

THURSDAY, JULY 26, 1918

A VEGETARIAN SONG

Bring a song of sweet corn,
A garden full of plants
And twenty eggplants
Growing in the yard.

BETTER DAYS AHEAD

The people who deny this, and declare as some do, that the world is getting worse and worse are simply ignorant of the facts. A little knowledge of history would be the speediest cure for that considerable class of well-meaning folk who are perpetually moaning and groaning over the "woes of the vanished years."

The world of men, individually and in groups is getting better, kinder, more generous. The church is awakening to its social obligation as never before.

Open cruelty and oppression are becoming impossible. Employers are growing every day more considerate of their laboring people. Approved public sentiment has come to be a mighty engine for the suppression of those abuses by which men and women are deprived of the common rights of humanity.

Children Cry For FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Go barefoot this summer and help the fatherland, is the latest patriotic catchword to be placarded in Germany.

Choked for Air. Some little irritant because lodged in the bronchial tubes causes asthma. Nothing offers quite such quick and positive relief as Dr. J. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy.

OUTDOOR LIFE

Let outdoor life at this season claim all one's leisure moments. The house is shut out and the subject to the porch and yard.

These pests attack the tender lining of the intestines and if left to pursue their ravages undisturbed will ultimately perforate the wall.

EXPERIENCED

The head of the household wore a worried, dark look when he beheld the numerous bills that confronted him.

Children Cry For FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

An Irish girl called at Mrs. Green's to get the place as cook.

Nearly all children are subject to worms from infancy to old age.

RABBIT WOOL

Habit hair is supplanting wool in the felt hat making industry of Australia.

Why suffer from corns when they can be painlessly removed out by using Mollin's Corn Cure.

GUNNERS' EARS

The relative efficiency of various devices for preventing injuries to the ears has been tested by the British War Office.

WHAT THE OEA DOES FOR US

Elephantus may that in the waters of the sea are to be found solutions of the most precious metals as well as salt.

A WORD FOR MOTHERS

It is wrong for mothers to neglect their babies and pains and suffer in silence.

TO TAKE TO COVER

There is an organization of motor car owners in London, England, which has rendered valuable service to the public in connection with the raids of the German air pirates.

HE KNEW THE PLACE

"Now, boys," said the teacher in the juvenile Sunday school class, "our lesson to-day teaches us that if we are good while here on earth, we will go to a place of everlasting bliss."

Quit Laxatives, Purges; Try NR

It is a mistake to continually dose your system with cathartics and purges.

SOLDIERS PRODUCING FOOD

The food shortage is recognized as so serious in Europe that the soldiers are cultivating 50,000 acres between the lines in France.

TOO LITERAL

A tradesman in a certain town put a box outside his shop one day, labelled "For the Blind." A few weeks afterwards the box disappeared.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children In Use For Over 30 Years Always bears Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

MOTORISTS HAVE RIGHT OF WAY

The Municipal World gives particular notice of a case of interest to automobile drivers.

CHILDREN CRY FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

How it happened. The chairman of the English lecture bureau, Foster Fraser, insists that whatever may be said of Englandmen in general the British Tommy certainly is not.

OTHERS OF THE ILK

With what seems sometimes to be a perverse disregard for the fitness of things, comical incidents have a way of happening with inappropriately frequency at those most pathetic of institutions, asylums for the insane.

A LUCKY MAN

"I know just about everybody in this town," remarked the prominent citizen.

MOTORCYCLES IN WAR

From the arrival of the British expeditionary force in Belgium in the late summer of 1914 down to the present time the motorcycle has steadily gained in importance in different branches of the military service.

A HELPFUL CLUE

A wild-eyed and dishevelled-looking woman burst into the local police station.

Eat less Bread

Perhaps you haven't been thinking much about it—just taking for granted that $1.50 a year is a right price for the FREE PRESS year after year.

Can you think of any other commodity except newspapers and their like whose price has remained unchanged and unchanging year after year?

A CORD OF WOOD FOR $1.50 A BUSHEL OF WHEAT FOR 50 CENTS A COMMON FOWL FOR 25 CENTS A DOZEN OF EGGS FOR 10 CENTS A POUND OF BUTTER FOR 12 CENTS A COW FOR $25

ACTON BAKERY

To facilitate the handling of the products of our Bakery and to make it more convenient for our customers we have secured the shop next to Wiles' Confectionery where supplies of our

War Bread

War has brought to a crisis a condition of things which has vexed publishers for years; the selling-price of their newspapers. It has sent prices of paper, ink, type and supplies skyward. It is costing us many more dollars a week now to produce the FREE PRESS than before the outbreak of war.

SAVING METAL

Saving metal is easy, if the worker knows just how to do it; otherwise the chief result is many an amateur craftsman has discovered, in broken blades.

CHILDREN CRY FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

How it happened. The chairman of the English lecture bureau, Foster Fraser, insists that whatever may be said of Englandmen in general the British Tommy certainly is not.

