the general prize list for horses and also provide attractive and entertaining features of a special character in the way of grand
