COURTESY
How sweet and gracious, even in common speech, is that fine phrase which men call "courtesy"! Wholesome air and genial as the light, it permeates every office as breath of heaven, it transmutes alone into trusting smiles, and gives its owner passport round the globe.—James T. Fields.

ENTHUSIASM
Don't be a dead man. Remember you don't have to be placed in a coffin to be dead. Lots of dead men walk around for years.
Get your system full of enthusiasm, and you will not only make something of yourself, but you will make glad the heart of the man who pays you to represent him.
Enthusiasm has more to do with closing sales than anything under the sun. It makes the other fellow feel that you yourself really believe what you are trying to make him believe.
You will work ten times as hard and accomplish one hundred times as much and feel one-tenth as tired when you work with enthusiasm. It is the greatest side-partner, the great result-getter the world has ever seen, and it is so inexpensive that every man can get tons of it without paying a cent down.
If you want to radiate conviction, if you want your arguments to not only stick, but stick well enough to enable you to haul in your catch, you must vibrate with enthusiasm.
Remember that magic word, "Enthusiasm."
Try it, boys, and let us hear from you as to results.—C. A. Penny.

IF I WERE YOU, MY BOY
I would learn to be polite to everybody.
I wouldn't let any other boy get ahead of me in my studies.
I wouldn't go in the company of bad boys who use bad language.
I would see if I couldn't get people to like me, by being civil to everybody.
I would never make fun of children because they were not nicely dressed.
I wouldn't abuse little boys who had no big brother to be afraid of.
I would keep my hands and face clean and hair brushed without being told to do so.
I wouldn't get sulky and pout whenever I couldn't have my way about anything.
I wouldn't conclude that I knew more than my father before I had been sixty miles from home.
I wouldn't be ashamed to do right anywhere. I wouldn't do anything that I would not be willing for everybody to know.
I would try to learn something useful every day, and whenever I saw anything made, I would watch and see how it was done.—Sublet.

YOU ARE YOUR OWN MASTER UP TO A CERTAIN POINT
Some young people have an idea that their conduct is their own business. What they do concerns themselves alone. But all the trend of the times is against such suppositions. You have no right to maintain on your premises anything that interferes with the health or the comfort of your neighbors. It makes no difference that you own the land or that you pay the taxes. And the same rule applies to conduct. You are your own master up to the point that your actions have a harmful effect on someone else. Every step ahead in civilization emphasizes the thought that we cannot live or die to ourselves, that all belong to each and each to all.

Thousands of mothers can testify to the virtue of Mother Gray's Worm Expeller, because they know from experience how useful it is.
Wants are disfigurements that disappear when treated with Holloway's Corn Cure.

CHILDREN CRY FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA
Many children die from the assaults of worms, and the first care of mothers should be to see that their infants are free from these pests. A vermifuge that can be depended on is Miller's Worm Expeller. They will not only expel worms from the system, but act as a health-giving medicine and a remedy for many of the ailments that beset infants, strengthening them and endangering their lives.
INDISPUTABLY A PHENOMENON
"What is a phenomenon?" asked one workman of another. This enlightening definition is quoted in Young's Magazine:
"It is like this: Suppose you were to go out into the country and see a field of tulips growing."
"Yes."
"Well, that wouldn't be a phenomenon."
"No, that's quite clear," agreed the other man.
"But suppose you were to see a lark singing away up in the sky."
"Yes."
"Well, that wouldn't be a phenomenon."
"But that also seems clear."
"But imagine there is a bull in the field."
"Well, that wouldn't be a phenomenon."
"No."
"Now, now, look here. Suppose you saw that bull sitting on them tulips and whistling like a lark—well, that would be a phenomenon."
CARRIED LANTERNS
A question as to whether mosquitoes are able to see in the dark remains a contributor to no such doubts on the question. He and a companion occupied the same room one night and left the gas burning low when they retired. Being annoyed with mosquitoes, they decided as a protection against the pest to extinguish the light entirely. Presently some lightning bugs began slipping about the room, and the Irishman, noticing this, woke his companion and whispered: "It's no use, Mike; see the devils now; they have lanterns looking for us."

To win this war every ounce of the strength of each of the allied nations must be put forth to meet the organized, trained and disciplined efficiency of the Central Powers—that gigantic, ruthless force which is the result of fifty years of planning and preparation.

And every ounce of every allied nation's strength is in the hands and brains and hearts of the individuals of each nation, because they are free peoples.

Now the individuals of each nation must live as well as fight, therefore a proportion of the effort and material of each nation must be diverted from war purposes to living necessities.

So the less each individual takes for himself or herself for personal use the more effort will there be left for fighting and winning the war.

Every cent you spend represents that much effort because somebody must do something for you in order to earn that cent—somebody's effort must be given to you instead of to the war.

Therefore the less you spend—the less of somebody's effort you take for your individual use—the more will you leave in the national surplus for war effort.

The war can be won only by the surplus strength of the allied nations. The money each individual saves represents that surplus strength.

So the truly loyal Canadian will use less, spend less, and save more, to help to win the war.

THE BETTER WAY
"They used to quarrel a great deal."
"Yes, but they're getting along much better now."
"What happened?"
"Nothing. He just discovered that instead of arguing it was easier and quicker to admit everything and ask forgiveness."

