A SPLENDID THING '

man with brawn and courage, wh

Again it is a wondrous thing to be .

Where funds are needed. I am not i

To be a woman with sufficient brain woman's money is a needed thing.

To be alive and part of this great work can fight,

The Acton Free Press

TIME ACTON FREE PRESS IS DUDlinhed every Thurnday morning at the Furz Para Building, Mill Bitroot, Acton Ontario, The anbecription price is $1,50 per-year, in advance. Postage is charged additional to offices in the United fitates. The date to which interreptions are paid is indicated on the address label.

ADVERTISING RATES Transient advertisements, 10 cents per line agate incasurement, for first insertion and 6 conta per line for each subsequent insertion. Contract display advertisements, for 60 inches or more, per annum, 10 cents per inch each insertion. Advertisements without specific directions will be inserted till forbid and charged accordingly.

TELEPHONES: Editorial and Business Office - 11a

Business Directory

MEDICAL . THOS. GRAY, M. D. C. M. McGILI L. R. C. P. Edinburgh: L. R. F. P. & S. Glasgow. Member British Medical Association, etc. .

DR. J. A. McNIVEN Office and Residence-Corner Bower Avenue and Eigin Streets, the residence formerly occupied by D. M. Henderson, Acton, Ont.

Office-Frederick Street, Acton, Ont.

VETERINARY

ly attended to.

JOHN LAWSON Veterinary Surgeon - Acton, Ont. Graduate of Ontario Veterinary Col-Office-Arthurn' Block, Residence Mill Street. Calls day or night prompt-

LEGAL

- A. J. MacKINNON Barrister, Colicitor, Conveyancer Office-Mill St., in Perryman Block

DENTAL

DR. J. M. BELL, D. D. S. L. D. S. Honor Graduate of Toronto University. The latests anesthetic used if

Office at residence, Corner Mill and

MISCELLANEOUS

Frederick Streets.

MARRIAGE LICENSES H. P. Moore, Issuer Marriage Licenses Private Office. No witnesses required. Insued at residence in evening. FREE PRESS Office - Acton. Ont

FRANCIS NUNAN

Bookbinder Account books of all kinds made to order. Periodicals of every description carefully bound. Ruling neatly and promptly done. Wyndham Street - Guelph, Ont.

(Over Williams' Store)

. R. J. KERR Licensed Auctioneer For the Countles of Halton, Wellingion, l'oci and Dufferin and the City of Quelph

Sales may be arranged by mail or at residence at Acton or at-The Free Press Office, Acton The Mercury Office, Guelph The News-Record, Fergus, or With W. J. Gordon, Harness Maker, Sales entrusted to R. J. Harr re ceive attention from date of listing to date of sale. List your sales with me. Residence - Young Street, Acton hone 36, Acton. Call at my Expense

Roy Hindley

Auctioneer

ral Choice Farms for sale.

E. CHEEVERS BOOK BINDER t. East - Guelph, Ont

and magnaines bound ! and Substantial covers lottered in-gold on Bible Books and other books Al Work Promptly Executed

D. ALBX. NIVEN

Ontario Land Surveyor and Civil Surveys, Subdivisions, Plans, Roports. Descriptions, Blueprints, etc. Certificates for purchasors and mortgagoos; Burveys for Architecta. Builders and Municipal Councils: Drainage Reports, Estimates ,etc. McLEAN BUILDING, Douglas St. GUELPH (Phone 1064) ONT

The Old and Reliable Granite and Marble Dealers

We are manufacturers and direct mporters of all kinds of Monumental and Houdstone work. We sell direct to our customers at wholesale prices thus enving our customers 40 per cent. We have the best appliances and the pully mechanics in the Dominion who can operate pneumatic tools properly. We can give references from hundreds of our customers in Toronto and other places, where others have to have law nults in order to collect. We have the largest and best stock of Granite in the Dominion, or more than any three deulers in the West. We are legitimuto doulers and employ no agenta and do not annoy or post customers by sending out ignorant agents solicitnit orders we employ only mechanics and dofy competition. SHAMILTON & SONS

If You Ever Want Credit

at a bank or elsewhere, the fact that you have built up a substantial Savings Account will help you get it.

The capacity to save regu-larly, indicates the quality of character that justifies credit.

