EDITORIAL NOTES

The Distribution of sugar and the price are being closely watched by the Food Controller's office. Steps have been taken to check speculation and to prevent an advance in retail prices, and to secure an equitable apportionment of supplies.

An article of co-operation between the Food Controller and the Federal Department of Agriculture the farmers throughout the Dominion have been informed of the necessity of increasing the production of hogs in Canada and campaigns have been launched in every province under the Provincial Department of Agriculture.

Every citizen is probably ready to accept the abstract principle that the practice of thrift and economy, with the object of accumulating the wherewithal for purchasing war bonds, is good for his country; but not all of us have applied that principle to our personal affairs to the extent that is desirable. Let us each consider conscientiously how we may devote ourselves to the purchase of Victory War Bonds for the help of our country and the support of our soldiers overseas.

At the House of Commons on Wednesday last week Dr. Anderson, the Ontario Candidate made complimentary reference to the retiring member, Hon. David Henderson, who had represented the county for nearly thirty years, something unique and unusual in the political history of Canada. He said, Mr. Gregory, the Ontario candidate, followed, and his opening remarks also referred in complimentary terms to Mr. Henderson, whose great services, he thought should have been recognized by the Government by appointing him a Senator, that he would still represent the County as Ottawa.

The unusually exhibition of intolerance by the mob at Kitchener last Saturday night, when Sir Robert Borden, Premier of Canada, was not permitted to address the electors, shows very conclusively the necessity of a Union Government to solve this kind of spirit in Canada. Unfortunately this is the natural fruit of the lack of the late Government in taking prompt and forceful action at the beginning of the war to stamp out the seditious spirit which was very manifest in that section of Ontario. The irony of fate makes the Premier himself the subject of lawless citizens of Kitchener.

Thousands of thousands of retail merchants throughout Canada, especially in the smaller towns and villages, who were gladly subscribers, or subscribers more, for Victory Bonds, if it were not for the amount of money they are carrying on their books and the uncertainty as to when much of it will be paid. If necessary during the last week of the campaign would make an effort to pay his bill to the local merchant, the latter would be glad to increase his Victory Loan subscription. Patriotism demands it and so does self interest, for only by a heavy over-subscription of the Victory Bonds issue can the prosperity of Canada's population be assured.

It is Mr. Robert Ross, Prime Minister, has handed out the following statement: "It is the intention of the Government that the service of a member or members of any family during the present war, shall be taken fully into account in considering the exemption of other members of the same family from compulsory service. The instructions of the Military Service Council to the Tribunals are along this line, and in case any Tribunal or Appellate Tribunal should fail to act accordingly the Minister of Militia and Defence, under the powers vested in him, will discharge from military service members of any family to whom exemption has been improperly refused."

The Election campaign is on in earnest in this country. Public meetings are being held throughout the riding and the interest in the coming election is growing. For the most part the old party lines are as clearly marked as usual. Dr. Apfordon, the Conservative Unionist candidate, is receiving the support of the Conservatives with very little exception. Mr. Gregory, the Laurier Liberal nominee, is reported as feeling a growing confidence on the success of his candidature. Sir Robert Borden the Premier, is billed to speak in Milton to-day in behalf of Dr. Anderson, and Mr. Gregory has had E. Hestley Stewart, K. C., M. P. P. speaking in his interests in several places.

CHEWSON'S CORNERS

Messrs. McAlpine are in this neighborhood this week finishing up the season's business here. Mr. Fred Clarke, Expressing, has rented Mr. A. B. Murray's farm, Mr. and Mrs. Clarke will be cordially welcomed to our neighborhood. Mr. and Mrs. Murray and Miss Jessie will retire to a well earned rest from farm life.

Mrs. W. A. Murray spent last week with friends in Toronto.
AT GUELPH NEXT WEEK
The Winter Fair opens Dec. 2nd and on this date Messrs. & Richards announce the start of an immense sale of Pumps, Organs, Talking Machines at about half their original prices. Sheet Music, Yarns, etc., will be reduced. This is a rare opportunity to get a bargain. The Fair will be held at the Guelph Factory Branch Store just above the Post Office.

No, Condon, a measles afflict does not always lead to matrimony. Patriotism and politics travel hand in hand only once in a while. "Big head" is a chronic disease with many a man who wears a small hat.

