Brief Local Items

Light fronts are frequent now. The days are growing perceptibly shorter. "Don't sit up and sit, but get up and sit." Acton Fall Fair is over. It was the best yet. Cakes in being delivered in Guelph in half ton lots. A dollar saved over here helps the boys "over there."

News of Local Import.

Successful Exhibitor of Poultry. At Hamilton Fair last week W. C. Dwyer took 3 male, 1 female, and 3 chicks on his exhibit of ten birds—Langhans, 2 Buff Orpingtons and 4 White Orpingtons. He was also successful at Oakville Fair in about the same ratio.

Methodist Church Services in School Room. At a meeting of the Trustees Board of the Methodist Church on Monday evening it was decided to hold the church services during the winter months in the Sunday School room in order to economize in the matter of fuel in view of a projected coal shortage.

Equipping Fall Fair—Oct. 2nd and 3rd. The Fall Fair at Georgetown will be held on Wednesday and Thursday, 2nd and 3rd of October. The prize list is unusually attractive. All departments are well filled with sections covering fully the stock, grain, fruits, vegetables, ladies' work and bird art classes. The list of special prizes embraces many features of interest.

Rally Day in the Sunday Schools. Next Sunday is Rally Day in the Sunday Schools. This will afford a fine opportunity for fathers and mothers to attend and share by their presence the instruction of the self-sacrificing work begun from week to week in the Sunday Schools by the officers and teachers. Make a point to be present.

Sacramental Services at Knox Church. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be held in Knox Church, next Sunday morning. Services preparatory to communion will be held on Friday evening at 8 o'clock, when Rev. P. Cameron, of Georgetown, will preach. The annual Sunday School Rally will be held on Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance of parents and children.

Rev. Dr. Moore, Toronto, Next Sunday. Rev. Dr. Albert Moore, D. D., head of the Department of Social Service and Secretary of the General Conference of the Methodist Church, will spend next Sunday in the city. He will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist Church and will address the Sunday School at the Rally Day services in the afternoon. Dr. Moore will refer especially to the work of his department at the evening service.

Our "Silent Policeman". The "Keep to the Right" silent policeman at the intersection of Mill and Main streets is rendering traffic there much less likely to accident. A motorist from New York State said to the Chief Patrolman on Sunday that he congratulated Acton's town authorities upon stationing the silent policeman. Acton is the first town we've passed through since we left Niagara Falls where we found this splendid help to safety in driving on the streets.

Another Gasolineless Sunday. Acton motorists were certainly loyal to the Fuel Controller's request last Sunday. A word of the local cars turned during the day. A couple of outside cars drove through town, however. About one o'clock a car containing four men, with no evidence that its being out with a case of gasoline, was stopped by a patrolman on the east at an illegal speed. These violators of public opinion and of the country's needs were subject to numerous rebukes and other penalties that they would not relish.

Inspector Harvey's Home Sadly Bereft. The news came to Mrs. Harvey and family, and especially to their daughter, Annie, on Tuesday morning. The message came that her husband, Mr. A. W. Somerville, had died suddenly at Fort William on Monday. Mr. Somerville was here a few weeks ago to visit Mrs. Somerville, who came home ill with her mother in the spring. He was not feeling very well at the time, but he had been in the city for a number of days and was never anticipated. He was a bright young man and had won a position of honor in the city of Fort William. He had been given charge of their steamship business at Fort William. He was a devoted husband and a loving father. His death is a great loss to his family.

The Havill-Bradbury Nuptials. At St. Jude's Church, Oakville, on Thursday afternoon, September 19, at three o'clock the marriage took place of Valentine, youngest daughter of the late Charles Andrew Bradbury and Mrs. Bradbury, to Frank Elson Havill, of Montreal, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Havill, of Acton. The bride was attended in her travelling suit of brown satinet, with hat to match, and wore a corsage bouquet of sunburst roses. She was given away by her brother, Mr. Elson Havill, of Montreal. Little Helen Hillmer, niece of the bride, was flower girl, and wore white tulle and rose petals hat. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Canon (Capt.) Wasson, and the wedding music was played by Mr. Fletcher, organist of the church. After the ceremony the guests went to the home of the bride's mother, where a buffet luncheon was served. The bride and groom left later for a short trip before proceeding to their home in Montreal.