Decide, now, to let us help you to save. Interest paid every six months.

Bank of Nova Scotia

Paid up Capital - - $ 0,000,000 W. K. GRAHAM Ecserve Fund - - 12,000,000 Acting Manager

SAVAGE & CO.

Established 1848

WYNDHAM ST. - QUELPH

WATCHES DIAMONDS JEWELLERY LIBRARY. DESK SETS FINE CHINA

CUT GLASS SILVERWARE BILK UMBRELLAS FOUNTAIN PENS

Specialists in Wedding and Birthday gifts. Expert watch and Jewellery Repairent

SAVAGE & CO.

70 Years in Business in Guelph

Is Coming

Kenney Bros.

Full assortment of Best Lines for

HEAVY WINTER RUBBERS

HEAVY MACKINAC SOCKS

Our Prices are Right and Our

Qualities Superior

Repairing Promptly and Neatly

Executed.

Kenney Bros.

MAIN STREET - - ACTON

IF

Winter Wear including:

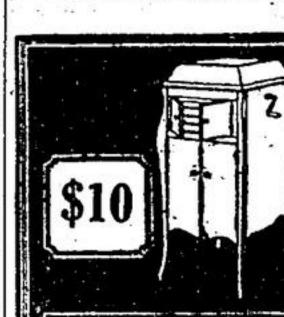

FELT BOOTS

OVERSHOES

WINTER

GLASSES

It's something really stylish in Men's Wear you'll find it here.

The latest up-to-date-HATS

All the newest-

Elegant lines of-

NECKWEAR

MEN'S COLORED SHIRTS

ALL SHADES

Men's Gloves in-

See our lines of-MEN'S SWEATER COATS

R. E. Nelson

Next Post Office

The Bond Store

IS MORE THAN A HARDWARE STORE

It is a Fountain of Knowledge at your command, when you need Hardware for any purpose. Use i -Get what you want-Be satisfied

It is Not too late for Fall Painting

Martin-Senour paint is the Bond Brand. The price is 75c a pint; $1.35 a.quart; $5.00 a gallon. All information as to quantity required for a job just for the asking. COME IN.

The BOND HARDWARE CO. Ltd.

Common Sense Tells You

portant function. If eyesight is all important, then full seeing power is vital to your welfare and should not be neglected. TO PROTECT YOUR EYESIGHT -from being injured or impaired through excessive strain, uncorrected defects, or weakened muscles, you should make up what you luck

WITH CORRECTLY FITTED Savuge Optical Service makes you

STYLE 10 Victrola Outfit in your home

Along with 10 double sided records of your own_selection

We have every style of Victrola in our store. Place your order carly and obtain the instrument of your choice.

& Son

Of nelping on a true Democracy-One that shall be a pure, unquestioned Wherein no trace of past injustices To man or woman, humankind or

The charge emblem of our liberty. And, whether we be born a man Or born a woman, we have chance to

The Day Clarissa Dyed

By Florence V. Mead

very apprehensively across the contume. Her bair was neatly and dull masculine eye her gingham dress was decidedly "out of style." Mr. Davis had learned to associate such callous difference to fashion on his wife's part only with some . violent, domestic cataclysm. "Hello, Clarissa! What's going on this morning? I thought you cleaned the attic and hood out the furnace only last .week." "Horace," his wife answered solemnly, "I am going to dye to-day," Mr. Davin' round face paled a little: then he caught the twinkle in her eye.

and railled. "Huh! Not in that dress. You can't scure me." he declared. "If you felt that anything like that were going to happen-with all these stylish neighbors round us-you'd have on that Georgy crape thing of yours and a tall, white illy clauped in your left hand instead of that roll. Whatever or whomever you are going to dye, Clarissa, don't do it!" he pleaded, "Let Schucks do it. I pass their sign every time I go downtown. Other dyers do not amount to Bchucks,' and it is such a pretty green and yellow aign that I have always wanted to try him. Can'

Schucks do your dyeing for you, Clar-Mrs. Dayls shook her head "And wante three packages of dark-blue dye -ten cents spicce or three for a quer- failed to arouse him.