WAS IN RUSSIA EARLY IN THE WAR, BUT LATELY SERVED IN FRANCE

Pte. J. L. CRIPPS HOME AGAIN
Pte. J. L. Cripps, whose mother, brother and sister, reside here, but who has made his home at Vancouver for a number of years, writes the Fax from Quebec on the 19th inst. Pte. Cripps spent some time in Russia in the early months of the war where he was engaged in railway construction. During the past year he has been in France with a construction battalion.

Dear Mr. Moore: Quebec, Nov. 19th, 1917.
I take this moment of letting my friends and relatives at Acton know of my return so far from this awful war, and to express my gratitude that I have been spared the fate of many men who have been at the front.
I shall be glad to reach the end of my journey where I shall meet my own dear one in our own home, which appears to me now more fully than ever before. I think of my mother and British Columbia will seem brighter than ever, and you know I always had a good word for our great and growing city, with all its advantages and the natural resources of its surroundings.

I would like to tell you something of my experiences in the army, but I could not ask you for space to report the things which other soldiers have told in the Fax. I am so often. I might say that when a boy I used to pray that some day I might see some of this great world, away from home surroundings. My prayers have surely been answered during the past two or three years to a large extent.
I trust the time is not far away when this awful war will be at an end and there will be peace once more.
Kind regards to all old friends and a Merry Christmas to you all.
Hollyburn West, J. L. CRIPPS, Vancouver B. C.

OBITUARY

JAMES EDWIN SMITH
The sad news came to Mrs. C. R. Smith, the widow, mother, of the sudden death at Cleveland, Ohio, of her second son, James Edwin on Saturday. Death came under rather distressing conditions. Mrs. Smith, who is in poor health, had gone to Cleveland to spend the winter with her sister there. The home at Cleveland had been closed and Mr. Smith was living in one of the hotels. He was a prominent Mason and the business of that society look charge of the remains and supervised the funeral. James Edwin Smith was born in Acton and spent his boyhood days here. When a young man he went to Toledo, Ohio, where he learned the lithographing business. For a quarter of a century he was engaged in this business at Toledo and Cleveland. Mr. Smith, who was accompanied by Mrs. Smith, spent a month or so with his mother here a couple of years ago. Much sympathy will be felt for his bereaved wife, and his mother here, who in her declining years this great sorrow very keenly indeed. Interment was made at Toledo.

GRACE AGNEW
In the death of Miss Grace Agnew, beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Agnew, of this district, there has passed to life everlasting a young girl, who for years has commanded the sympathy, admiration and respect of friends and neighbors because of her patriotic sentiments, and the sweetness of her disposition. Among her companions she was a general favorite and loved by all. Although a sufferer for years, she bore the expression of one who had caught the reflection of "the gleam, the light that never was on sea or land." Last winter she went through a severe but successful operation and to all appearances was making sound progress toward perfect health. Suddenly illness came, there was a two weeks' battle for the victory, then, trusting in the Divine One she passed from Death unto Life, in her twentieth year. She leaves to mourn her loss, a loving father and mother, one brother, Robert, and a sister, Mrs. Cecil Jackson. The funeral will be held on Saturday, the service being conducted by Rev. D. H. Higgs assisted by Rev. H. M. Hansen. Interment was made in Riverside Cemetery.—Hartley, Man. Star. Grace will be remembered as a wee girl in Acton, her birthplace, when everybody loved, and especially her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Agnew. The friends here sympathize deeply with Mr. and Mrs. Agnew and family in the loss of this dear one from the family circle.

Farmers Like The Toronto Daily Star

They like it, because it is a real up-to-the-minute newspaper. And they like it even more, because it helps them to make money, by giving them the market quotations while prices are still "hot."

You get the live stock, grain, and produce market reports from Toronto, Montreal, Buffalo, Chicago, and Winnipeg from twelve hours to one full day ahead of your receiving the same quotations in the next morning's papers.

And you know how often you have said to yourself, "If I had known earlier just how the market was going, I could have made money."

In addition to its splendid market service, the Toronto "Daily Star" gives you the most comprehensive war and general news service obtainable through any daily paper in Canada.

Then, too, there are pages to interest the women and the children, and a good comic cartoon series.

In fact the Toronto "Daily Star" is just such a newspaper as a farmer who is interested in the world news likes to read, and he eventually comes to regard it as the inseparable companion of his leisure hours.

Subscribe for it To-day

We guarantee that you will thoroughly enjoy it. Send your subscription direct to this office, or through the publisher of your local newspaper.
