William Hunter, all suit of brown serge with hat to match and carried a bouquet of bridal roses.

WILLSON-FARMER A wedding of much interest on both sides of the line took place in St. Jude's Church, Oakville on Wednesday of last week when Isabel Mary, only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. D. J. Farmer, was married to the Hon. Digby Arthur Willson, of the United States Comular Service, son of the Esquesing, Margaret May, beloved late Col. and Mrs. Henry Willson, of New York, by the Rt. Rev. W. IL. Clark, Lord Blahop of Niagara, assisted by Canon Woodcock of BL Jude's. Mr. E. De Coursey Fletcher played the wedding marches, and Miss Frances Wood sang the solo "Mavis." Pink and white roses, hydrangess, palms and iris were massed in the Gawthroup, formerly of Erin, in her church by a city florist. The bride was given away by her father and wore her mother's wedding gown of beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. her vell of silk Brussels net being orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white reschuds. The maid of honor, Miss Beatrice Maclean Howard, of Toronto, wore a gown of white crope de chene, velled with mauve georgette, the pink roses of her leghorn hat being veiled with the same color, while roses were also in her bouquet. The bridesmaids were Miss Hilds Gregory and Miss Frances Wood, their frocks being of shell-pink georgette, embroidered and with Frenchy touches of blue, while their white georgette hats were trimmed with pink rosebuds, and they carried pink roses. The Hon. W. H. Wetmore, American Vice-Consul in Toronto; the Hop. J. Boyce Vernon, American Vice-Consul at Hamilton; Dr. O. W. Ross and Dr. E. Roger Wells, of Toronto, were the ushers, and in the bridal processions to the chancel steps they led the bridesmaida . Mr. Harold N. Farmer, Barrister, Acton, the brides' brother, was groomsman. Mrs. Farmer received -The last Wednesday half-holiday after the service at "Kingslow."