ter?" I should say not!" Mr. Davis held up a warning finger. "Clarissa, when will you learn that it docan't pay to eat a spoiled ten-cent watermelon to save it, and then call fore the asionished eyes of his wife. in the doctor at three dollars a visit? Remember the tamales you bought when we first came to California. You when we first came to California. You phasis. "Why couldn't I enjoy that insisted on getting three because they potato saised? Look! Do you suppose were three for a quarter. You took a I wanted to be the laughing stock of bite. I took a bite—and neither of us that beach? Do you suppose I could ever took another bite of those tam—that beach? Do you suppose I could semething I want to ask you. You over took another bite of those tam-

Mrs. Davis rose from the table with great dignity. "I have affairs of woment to attend to theday. I cannot longer listen to your childish prattle." "He sure to think up something nice for as to do this afternoon, Clare," Horace said, as he kissed her good-by at the front door. "You know I have a half holiday. How would a picnic do. with some of your nice potato already intent on her day of dyeing, for without answering she thrust him out of the door and hurried to her In the kitchen he found her when he returned home at one o'clock. The from was permeated with a strange, pungent odor, and Clarissa stood above a steaming wash boller; with a small lath and a broom handle she was alter . nately lifting and prodding a furry, seething mass. "What in the world-" bugan M

"Don't stand there talking all day Horaco Davis, but come belp at the obsequios. Take u stick and help me steer this into the dish pan. Don't touch it! There, your fingers will be all black! I told you not to. Of course il's hot-that's a striking peculiarity of boiling water. It's my blue chinchilla auto coat that this California sun was turning pink. It has no lining

-- oo I'm auro--it will--turn out--well". Her words come disjointedly, jarkily, but unceasingly, for they were dealgned to head off any verbal resistance on helper that he scarcely opened his lips that nothing was left the same, until he was hoisting the unwelldly. flapping garment to the clothesline in the back yard. .

have skinned a black sheep," he reit! Wouldn't it be fun to carry out the one." idea and ask the Carrs and Harpers Only they will have to wear dark friendliness. "Mother?" clothes for four the chairs will rub off."

Clarissa suspiciously. "What have wasn't any possible way to restore the him away from her." "A hundred per cent," she repeated to it.".

spected a rejuvenated chair and gingerly sented himself on the phining t is a splendld thing to be a man leather. "No, I shouldn't ask the neighborn to dinner," he said. "I'd close tny eyes to may grace, and when I'd open them Or one with brains to make the propos again I'd find that every last little Carr had alld off his allopery seat and and chart the courses that will lead to come to a stop beneath the table-cloth. It would be werne than one of those A man of means-with money to push allippery napking that you have to crawl after on your hands and knoes And ald and speed the work in every under the table. Really, though, Clare, these chairs do look fine. You're a gentus. And now what are we going to do this afternoon?" And yet it is a splendla thing, to-day, The anxious look in Clarima's face To be a woman-one with brawn to go flight in the face of our inhuman foe had given way to one of serene natio-And nurse the soldlers, feed the fight- faction, which was in turn replaced by a wheedling expression. "You Drive ambulances, and do everything know, Herace, how dreadfully that blue One seen needs doing! It is also fine lirussels rug in the guest room is To help the men in all they undertake thought wo'd have to buy a new one. Worth undertaking! And again, the but it occurred to me that, if you'd clean that squirter thing that you uso to spray the orange trees and fill it And it is something well-worth living with blue dye, we could tuck old nownpapers all round the sides of the room To give a fortune to a sufferier world, and then you could spray the rug a That in the future years it may be yard at a time, and I'd put on my rubber gloves and take a small scrub-From every menace that would dare bing brush and rub it in. I'd add o This war's grim horrors! It is wonbit of green to make it a lovely shade of Gobelin blue." Clarinoa stopped, quite out of breath. Her husband gamed and looked at her stonly. "Oh, let's send for Schucks!" "No," replied Clarina firmly, "we can't afford it. It is a perfectly feahall ever more defile the Union Jack, sible plan. Before we were married you said you'd die for me, and now you won't even dye forfine." "But this in such a glorious day to be outdoorn!" protested Mr. Davis. of course, but I thought that after that is going to be settled for good. Well. we should have plenty of time for a dip good-by, John. See you later." in the ocean and a supper on the beach by moonlight with some aponge cake and that potato salad that's in the refrigerator." There was a deathlike silence, and Clarisus fired her last gun. "A new no one could be sure that Sears would rug costs exactly eighty-five dellars."

