A Notable Gathering of Leading Mon of the Mathodist Church

It was the biggest event in my 'life," sald a layman who had been a delegate to the General Conference at Hamilton last week. Continuing he said: "It was worth much to me to have the right and opportunity of sitting in two weeks; to see and hear and rub shoulders with the big men of the Church: the leaders at the head of the connexional interests; in the colleges, in high positions in public life; the renowned, preachers, leading statesmen and jurists; leading workers in the church's activities; it was an honor beyond expression to enjoy this high privilege. I shall always esteem it one of the large opportunities of my experlences."

The commodious Pirat Church was filled to capacity on Thanksgiving night when the masterly addresses by Chancellor Bowles, of Victoria University, and Hon. N. W.