Relief for the Depressed—Physical and mental depression usually have their origin in a disordered state of the stomach and liver, as when these organs are deranged in their action the whole system is affected. Try Farnell's Vegetable Pills. These remove the digestive processes, not beneficially on the nerves and restore the spirits as no other pills will. They are cheap, simple and sure, and the effects are lasting.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE
Need Help to Pass the Crisis Safely—Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Can be Relied Upon.
Urbana, Ill.—"During Change of Life, in addition to its annoying symptoms, I had an attack of grippe which lasted all winter and left me in a weakened condition. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it did for women passing through the Change of Life, so I bought a bottle. I began to gain strength and the annoying symptoms disappeared. I cannot recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly to women passing through the Change of Life."—Mrs. Frank Hinson, 1814 E. Orchard St., Urbana, Ill.
Women who suffer from nervousness, "heat flashes," headaches, backaches, and "the blues" should try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

DUTCH IN CHURCH

It was one big surprise for everyone in the matchless company when the chaplain at last got Dutch into the church for Sunday services. Dutch is a pretty hard "hemlock"—honest, efficient, but not very careful about his language and more than willing to argue most anyone any time. The chaplain got him one day in a Dutch "spelling" some harness for one of the mules. His line was about like this: "Now, Dutch, I'm going to ask you to come to church Sunday morning. I know you don't want to, but I want you to come as a favor to me. If you were out selling lightning rods you'd at least expect favors to let you put one on his house for a trial. If it wasn't going to cost him anything. Now, we've been good friends ever since I came to the regiment, haven't we?" Dutch admitted they had.
"Good," he said. "Now, I'm dying in an article which I claim will cure a lot of trouble. I'm only asking you to try one sample—just one."
Well, Dutch was in church Sunday. The chaplain had been called away just before service, and a visiting chaplain occupied the pulpit. The rest of the fellows, seeing Dutch "up in front" were glad to have him with them.
The visiting chaplain looked out over the congregation of freshly-shaved, khaki-clad gnomes for some one to lead in prayer.
Sometime his eyes fastened on red-haired Dutch sitting only a few feet away.
"A little congregation of soldiers grow tense as they waited for the chaplain to speak. You could just feel he was going to call on Dutch."
He did.
"Will this young man kindly lead us in prayer?" he asked.
Dutch got up. Every eye was on him. Everyone wondered how he'd make out, being called on like that the first time he had been to church in years.
But Dutch was equal to the emergency.
"Let us have five minutes of silent meditation," said Dutch.

ODD FACTS
Italy occupies the position of the leading motor car exporting nation of Europe. For the first eight months of 1917 her motor exports increased 113.4 per cent, as compared with the corresponding period of 1916, and 107 per cent, as compared with the first eight months of 1915.
Acetylene lamps are the latest device for stimulating the growth of fruit, which is subjected to the light of this gas at least twice the size of those left to the rays of the sun. The experiments which have been taken place in Australia, occupied three months.
Austria, which in twenty-six times larger than the whole of the British Isles, has a population not exceeding that of London.
IT TAKES NERVE
It takes a lot of nerve to stand behind a counter and charge a man two dollars for a necktie when the same stock you were selling off for twenty cents four years ago, and explain to him the advances in price is due to the scarcity of material.
The Baltimore Sun.
For Asthma and Catarrh—It is one of the chief recommendations of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil that it can be used internally with an immense success as it can outwardly. Sufferers from asthma and catarrh will find that the Oil when used according to directions will give immediate relief. Many sufferers from these ailments have found relief in the Oil and have sent testimonials.
A CANNING RECORD
Procure a well-bound, ten-cent note book. Cut pictures of vegetables and fruits from a seed catalogue or magazine and paste a border of these upon the cover. If the cover is not plain, it can easily be removed and a new cover, made of gray or brown mount- ing paper, pasted in its place. Purchase the book, put in a pencil and a new cover, made of gray or brown mount- ing paper, pasted in its place. You Just Try NR For That Indigestion
Get your organs of digestion, assimilation and elimination working in harmony and watch your trouble disappear. NR does it or money back.
One Day's Test Proves NR Best
The stomach only partly digests the food we eat. The process is finished in the intestines where the food is mixed with bile from the liver. It must be plain to any sensible person who realizes this, that the stomach, liver and bowels must work in harmony if digestive troubles are to be avoided or overcome. This fact also explains why sufferers from indigestion, who suffer more or less from headaches, biliousness and constipation. If you are one of the many unfortunate persons who cannot eat without suffering afterward, if you are constipated, have bilious spots, headaches, coated tongue, bad breath, variable appetite, are nervous, lose energy and feel your health slipping away, take this advice and get a box of Nature's Remedy (N.R. Tablets) and try it. You take no risk whatever for Nature's Remedy (N.R. Tablets) is only 25c a box, enough to last twenty-four days and it must help and benefit you to your entire satisfaction or your money back. Five million boxes are used every year—this is the best proof of its medicinal value. Nature's Remedy (N.R. Tablets) is the best thing you can take for biliousness, indigestion and similar complaints. It is sold everywhere and recommended by your druggist.