enough to give in at once." Horaco in the house except me, if you wish, Clara, Nothing can make or keep me Clarisan amiled awcotly. Then you won't mind that I dyed all those white round over the house for semething voice, Livingstone's laughter, and to dye,—it seems a pity to waste any Emory's humorous comments on everyof the dye,-and I came across your stockings. You know you never would wandered from his work and followed wear them because they were white, his three friends. In fancy he saw and they are such a lovely quality! They came out a little light in color because they are cotton and the dye really was for wool, but I laid out a pair on the bed for you to wear to the beach, and I am sure you will be pleased with them." "D'you know," remarked Mr. Davis lovially several hours later, to Mr. Carr and Mr. Harper, as they walked toward the beach, "my wife is the most economical and ingentous person I eyes saw! I appreciate it more every day. I helped her dye a large rug this afternoon, and by George! It looks as fine as an eight-five dollar rug straight from Barker's! She dyed these stockings, too. They didn't look quite so things up tremendously. Hope your bright at home in a dark room," hel added somewhat ruefully, as he turned his foot to one side. Fitting his key into the bathhouse lock. Mr. Davis opened the door and disappeared with a grin.

Five minutes later he reappeared still fully dressed, and sat down gloomlly upon the beach. "Have concluded I don't want to go to-day. Water's too cold," he replied to all wondering inquirers, and any help, mother?" with that they wern forced to rest content. To their pleadings he romained obdurate, and he even subsided I'll go out an, into a morose slience, from which the moonlight supper and the sponge cake But once at home, he roused himself into action. He feverishly unlaced his shoes, pulled off his stockings, and thrust two bright, Dutch blue feet be-"Why didn't I want to go in swimming?" he asked, with caustic em-

It takes blue dye to wear off "It-It-will all come of if you boll ing." them," fullered Clarinas. "Boll them!" cried Mr. Davis. "It's near enough to trugedy aircady, Clar issa," he said, and his voice was low and full of feeling, "this has got to this house is going to be dyed a her shaking hand in his. dark, deep rich mayy blue, even if we told you to stop your nefarious operatlons when you reached me, but you didn't, and now this abominuble fluid a golbe to lick the dust!" Marching into the kitchen, he selzed the wash boiler; silently Clarisse

"Pour it right there." He obeyed mechanically and then stiffened with sudden suspicion.

ones, "this is my forget-me-not bed. and this California sun is so strong it fulce even fi-"- Hut the kitchen door slammed, and Clarissa, giggling gently, crept into the house, stole a look of pride at the dining-room chairs and the guest-room rug, and rejoiced that she had not that day dyed in vain. THE MOTHER OF JOHN

Three of the men had said good-by to you want me to enlist." he said in a darn which looks almost us if weven, their associates before leaving for the voice of bewildered increduity. training camps. Older men had been found to take the places of Sears and that's all." the part of Mr. Davis; but indeed he Livingstone, and a young woman was experienced such surprise at being at Emory's desk. It seemed to John alone." suddenly raised to the position of chief that the whole world was changing. Scars came over and gripped his to bear.". hand, "Good-by, youngster, Wo'll try

"The neighbors will think that we comea." John colored. "I only wish I were his craving for a long walk. going along with you fellows," he "Why, mother, I thought you'd be Clarissa girgled. "It does look like said. "I'm not waiting to be twenty- all broken up at the very idea.

"Yea." John waited a moment be- in her behalf. "I'm all you've got." Mr. Davis stopped short in his pro- fore he could go on. "You see I'm all he ended vehemently. "It would seem gress toward the house and looked at she has." "Of course, old man. I'm glad you before I had to." don't have to go now. In fact I think | His mother, had remained standing the man at Harker's told me there one child, it doesn't seem fair to take head slightly. color to those leather seats that this "I hate to seem to be hidling behind because her son does his duty. It California sun has faded out, but I my mother," John said, with a bitter- might if he falled to do it," she said just couldn't give it up; so I kuyo tiess that took his listener by surprise quietly. them a good dose of navy-blue dye "Just as I hate to hide behind my age. -rubbed it on with a sponge-of course liometimes I seem to myself a con- binner. It time with a rush. didn't boll 'them,' Harace-and then temptible coward. But when I think I applied a coat of floor wax, and they of anking my mother to let me go. I haven't known how to bear it, saying directly or indirectly with the present