A Splendid Concert. The concert given under the direction of the Ladies' Aid Society in the Methodist Church last Wednesday evening was an unqualified success. The program was very versatile and very much interesting. The soloists were Mrs. Harold Nichol, and Miss Lillian Anderson, who all much enjoyed, and each was in turn recalled. Mr. Harold Nichol, of Georgetown, N. Y., who was visiting Acton friends, also rendered a couple of songs very acceptably. The trio of Misses Hester and Mason, who are always popular, were received with applause and enthusiasm. Miss Marjorie Topp gave a series of recitations which were exceedingly well rendered. The Misses Mason and the Handley School Orchestra gave an enjoyable recital of instrumental numbers. Mr. H. P. Moore contributed a reading. An address by Canon (Capt.) Wasson, who is now on duty at Montreal, gave a most interesting episode of camp life, and the splendid solo by Mrs. Nichol, who is now from a rural standpoint. As a result of his observation, experience and judgment of the military life of soldiers in the camp is superior to that of civilians. His address was a character most comforting to parents and friends who have sons and relatives in the army. Mr. H. P. Moore, the pastor, acted as a final chairman.

Rev. L. M. Moyer and Mr. J. C. Matthews, Mr. C. E. Bailey, Mr. E. Beavie, Mrs. James Moore and Mrs. Alice Fleury attended the September meeting of the Guelph District of the Methodist Church Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Peters and their son, Willard, of Gloverville, N. Y., who have been on a motor trip through Canada, spent a couple of days in Acton last week. Both Mr. and Mrs. Peters were residents of Acton in their younger days and enjoyed meeting many former friends. Mr. and Mrs. LePage, of Toronto, and Mrs. Isaac Baker, of Watertown, accompanied them on their visit here.

Harvest Home and Thanksgiving Services will be held in Congregational Church on Oct. 13th, when Rev. Dr. McArthur, former pastor, is expected to preach. A week ago Sunday evening, citizens were treated to the spectacular sight of an auto race up through Main Street, endangering the lives of children and others.

While running a press at the Advocate office one day last week, Mr. H. W. Hill had the misfortune to get two of his fingers jammed, which will incapacitate him for some time. Mrs. C. Glanville, who was taken seriously ill, was removed to Orangeville Hospital on Thursday night, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis.

The funeral at Erin of the late Gaiet Harry Creighton Saunders, who lost his life at Lennox on Tuesday, took place from the home of his father, at Erin Friday afternoon, and was very largely attended. A fight on the street on Wednesday evening of last week, brought the combatants to the Police Court, and the end is not yet. The case was adjourned until next Friday—Advocate.

License Inspector Harvey, of Acton, was in town on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Gilbert left on Sunday for Regina, where he has been since. The Harvest Home Services of the Baptist Church will be held on Sunday, Sept. 27th. Mrs. Dingle has returned from a three weeks' visit with friends in Ottawa and other towns in the Ottawa Valley.

Mrs. Geo. Allen left last week to visit her brother in St. E. Allen and Mrs. E. Quinn will spend the winter in Toronto. Work on the south bay pier at the canal has begun. The contract, which is costing the Government upwards of $10,000, will be completed by November. Rev. G. W. Barker, president of the Hamilton Methodist Conference, had a very successful day at Watertown last Sabbath in connection with the re-opening of the church there after large improvements costing nearly $2,000. The offerings of the day more than covered the cost of the improvements—Gazette.

Wedding bells are ringing in this vicinity. Mr. W. Shaw is visiting his sister, Mrs. G. E. Pukinghorne. Miss Olive Marshall, Toronto, spent the week-end at her home here. Mrs. Daisy, of Toronto, spent the week-end with Miss H. Newton. Miss Sadie Nichol, of Harara, visited her aunt, Miss H. Newton, during the past week.

Mrs. William Mills, of Toronto, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. L. McQueen. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Evans, of Bradford, are visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. J. N. Newton. Master Joseph McDonald underwent an operation for his tonsils in the Lincoln Protestant Church, where he was well attended. A number of former members and others from Georgetown and Acton and neighboring towns attended to hear Rev. Dr. Blair. His sermons were powerful discourses, and his address on Monday evening was greatly enjoyed. Mr. Castel, Georgetown, showed a series of attractive views of England.

Build up the Mighty National Force. FOR fifty years the Teuton peoples have been trained, disciplined, whipped, into cervic cogs of an implacable military machine, by which is maintained the Prussian doctrine of might, and the Kaiser's autocracy. The Teutons deny themselves, they make sacrifices, because they are trained or forced to do so, but they do it. The peoples of the Allied nations must make great sacrifices and tremendous efforts in order to defeat the enemies of freedom, but because they are free peoples it is left largely to the individual to say what or how much self-denial each will practice. So if freedom is to prevail individuals must make voluntary sacrifices which in the aggregate will be greater than the forced sacrifices of the enemies of freedom.
