War Work and After-War Work of the SALVATION ARMY

"FIRST TO SERVE-LAST TO APPEAL" The Salvation Army has for 53 years been organized on a military basis inured to hardship. sacrifice and service. It is always in action, day and night.

It has maintained Military Huts, Hostels and Rest Rooms, providing food and rest for tens of thousands of soldiers each day. 1,200 uniformed workers and 45 ambulances have been in service at the front—in addition to taking care of the needs of soldiers' families here at home, assisting the widows and orphans, and relieving distress arising from the absence of the soldier head of Notwithstanding all the Government is planning to do, notwithstanding the pensions and the relief work of other organizations, hundreds of cases of urgent human need are constantly demanding the practical help the Salvation Army is trained and equipped to render.

The Salvation Army Million Dollar Fund January 19th to 25th

While it could do so, the Salvation Army has carried on without any general appeal. Now the crisis is arising with the return of the 300,000 soldiers. The budget for essential work during the coming year has been prepared. A million dollars must be raised to continue the after the war protection and comfort of the soldier at the many stop-ping places between France and his home here in-Canada. These Hostels—or military butcls—provide good food, clean beds, wholesome entertainment at a price the soldier can afford to pay. If the boys did not have a liquel to go to, WILLE would they go? Care of the Wives, Widows, Dependents and Orphans of Soldiers Scores and hundreds of cases could be cited where salthat the Salvation Army has stepped in to relieve their families from dire need. As an instance, a mother with air children is located—no fuel, weather freezing, food and funds exhausted by sickness and other troubles. widows and orphans. Recping the Family Unit Intact The women of the Salvation Army on their visiting sounds accomplish the apparently impossible. Is the discharged soldier out of a job? They find him son. Is the wife sick, the home-work piling up, the children neglected? They murso the wife, mother the children wash and scrub. Is there urgent need for food, fuel, clothes or medicine? They are supplied. It takes money, of course, but more important is the leving spirit of service in which the work is done. Until the last homeward bound soldier is re-established They are taken to Salvation Army Emergency Receiving House. Winter and 100,000 soldiers returning increase the demands on the Salvation Army, whose in civilian life, will you not belp the Salvation Army to combat the discomforts and evils that beact his path! The service of the Salvation Army, founded on sacrifice, demonstrates the true spirit of the Master. It is directed to the extension of the Kingdom of Christ. For two generations the Salvation Army has stood out and out for God. It approaches practical problems in a practical way and achieves RESULTS. It co-operates with all-overlaps none. It recognizes neither color, race nor creed. It is always in action, day and night. No organization does greater work at less cost. To carry on its great work it must have financial help, and on its behalf members of the Dominion Government, business men and returned