What is your brave act without a brave nature behind it? What is your smile unless I know that you are kind? What is your indignant blow unless your heart is on fire? What is all your activity without you? How instantly the impression of a character creates itself, springs into shape behind a deed! A man cannot sell you goods across a counter, or drive you a mile in his carriage on the road, take your ticket in the cars, or hold the door open to let you pass, without your getting if you are sensitive, some idea of what sort of a man he is and seeing his deed colored with the complexion of his character .--

"Well, 'niged Clarison, with appar- and clapped him on the shoulder, account. I thought you'd feel that ent resignation, "I suppose I'll have to "Your duty is right here and before lowed it to you to stay with you an give it up. It would take two hours, the two years are up, this little matter long as I could." "But, John, boy, there's a bigger daty for the young men of to-day than He went out with swinging step, his staying home with their mothers. Hapcolumns of figures before him. For John was late getting home from the said, with a laugh. "Dye overything being unfamiliar with the office office that day. The new workers routine, needed to have a great many things explained. The work dragged. blue though no long on l'yo got you." He missed the accustomed faces of the three young men with whom he had socks of yours, Huraco? I looked all life began. He missed Sears' friendly them putting on their uniforms, going to the training camps, throwing themselves heart and soul into atting themdays," thought John, looking down discontentedly at the ledger before him. "What business has an able-bodied From the Issue of the Free Press fellow like me, with red blood in his veing playing with figures when the world's on fire!" John's mother heard his latchkey in the door about zeven o'clock. She came been a long day, dear." "Yea" he said, without meeting her eyes. "Lot of new help and it slows dinner isn't spoiled, for I'm as hungry as a bear." The dinner was not spoiled, but John's appetite did not sustain his boast and they did not talk as much as usual. There seemed a strange constraint between the mother and son who loved each other so dearly.

At the conclusion of the short meal, John pushed back his chair. "No, dear. I'm sure I haven't work ed as hard as you have to-day." 'on't mind, I believe Then if ye a walk. I'm rest-Mra Walla surprised to see next Sunday. looking at i her face unna flushed: He wonation of lear ag her dered if bin had hurt her be over-sensitive. "I won't be gone long," he added hastlly. night by Rev. IL Haddow. "When a fellow's chained to a deak all day, he bometimes feels like stretch-that beach? Do you suppose I could something I want to ask you. You good, think of anything cise except how long can think it over while you are walk. A c to his amazement that her hands were ing recently. trembling and that her color had re-"Don't be worried, mother. believe there is anything to be afraid of. It'll be two years before I'm twenty-one and the chances are that the war will be over before then. And unless they lower the draft age, you haven't any need to be anxious." opened the door and meekly she led the Instead it seemed to him that she had Hip mother did not look roamsured. grown a shade paler. "Yes, John, but have you never felt that it might-that it might be you.

duty to enlist now!" He released his hold upon her hands and took a step backward. Him face white not. Keep it in the work banket expressed such amaxement that she for mending large holes. A big dorn it spoke hurricaly. . "I'm not saying that it is, John. That is something no human being can decided for another, no matter how close the tie. A wife cannot decide your duty lies." "Why, mother," John gasped. you understand- He broke off and It had been a trying day at the office. stared at her helplessly. "You mean

> "I want you to do the right thing. "Hut If I went, you would be left "I'm not urging you to go my son But lonelings is not the hardest thing

He passed his hand across his foreto finish up the job before your time head, and scated himself. He had forgotten all about his restlessment and thought it would break your heart to Stars looked at him kindly. "What's have me at the Front." Unconsciously In for a lamb roast to-morrow hight? In the way?" he saked with abrupt he was going through the same arguments that he had used with himself heartless for me to go and loave you "They're fine, Horace, simply fine!" fellows like you should be exempted. when he seated himself. He noticed she interrupted hastily. "You know When a woman's a widow with only new her erect carriage. She lifted her "A mother's heart doesn't broak

"Why, mother, I'm wild to go, "A hundred per cent," she repeated to it.".

On. But I've been telling myself I of 10 years our beared, mustn't think of such a thing, on your peace."

