THURSDAY, MAY 15, 1919 Control of the second s MAKE THIS A DAY

Make this a day. There is no gain In brooding over days to come: The measure of to-day is plain, The future's lips are ever dumb. The work of yesterday is gone-For good or Ill, let come what may For now we face another dawn. Make thin a day,

Though jesterday we falled to nee The urging hand and estnest face That men call Opportunity, We failed to know the time or place For some great deed, what need to fret? The dawn comes up a silver gray, And golden moments must be met. Make this a day.

This day in yours; your work in yours, The odds are not who pays your hire, The thing accomplished -- that endures, If it be what the day require. He who takes up his daily round. As one new armoured for the fray. To-morrow steps on solld ground. Make this a day.

The day in this; the time is now; No better hour was over hero-Who walts upon the when and how Remains forever in the rear. Though yesterday was hard and rough Your feet may still seek out the way,

To-morrow is not soon enough-Make this a day.
