BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS

The wholesalers are gradually reducing the price of sugar... Annual meeting of the Acton Fall Fair... The turnip buyers are now paying 25c per basket delivered at Acton...

NEWS OF LOCAL IMPORT

Knox Church Anniversary... The annual congregational meeting of Knox Church will be held on Thursday evening, 24th inst., at 8 o'clock.

Israel's Righteous Conditions... A letter received yesterday from Mrs. Elizabeth Gray, Toronto, says: "I have been in Acton on Tuesday evening to attend the Young People's Guild of Knox Church."

An Indigent Elderly Lady... A letter received yesterday from Mrs. Elizabeth Gray, Toronto, says: "I have been in Acton on Tuesday evening to attend the Young People's Guild of Knox Church."

A Dainty Meat Shop... The new meat shop on Mill Street has been transformed into a dainty meat shop. The white enamel counters, shining and fittings, and the neatly contrasting ceiling and walls of buff give the premises of Acton's latest business in meat and provisions a most attractive appearance.

Celebrating the Austrian New Year... Our Austrian residents spent the first part of the week in celebrating their New Year. One of them, Martin Gollan, who has been here for three or four years, has been celebrating the day of a consignment of liquor he received from Montreal last Friday.

The work of the rural mail carriers is not much to be envied these days. Saturday was a trying day indeed, and on Monday and Tuesday the roads were impassable in many places.

The new 11.00 bills, bearing the portrait of the Duchess of Devonshire on the face and an engraving of the parliament buildings, are very pretty. Get all you can of them.

In nearly every home a portion of the refuse from kitchens might be used as food for hogs. In these days of stress and shortage, close attention should be paid to the utilization of garbage for this purpose.

Following the suggestion of the Deputy Minister of Agriculture for British Columbia, the city council of New Westminster has decided to amend the by-laws so as to permit of keeping hogs within the city limits under proper conditions.

If you are a business or professional man you can help to solve the problem of increased production by taking a keen interest in the efforts of the community and by aiding or participating in any organization to stimulate food production.

The British Government has issued a proclamation which prohibits the sending through the mails of newspapers, except in single copies. Don't send bundles of newspapers to the boys at the front. Send each in a separate wrapper.

Erin Township Council for this year is as follows: Reeve, Alex. McKinnon; Deputy Reeve, Jas. Milroy; Councillors, George Bryan, Wesley Leeson, H. W. T. H. Heavick, who was Deputy Reeve last year, but who is now a resident of Acton.

Among those who were startled through the rattling of railway trains were H. H. Holmes, agent of T. R. who made a prolonged visit to the county town from Friday until Monday night; and Mr. J. M. Macdonald, who had a pleasant but unexpected visit with Acton friends during a like period.

Crusely to animals to the charge against Malcolm McCullum, of Norway, against whom Inspector Bullen of the Humana Society, secured an information last week. McCullum, it is alleged, allowed fourteen cows to wander about Norway during the recent cold spell without shelter or food. One cow was frozen to death and the others were severely constitution.

NASSAGAWEVA The roads in this vicinity were all completely tied up with Saturday's storm and residents claim traffic was never so completely blocked.

Services in Lebanon, Madam and at Corwin were cancelled last Sunday owing to the blocked roads.

Nassagaweva Council, which was to have met on Monday, was forced to postpone the inaugural session, owing to the snow blockade.

Herman J. Barbeau held a most successful clearing sale last Tuesday. The proceeds totaled over $2,000.

Rural mail routes were completely tied up from Friday until Tuesday so mail was delayed.

CHURCHILL There was very little traffic on the roads in these parts on Saturday, nor for two or three days after the big storm.

Warm brothers will hold a sale of surplus stock on Thursday, February 7. They have a fine lot of young cattle to dispose of.

The funeral of Mrs. Maud Kennedy, of the fifth line, took place last Thursday.

"Line's busy," said the central operator this morning when a telephone patron in this section tried to call a neighbor on the wire. "It has been busy for about half a hour now," was the answer to the query. "Why can't I get my party?" "Oh," said the telephone girl, "Mrs. A. is just paying her mother, Mrs. B. is a telephone visit."