Phillips Brooks.

shoulders back and his lips smiling, piness doesn't mean much. Love does But John was not ashamed of the not count much. The only thing that stead, M. A., Ph. D., professor of Philtears through which he saw the matters is that the right should win." John looked at his mother and saw her face transfigured. His soul was on keep that promise and "see him later" its knees before this sublime renunciation. He was his mother's all, and yet his life weighed nothing in the balance against right and duty. . And it came across him with overwhelming force that she was not alone, that thousands of such mothers were giving their sons as freely as she did, to the service of Humanity. The tien that were the tail-prices of such articles as fish dearest were all secondary to the one saries is a municipal problem, of funsupreme duty of vindicating right and damental interest to the citizens in the justice, against brute force.

> longer trembling. "Oh, mother," he said, "I'm glad I'm the non of a woman like you!"-Harriet Lummie Smith.

TWENTY YEARS AGO Thursday, December 1, 1898

into the hall to greet him. "It has and has to open all the windows to let the odor out. A. T. Brown has materially improved the appearance of his drug store of the paper hangers and painters. Mr. Robert Holmes shipped a car of fat hogs to Toronto on Monday. The prices are more encouraging this week | and clothing, dealers have taken withbeing up to $4.00 and $4.10.

The bargain days of the railways are over for the present. The regular rates were restored on Monday. The majority of citizens cleaned their uidowalks of snow after Saturday's storm. The neglect of a few places rendered it necessary for people to wade through the drifts on their way to church Sunday morning. St. Alban's Church is in the hands of painters and decorators. The church will be re-opened with special services A lecture which entertained his audience with song and story entitled, Anga, though 'it was "Jack Canuck and his friends," was given in Knox Church on Monday Last Thursday was an ideal day and Thanksgiving was enjoyably spent.

were fairly well attended Driving was in England at I tre A chartered bank for Action is within the probabilities of the near future. "Yeaf" he said interrogatively, and Omcials of both the Traders and the waited for her to speak. Then he saw Merchants Banks have been prospect-

At the meeting of the Council on coded, leaving her face unnaturally Monday evening the contracts were stop right here! Not another thing pale. He thought be understood and let for engine, beller, dynamo, etc., for crossed the room to her quickly, taking the Municipal Lighting System. The walls of the new power house are within a few feet of completion, proparations are made for runhing the carpenter work, the machinery will be delivered as soon as the power house is ready. The poles and wire will be erected at once and the system in running order as soon as possible. IN THE DARNING BASKET for will find this a very useful hint. Buy a length of fine black also some a stocking or in a little pair of woollen. combinations is unsightly, but not if done as directed. Cut a piece of notblack not for dark colored materials and black stockings; white for lightfor her husband, nor a mother for her colored gurments. The piece should ion. I only want you to be sure where be bigger than the hole to be covered -that is over lapping it, about an inch all round. Tack it in position. then darn in and out of the meshes of the net. You will now have a neat Another advantage is that these not darns last longer than do those minus the net foundation.

IF THE BOCHE BPOKE ENGLISH During the recent American advance out of Chatcau Thierry a Red Cross captain was looking about for suitable hospital sites when he met an American negro soldler marching along toward Chateau Thierry, following closely behind a German major. The negro had transferred his pack from his own back to the back of the German officer. and had also transferred the German major's monocle to his own eye. Thus equipped, the black warrior was parading triumphantly down the road. As he passed the Red Cros captain "I say, look heah what dis alguab

NO TRUCK WITH THE BOCHES The following resolution was unantmounty passed at a general meeting done got!"-New York Evening Post.

of the Liverpool, Eng., Cotton Asso-"That it be a rule of the association glass door.) "Why you young rescal. that no member, or his firm, shall trade there he is now." are a hundred per cent, improved." Just-well, I simply cun't bring myself good-bye to the other boys and stay a chemics of Great Britain for a period That ain't the bons. He's out, I tell

