AFTER THE RAIN

After the rain how radiant Nature seems.
How green the fields how blue the morning sky.
How fresh the air how sweet the smell of flowers.
How bright the sun how clear the sky.
How fresh the air how full of vital force.
You, life is breathing from the very air.
All earth renewed because the fruitful rain.
Of numerous blessings from the hand of God.

Let us be glad and thankful after rain.
The light of heaven smiles on this earth.
That drops away low thoughts that blind and haze.
And gives each noble impulse second birth.

Twenty Years Ago

From the Issue of the Free Press of Thursday, June 9, 1908

Garden parties are now on the tap. June roses are most out in their usual fragrance and beauty.

J. P. Worden, the old reliable, has opened a barber shop in Mrs. Adams' late stand.

Another pleasant bicycle run was held on Monday evening. The cyclists were the guests of the Mincey family. An interesting Mt. Forest photograph was made by Mrs. Adams.

"Early to bed, early to rise, don't get tired or overwrought, is the motto preached for business in the merchants' Association in New York."

Influenced from the various resolutions were flocking to Oakville to attend the County Teachers' Convention on Monday evening, to Mr. and Mrs. Lymon H. Luttrell, of the Baptist Church, Georgetown.
