MILITARY NEWS

Pte. Wm. Dyke, of the 1st Railway Troop, who has just returned from overseas, was here over Sunday visiting his friends. Pte. Dyke spent two years at the front. Able Seaman Wm. Smith of "H. M. S. Canada" arrived in Acton on Friday afternoon to spend a few days with his family. Mr. Smith has been in the navy during the war and has many interesting and exciting experiences to relate. A recent letter from his pen in the "Pine" was read with much interest.

COAL FOR PROMPT DELIVERY

The underground has now on hand both stove and nut coal. Leave orders with Norman McLeod, at my factory, 31-1-17 JOHN B. MACKENZIE

CREWBOON CORNERS

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolfe, Toronto, visited Mr. Parker's last week. The quarterly communion was served in the Church here on Sunday. Mr. E. Cole has rented Mr. Fred Wolfe's farm at Churchill and will shortly remove there. Mr. and Mrs. Cole have only been in this neighborhood a year but have made many friends who regret their removal.

NABSAQAWEVA

Miss Lillie Nightengale, of Toronto, is visiting relatives at Knatchbull at present. Rev. W. A. Cook, of Eramosa circuit, preached educational sermons on the Nabsaqaweva circuit last Sunday. Rev. O. F. Stephenson took the work on the Eramosa circuit. The annual meeting of the Ebenezer Ladies' Aid Society was held in the Church parlor last Tuesday, when the following officers were elected for the year: Mrs. H. M. Taylor, President; Mrs. E. Walker, Vice President; Mrs. C. Hamshaw, Secretary; Mrs. A. Allison, Treasurer.

GEORGETOWN

The Council and Board of Trade sent a good delegation to Stratford on Tuesday to attend the meeting of representatives of the various municipalities which are supporting the proposal of a provincial highway from Toronto to Barrie. In the sudden death of Rev. Joseph Pennell at Toronto on Saturday there loved ministers who ever re-acted in Georgetown, when he was rector of St. George's Church. He was a friend to all liberal minded and generous. He had a great love for the children and took special interest in Sunday School work. He was president of Halton County School Association in which the schools of all denominations were interested. Mr. Pennell was born at Cobourg in 1854 and was graduated in Arts from Victoria University and in theology from Trinity College.

SILOAM

The open winter has given the prices for wood a downward tendency. There have been more farmers' cars running in this section this winter than ever before. There are said to be good prospects for some greatly needed road improvements to be made in this district this year. The Township Council has in contemplation the improvement of the line, and the local authorities have given assurances that the section from Stratford to Acton will be completed in the near future. The completion of this good news will be greatly appreciated by a patient and long-suffering public.

OAKVILLE

The long pier at the Oakville harbor is in a most dilapidated condition. J. H. Cross, of Philadelphia, Pa., was in town over Sunday with his brother, C. H. Cross. The public is notified that all restrictions regarding the sale and delivery of coal have been withdrawn. Chief Keer interviewed two men from Hamilton, who are a liaison from Toronto. There was general rejoicing in Oakville yesterday afternoon when the old Military Medal for bravery at the naval camp were running again. The citizens did not worry over the traffic rate—it was sufficient to know they were running.—Record.

CHURCHILL

Mrs. John Denny went to Burlington on Tuesday to spend a few days with friends there. Hugh Reid, son of Robert H. Reid, was operated on for appendicitis last Thursday in the hospital at Guelph. He is doing well. This esteemed family has been sorely afflicted this winter.