THE OLD FRIENDS There are no friends like the old friends, the friends of other digs," With whom I talked and often walked in pleasant winding ways. My eyen are tim, my torn are dull, yet Acress the years that intervene sine they and I were near. see the happy villagers and hear the lusty about The hunky boyn and girls set up whenever achool was out. 'm breathlag atill the freuhness of those fragrant days of yore, And my eyes, with tears are inisted that I'll see them nevermore. There are no friends like the old friends, the friends I used to know the glad days, in the sad days, the days of long ago, When life wan like a river and the river like a rong . That it sang and sighed in ripples as it wound 'to way along. think of them with pleasure and I think of them with pain. A pleanure that's entrancing and My heart is filled with longing, and the music of the breeze. There are no friends like the old friends, the friends I long for now, An winter shakes its first faint flakes of snow upon my brow hear their voices calling clear across the gulf of years, And I answer them with laughter, and I answer them with tears; l live the old lays over, for to me they seem a part fiber of my heart, here are no friends like the old friends, the friends I used to know

In an able aritcle by Dr. W. C. Keirasophy and Economics at the Univer-

"The officers of a council will have the intimate knowledge essential for the proper regulation, and the sonse of municipal responsibility will have a tendency to limit criticism to what a reasonable and constructive. It would be a mintake to unload upon the Food Board the problems that rightly belong to our municipality. "Further, necessities include fuel

Food Roard, the gains of speculation have been largely eliminated from dealers in food supplies, and their pronot advanced with the higher fovel of necessaries, however, such as shoes out hindrance or criticism the specu-

NOBLE SAYINGS

Health in the first good lent to men A gentle disposition then: Next, to be rich by no by wayes; Lastly, with friends t' enjoy our

He of good comfort, Master Ridley: The services in the various churches we shall this day kindle such a candle

> Religion without joy-it is no religion .- Theodore Parker, will continue century after century. For the country in question is the Land of the Beyond, that is on the other side of the grave.

And this has been going on and four hours there are 100,000.

THE DEATHLESS ARMY Serbla's history-the history nation that can never die"-is a guarantee that she will worthily fulfil her role in the new confederation. The importance of the new Jugoslav state can hardly be exagerated. It is to it that the world will coulde the key of the East. It will be the duty of the new state to see that no power shall ever again seek to dominate Europe and the East. The Jugoslava resume once more the proud mission of Guardians of the Gate, which they held for conturios when they relied back the tide of Mesicin invasion and kept the

LADDER WHICH CAN'T BLIP OR

A ladder which can be used with equal facility on a aldo-hill or in the home has been invented by B. B. Keith. of Mansfield, Ohio. It has two additional legs or props, one at each side. This prevents the laddler from allnping, and increases its strength. When the ladder to on a level surface both extra legs are used, but when it is used on a hill or on uneven ground. only the leg on the downhill side is necessary us the prop.

A SORT OF PETER SCHLEMING

Bill Collector -- Mr. Owens hot the oh? (suddenly sees shadow on ground on. But I've been telling myself I of 10 years after the conclusion of you. That's only his shadow."-Bogton Eventng Trunscript my noul to ill at cano When I hear the old friends calling in

Of the very soul and substance of th When life was sweet and simple in the

FAIR PRICES, SQUARE DEALING

-llev. Campbell Coyle, D. D.

sity of New Brunswick, on "The Municipal Council and the Cost of Living." in which he deals with the new authorized appointment of a Fair Price Committee in each municipality, he ваув:-

longs . The Canada Food Board has already regulated the profits of manufacturers and wholesalers, but the remilk, bread, substitutes or other necesmunicipality and a proper subject of John dropped on his kneen and hid municipal jurisdiction. This Order in his face in his mother's lap. Her Council given the municipality ample power to deal with all complaints regarding prices, supplies or the wastes of necessaries.

> clothing and other items of common household expenditure. Thanks to the fits or approad are my and here of prices or the increased cost of living or of doing business. In other lines lative gains of a rising market, and have profited by war conditions. The Pair Price Committee may turn its attention to these necessaries also.

Knowledge is the treasure, but judg-

-Herrick

never be extinguished.-Latimer.

No nation can be destroyed while it possesses a good home life,-J. O.

LAND OF THE BEYOND There is a country into which there is to-day a yearly immigration with which no other country in any ago has had anything to compare. Every year, $5,000,000 of people enter its ports and crowd its territory as nowcomers and colonists. Every month 3,000,000 are numbered as fresh arrivals. Every twenty-cross supreme above the Washington Post.

FALL OVER