NEVER SKIPS A LINE OF "OLD MAN"
Mr. Editor: "Another year has rolled around and I have pleasure in enclosing $2.00 for the renewal of the Press Press. I must say I am getting something for my money in the Press Press. The change in style is a great improvement, and the 'Old Man in the Clock Tower' is a treat. I never miss a line of his ancient history. If I might venture a guess I think Fred Stewart or John Cameron is the 'quilt' every one of us has seen in the Press Press. Although more than half my life has been spent in Salmon, Oregon, every one of my old home friends in Acton is dear to me. My second son, who was 'over the top' in France, is at Camp Grant, Illinois. He has not seen his mother since March 1917. If you and Mrs. Moore should come west again, would you please let me hear from you. I would be glad to see you in Salmon, Oregon, and will do my best to see you there. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, H. H. McLaughlin, Editor, The Press Press, Acton, Ont.
