In Memoriam

WILLIAM WILES With heart rending suddenness death came to William Wiles, Church Street on Tuesday forencon. During the previous night and in the morning Mrs. Wiles had been feeling unwell and as Miss Laura was in Toronto, Mr. Wiles came home to see how she was getting on. , lie went over to Dr. Gray's to call him and when he returned was not feeling well and lay down a few minutes on the couch. Dr. Gray came a few minutes later and when he knocked there was no response. He walked in and found Mrs. Wiles in bed and Mr. Wiles' lifeless body on the couch. Mr. Wiles had been a great sufferer from rheumatism for years and this affected his heart and finally with fatal results. Deceased was born In Toronto sixty-six years ago. Thirtyone years ago next February he was joined in holy wedlock with Nancy Barber, also a Toronto citizen, who survives him. Their son and daughter Harold and Laure, also survive. For thirty-two years Mr. Wiles was a faithful employee of Messra. Beardmore & Co., twenty-three years of this time being spent in Acton. For many years he was foreman of the shipping department at the warshouses. He was a quiet, thoughtful man and enjoyed universal esteem. The funeral will be held on Friday afternoon. Service will be held in Bt. Alban's Church at three o'clock, after which nterment will be made at Fairview Cemetery. The sincere sympathy of all our citizens is felt for Mrs. Wilbs and Laura and Harold in their sore sudden bereavement.
