By dawn now,
in sugar season in over,
the gardening weather this is when you're fishing for suckers.

-Not much maple syrup offered yet, but prices hover about the same again.

Successful of the grass fires. They are still yet beyond control.

Up the boulevard facing your home as well as the lawn.

Some venturesome gardeners have already planted early potatoes.

The farmers continue to keep their electric chopping mill very busy.

April showers were never more welcome than those which came this week.

-Did you stay up until midnight on Saturday to turn your clock on an hour?

Cultivate the vacant lots every where against the threatened food shortage.

The buds on the lilacs, soft maples and others of the softer wooded trees are bursting.

Received a fair quota of the District Institute at Elzevir yesterday.

-Mr. J. A. Tracy, Township Clerk, has been appointed Labor Registrar for the Township of Elzevir.

-For riding his bicycle on the pavement, Floyd, Leonard Bain was fined $2.00 and costs on Saturday.

"Cannot go along without the Press." Yours, A. H. B., Erin, Ont.

The weather authorities claim this to be the earliest spring in seventy years. Dumper crops are looked for.

-J. H. Mackenzie has two cars on the tracks here. Orders placed with Norman McLeod will be filled in rotation.

Sunday was a glorious April day, with temperature between sixty and seventy-five, day, and bright sun, shining prevailing.

-With sugar so scarce and so dear what is to become of the succulent rhubarb so generally craved at this season of the year.

-Early to bed, early to rise, may not be more popular than of years, but it's also imperative under the daylight saving laws.

an hour do it to-day and forget the standard time for the next six months.
We are all supposed to live up to "National Time."

It's a violation of the law to hang on to a bicycle while riding a bicycle. For his own protection motor driver may order you off, or lay information against you.

Much indignation exists among the residents of Guelph over the action of Assemblies of God members Hastings in raising all the assessments to the full value of the property.

The platform at the Toronto Suburban station has been enlarged and is now more safe and convenient.
Electric signs and telephones have been installed in the station.

Numerous good news items are to be seen here this spring, mainly owned by farmers. This is as it should be.
To the farmer the motor car is a real labor saving and time saving institution.