OTHERS OF THE ILK

With what seems sometimes to be a perverse disregard for the fitness of things, comical incidents have a way of happening with inappropriately frequency at those most pathetic of institutions, asylums for the insane.

A LUCKY MAN

"I know just about everybody in this town," remarked the prominent citizen.

MOTORCYCLES IN WAR

From the arrival of the British expeditionary force in Belgium in the late summer of 1914 down to the present time the motorcycle has steadily gained in importance in different branches of the military service.

A HELPFUL CLUE

A wild-eyed and dishevelled-looking woman burst into the local police station.

Eat less Bread

Perhaps you haven't been thinking much about it—just taking for granted that $1.50 a year is a right price for the FREE PRESS year after year.

Can you think of any other commodity except newspapers and their like whose price has remained unchanged and unchanging year after year?

A CORD OF WOOD FOR $1.50 A BUSHEL OF WHEAT FOR 50 CENTS A COMMON FOWL FOR 25 CENTS A DOZEN OF EGGS FOR 10 CENTS A POUND OF BUTTER FOR 12 CENTS A COW FOR $25

ACTON BAKERY

To facilitate the handling of the products of our Bakery and to make it more convenient for our customers we have secured the shop next to Wiles' Confectionery where supplies of our

War Bread

War has brought to a crisis a condition of things which has vexed publishers for years; the selling-price of their newspapers. It has sent prices of paper, ink, type and supplies skyward. It is costing us many more dollars a week now to produce the FREE PRESS than before the outbreak of war.

SAVING METAL

Saving metal is easy, if the worker knows just how to do it; otherwise the chief result is many an amateur craftsman has discovered, in broken blades.

CHILDREN CRY FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

How it happened. The chairman of the English lecture bureau, Foster Fraser, insists that whatever may be said of Englandmen in general the British Tommy certainly is not.

OTHERS OF THE ILK

With what seems sometimes to be a perverse disregard for the fitness of things, comical incidents have a way of happening with inappropriately frequency at those most pathetic of institutions, asylums for the insane.

A LUCKY MAN

"I know just about everybody in this town," remarked the prominent citizen.

MOTORCYCLES IN WAR

From the arrival of the British expeditionary force in Belgium in the late summer of 1914 down to the present time the motorcycle has steadily gained in importance in different branches of the military service.

A HELPFUL CLUE

A wild-eyed and dishevelled-looking woman burst into the local police station.

Eat less Bread

Perhaps you haven't been thinking much about it—just taking for granted that $1.50 a year is a right price for the FREE PRESS year after year.

Can you think of any other commodity except newspapers and their like whose price has remained unchanged and unchanging year after year?

A CORD OF WOOD FOR $1.50 A BUSHEL OF WHEAT FOR 50 CENTS A COMMON FOWL FOR 25 CENTS A DOZEN OF EGGS FOR 10 CENTS A POUND OF BUTTER FOR 12 CENTS A COW FOR $25

ACTON BAKERY

To facilitate the handling of the products of our Bakery and to make it more convenient for our customers we have secured the shop next to Wiles' Confectionery where supplies of our

War Bread

War has brought to a crisis a condition of things which has vexed publishers for years; the selling-price of their newspapers. It has sent prices of paper, ink, type and supplies skyward. It is costing us many more dollars a week now to produce the FREE PRESS than before the outbreak of war.

SAVING METAL

Saving metal is easy, if the worker knows just how to do it; otherwise the chief result is many an amateur craftsman has discovered, in broken blades.

CHILDREN CRY FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

How it happened. The chairman of the English lecture bureau, Foster Fraser, insists that whatever may be said of Englandmen in general the British Tommy certainly is not.

OTHERS OF THE ILK

With what seems sometimes to be a perverse disregard for the fitness of things, comical incidents have a way of happening with inappropriately frequency at those most pathetic of institutions, asylums for the insane.

A LUCKY MAN

"I know just about everybody in this town," remarked the prominent citizen.

MOTORCYCLES IN WAR

From the arrival of the British expeditionary force in Belgium in the late summer of 1914 down to the present time the motorcycle has steadily gained in importance in different branches of the military service.

A HELPFUL CLUE

A wild-eyed and dishevelled-looking woman burst into the local police station.

Eat less Bread

Perhaps you haven't been thinking much about it—just taking for granted that $1.50 a year is a right price for the FREE PRESS year after year.

Can you think of any other commodity except newspapers and their like whose price has remained unchanged and unchanging year after year?

A CORD OF WOOD FOR $1.50 A BUSHEL OF WHEAT FOR 50 CENTS A COMMON FOWL FOR 25 CENTS A DOZEN OF EGGS FOR 10 CENTS A POUND OF BUTTER FOR 12 CENTS A COW FOR $25

ACTON BAKERY

To facilitate the handling of the products of our Bakery and to make it more convenient for our customers we have secured the shop next to Wiles' Confectionery where supplies of our

War Bread

War has brought to a crisis a condition of things which has vexed publishers for years; the selling-price of their newspapers. It has sent prices of paper, ink, type and supplies skyward. It is costing us many more dollars a week now to produce the FREE PRESS than before the outbreak of war.

