MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED

GEO. HYND'S
ACTON ONTARIO

The Action Free Press

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1916

Brief Local Items

The leaves are falling rapidly now.
—Save & save—both yourself and Canada.

—Get ready for the next Victory Loan, Save.

This is glorious autumn weather—plenty of rain though.

—Apple picking is a somewhat general pastime these days.

—Stretch your expenditure a little and you will find it will pay.

—Colder days are coming. Get in wool if you cannot afford coal.

—Another quiet Sunday was fairly well observed by Action residents.

—The red, yellow and brown of the autumn foliage is very beautiful at present.

—Save fuel. Mrs. Housewife, by keeping the bottoms of your pots and kettles clean.

—Both Esquerring and Rockwood fair fairs were favored with delightful fall weather.

—Sunday rain decreased the attendance at the evening church services considerably.

It would take a load off two minds at least if you renewed your Pensions—Pensions.

—At last the driveways on Bowery Avenue are finished. This puts the street in a pretty fair condition.

—William Kulin & Son carried all of the annuals for sheep at Georgetown fair as well as at Action.

—An enjoyable musical evening was spent at the Methodist Chapel on Monday evening by the Epworth League.

—Mrs. (Dr.) John Lawson and Mr. J. Gamble, of Action, were successful contestants at Esquerring Fall Fair last week.

—Three of our citizens who sleep in tents during the summer months have folded up their tents and moved into winter quarters.

—Press reports say that the salmon run in the rivers of northern British Columbia is especially heavy this year. Fishermen have been making fabulous wages.

The news is in receipt of an acknowledgment from the business manager of the Salmon Campaign Fund for $777.75 from Action. Very creditable for our town.

—Christmas parcels for the Canadian Expeditionary Force in France and elsewhere should be mailed in time to be despatched from Canadian ports not later than the middle of November and as much earlier as possible.

CREWSONS CORNERS

Mr. C. Chapman, well driller, went to Peterborough this week to drill wells there.

Mr. E. Wood, of Guelph, visited friends here last week.

Potato digging is the chief occupation now. They are a very good crop this year.

Miss Margery Maud, Etobicoke, spent a week with her friend, Miss Dorothy Burnside.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Goy, Guelph Township, visited friends here over the week-end.

Last Tuesday, while Mr. Charlot Lamer was engaged in shingling the roof of the Methodist Church, Action, he had the misfortune to fall from the roof to the ground and break his ankle. His many friends hope he will soon be about again.

GEORGETOWN

Miss Muriel Thompson left on Tuesday to resume her studies at Toronto University.

Word has been received that W. O. Elliott, of Guelph, nephew of Mr. D. L. St. Hilaire, is safe.

Ex-Yankee Thomas Cox and Mrs. Cox motored to town on Friday and spent the afternoon with friends here.

He has been stricken with paralysis while at Rev. J. T. Tjark's on Friday night.

Two ranks of lady and gentleman bowlers from Brampton played a friendly game with out local bowlers last week. They were entertained at luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warden Charles Headland and Mrs. Headland, of Lowellville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Velma, to Mr. Charles Norris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norris of Truro, the marriage to take place this month.

In the Methodist Church on Sunday evening, Rev. Mr. St. Hilaire, of Newmarket, gave a most inspiring missionary address pointing out that the Missions of the world still survive among the others. That Christ is the true centre of Christianity and that sacrifice is the true standard for the Christian—Herald.

LIMELINE

This is rather a weak winter for potato digging and apple picking.

A number of people of this vicinity attended Georgetown fair last week.

Miss Albert Merveth is improving in health after her return from the tropics.

Mrs. Winifred Polkinghorne, of Toronto, spent the week-end with her parents.

Mr. Douglas Goudie, of Toronto University, spent the week-end with his parents.

Miss Freda Downing and son, Billy, Mr. J. McMillan, of Acton, are spending a week with their parents.

Mr. Her. Scott is able to be around again, after being confined to the house for four weeks with a grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. John Morris, Acton, intend returning to their home this week, after spending a couple of months with friends in Ontario. Their son, Charles A. F., spent Sunday with them at the home of his uncle, Mr. J. W. Hardinge.

A quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilboord Saturday afternoon when his young daughter, Miss Mayne, became the bride of Rex Polkinghorne, the Rev. J. Y. Cameron officiating. The bride, who was unattractive but sweet in her dress, a blue Georgette and taffeta. After the wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Polkinghorne left for Owen Sound to visit relatives.

Action Free from Spanish Flu

So far no case of Spanish influenza which is sweeping the country have been reported in Action. Neighboring towns however, that is to say so many deaths and seems to be beyond the control of all medical skill while in a certain stage. Georgetown has had the most cases and deaths in these places have result from the epidemic.

At the schools there have been cases and deaths in Georgetown, in fact in every town and city that is to say more than 50 per cent.

This is a very bad time to go to town.

It is a good time to stay at home.