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Mabel Hinchman visited her sister, Miss Graybill, at Waterloo last week.

Mrs. Clara E. Hinchman, of New-Ton Brook, is spending a few days at Mr. A. E. Nichol's.

Mrs. Geo. Fraser and Mrs. James Clarke, of Hamilton, are in town for a few days at the residence of Mr. W. J. Woodcock.

Mr. Harry G. Henson, of Toronto, visited his sister, Miss Henson, at Bower Avenue, last week.

Miss Margaret Symon has gone to Toronto to take a business course at one of the colleges there.

Mrs. Gordon Hayward and Miss DeLima, of Toronto, were guests during the week at Mr. W. J. Woodcock's.

Mr. J. W. J. Woodcock, of Acton, is spending the winter at the home of her son, Mr. J. W. J. Woodcock, at Waterloo, Ontario.

Miss Laura Wilson went to Toronto for a week-end visit. It was prolonged owing to the storm, but was pleasantly spent.

Mr. W. J. Carnahan, of Holland, Miss, is spending a month or so with his brother, Mr. David Carnahan, and other friends in Acton and vicinity.

Rev. M. E. Coxworth, B. A., LL.D., of Acton, has been invited to succeed Rev. W. J. Smith, B. A., as pastor of the Methodist Church, Oakville, after his conference.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McLaughlin, who have been visiting Mrs. D. A. (Hudson) and Mrs. H. Rawson, left last week for Guelph and Missagaweva to visit relatives there.

Miss Laura Coleman, daughter of Mr. Wm. Coleman, of Heppner, formerly of Acton, is now assistant superintendent of the General Hospital at the Methodist Hospital, Guelph, and is on the holidays with her cousin, Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Brown, B. A., at Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. LePave, 237 Grandview Road, Toronto, announced the engagement of their daughter, Lillian Irene, to Gunner Brydon C. Wood, of the 27th Battery, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wood, of Sydney, Australia, the marriage to take place quietly this week.

ROCKWOOD The West Enders hockey team of Guelph, came to Rockwood last Thursday night, where they played the village team and were defeated by a score of 4 to 3.

Since the price of turkeys got up to a point where it was impossible for the farmers here to bring them to market more freely.

DUBLIN If farmers generally had put in as strenuous a day in making the roads passable after the big storm as a number of those of the section line between Speyside and Acton, highway traffic would be more comfortable on some of our roads than it is to-day.

There were few church-goers from this section last Sunday. The roads were simply impassable even to the most devout.

One of our residents can recall as having a storm as was that of Saturday and Sunday.

MILTON Mr. Arthur Mayes, a returned soldier, has been appointed warden of the County Jail, to succeed Mr. W. H. Wood, who has been removed to Acton, where he has gone into business.

The public school reopened on Monday before the Christmas holidays. The boiler of the steam heating plant was burst by frost. An expert boiler maker had to be sent for to make the necessary repairs.

The fuel shortage has been severe. There is very little coal in town and poor prospects for a further supply. Some coal is being delivered for which $10 per cord is being asked.

The L. O. D. E. is arranging for a rummage sale on Tuesday during the week with the Division Court Circuit.

Mr. Howard Harrison, an old Milton school boy and son of the late Daniel Harrison, has lately returned from England. He was in Europe when war broke out, enlisted at once, and was promoted to the rank of major and has had charge of a military hospital over since—Champion.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Harrop left on Monday for St. Petersburg, Florida, where they will spend the winter. The G. T. H. has cut off two trains and the service is now rather inconvenient.

The Red Cross is holding a whirlwind campaign for soldiers' socks. A similar effort last spring brought in over 500 pairs.

Dollar Day!

Have You heard of It?

Guelph's great Dollar Day, a yearly event when all the stores in the city feature values that are unheard of at any other time in the year, and when all the people in the city turn out to reap an unusual harvest of savings.

There's a mysterious Mr. Dollar—a reward offered by the the Guelph Mercury for catching him—and a general good and profitable time to be spent by all.

No better day in the year to come to Guelph for bargain shopping.

No better place in Guelph to find big bargains than at the big store—MACDONALD'S—just opposite the G. T. R. station and the City Hall.

Special Dollar Day Bargains in every department of this big Departmental Store.