SAVING METAL

Saving metal is easy, if the worker knows just how to do it; otherwise the chief result is many an amateur craftsman has discovered, in broken blades.

CHILDREN CRY FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

How it happened. The chairman of the English lecture bureau, Foster Fraser, insists that whatever may be said of Englandmen in general the British Tommy certainly is not.

OTHERS OF THE ILK

With what seems sometimes to be a perverse disregard for the fitness of things, comical incidents have a way of happening with inappropriately frequency at those most pathetic of institutions, asylums for the insane.

A LUCKY MAN

"I know just about everybody in this town," remarked the prominent citizen.

MOTORCYCLES IN WAR

From the arrival of the British expeditionary force in Belgium in the late summer of 1914 down to the present time the motorcycle has steadily gained in importance in different branches of the military service.

A HELPFUL CLUE

A wild-eyed and dishevelled-looking woman burst into the local police station.

Eat less Bread

Perhaps you haven't been thinking much about it—just taking for granted that $1.50 a year is a right price for the FREE PRESS year after year.

Can you think of any other commodity except newspapers and their like whose price has remained unchanged and unchanging year after year?

A CORD OF WOOD FOR $1.50 A BUSHEL OF WHEAT FOR 50 CENTS A COMMON FOWL FOR 25 CENTS A DOZEN OF EGGS FOR 10 CENTS A POUND OF BUTTER FOR 12 CENTS A COW FOR $25

ACTON BAKERY

To facilitate the handling of the products of our Bakery and to make it more convenient for our customers we have secured the shop next to Wiles' Confectionery where supplies of our

War Bread

War has brought to a crisis a condition of things which has vexed publishers for years; the selling-price of their newspapers. It has sent prices of paper, ink, type and supplies skyward. It is costing us many more dollars a week now to produce the FREE PRESS than before the outbreak of war.

SAVING METAL

Saving metal is easy, if the worker knows just how to do it; otherwise the chief result is many an amateur craftsman has discovered, in broken blades.

CHILDREN CRY FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

How it happened. The chairman of the English lecture bureau, Foster Fraser, insists that whatever may be said of Englandmen in general the British Tommy certainly is not.

OTHERS OF THE ILK

With what seems sometimes to be a perverse disregard for the fitness of things, comical incidents have a way of happening with inappropriately frequency at those most pathetic of institutions, asylums for the insane.

A LUCKY MAN

"I know just about everybody in this town," remarked the prominent citizen.

MOTORCYCLES IN WAR

From the arrival of the British expeditionary force in Belgium in the late summer of 1914 down to the present time the motorcycle has steadily gained in importance in different branches of the military service.

A HELPFUL CLUE

A wild-eyed and dishevelled-looking woman burst into the local police station.

Eat less Bread

Perhaps you haven't been thinking much about it—just taking for granted that $1.50 a year is a right price for the FREE PRESS year after year.

Can you think of any other commodity except newspapers and their like whose price has remained unchanged and unchanging year after year?

A CORD OF WOOD FOR $1.50 A BUSHEL OF WHEAT FOR 50 CENTS A COMMON FOWL FOR 25 CENTS A DOZEN OF EGGS FOR 10 CENTS A POUND OF BUTTER FOR 12 CENTS A COW FOR $25

ACTON BAKERY

To facilitate the handling of the products of our Bakery and to make it more convenient for our customers we have secured the shop next to Wiles' Confectionery where supplies of our

War Bread

War has brought to a crisis a condition of things which has vexed publishers for years; the selling-price of their newspapers. It has sent prices of paper, ink, type and supplies skyward. It is costing us many more dollars a week now to produce the FREE PRESS than before the outbreak of war.

PATENTS PROMPTLY SECURED

264 University Ave. MONTREAL

Railway Time Tables AT ACTON. Grand Trunk Railway System. Going West. No. 22, 8:12 a.m.

Toronto Suburban Electric Railway. Going West. 9:17 a.m. Daily except Sunday.

Acton Livery and BUS LINE. I solicit with confidence the patronage of the public.

L. E. Atkinson. ACTON ONTARIO

When You Need BOOTS SHOES. At any Time.

BUY FROM W. WILLIAMS. ACTON ONTARIO. FAMOUS FOR Satisfactory Footwear REASONABLE PRICES

Grain Chopping. Well Done and Quickly at only 5 cents per bag. HARRIS & CO., Limited ROCKWOOD ONTARIO

ACTON BAKERY. M. EDWARDS & CO. MILL STREET ACTON

War Bread. Brown Bread. Tea Biscuits. Cakes, Buns and Scones. May Always be Secured.

WEDDING CAKES A SPECIALTY. M. EDWARDS & CO.

PATENTS PROMPTLY SECURED. 264 University Ave. MONTREAL