YARBELL'S TEACHER'S GUIDE
This very helpful volume for the Sunday School teacher and bible student, for the International Sunday School lessons for 1919 is now in the book stores. Martha T. Bell, Ph. D., has had great success in presenting through her teachers' guide a comprehensive study of each successive lesson of the year. This is the fifteenth volume in the series. The work has steadily grown in popularity with teachers. Its lesson topics and illustrations, its suggestions to teachers for all grades of pupils are invaluable. The historical and geographical background gives vivid insight into the environment of each lesson from week to week. The studies for 1919 continue the six months' course which commences this month and runs through Acts, 1st Peter, 1st John and Revelation. Six months are given to the study of the Old Testament taking Judges, Ruth, Samuel and Kings, with an occasional excursion to the history of the Jews. The closing quarter of 1919 gives the childhood, early life and ministry of Christ's coming in Matthew. This 500 page volume is handled by The Hyperic Press, Toronto, and sells at $1.50.

Brief Local Items

—Welcome, Teachers.
—May we be truly thankful.
—Carefulness will prevent fires.
—Thanksgiving Day next Monday.
—This is Fire Prevention Day for all Canada.
—The apple crop is very short in this section.
—The Methodist Church Anniversary next Sunday.
—Many of our citizens attended Milton fair yesterday.
—October came in with very mild and pleasant weather.
—Remember the Baptist concert in the town hall on Saturday evening.
—The fall wheat presents a very healthy and attractive appearance now.
—Jack Martin won the $25.00 prize for the motorcycle race at Georgetown Fair.
—There will be happy homecomings for Sunday and Thanksgiving this week.
—Rev. J. C. Wilson, B. A., preached anniversary sermons in Alliston last Sunday.
—The leaves are falling fast now. Some trees have lost almost all their autumn foliage.
—Mrs. E. J. Gamble was the fortunate winner of thirty-three prizes at Georgetown Fair.
—Turnip shipping is getting lively again. The shippers are paying 50c per bushel of 50 lbs.
—Acton cordially welcomes the county educationists in session in their annual institute to-day and to-morrow.
—Acton returned the compliment to Georgetown in full measure last Thursday and attended the fair by hundreds.
—A meeting of the directors of the Acton Fall Fair was held next Tuesday to settle up the affairs of the fair of 1918.
—A bouquet of lilacs from the garden of Mr. Robert Brown, third line, was brought to the Press office on Saturday.
—October's here, come and behold! and go yet to welcome her, in robes no green could give with gold, she comes to poorest cottager.
—There was a canning competition at the Brampton fair, and the materials canned were donated to the Children's Shelter, Miss.
—You, you never did a wiser thing for the welfare of the splendid son of yours than to decided to vote NO to all four questions on the 28th.
—Rev. J. D. Pilsbark, of Hiramford, President of Hamilton Conference, will preach at the anniversary services in the Methodist Church next Sunday.
—The G. W. V. A. drawing for the Ford Car will take place in the park at 3 p.m. on Thanksgiving Day, Monday, October 13. Everyone is invited to be present.
—That Canada faces a winter of severe unemployment since 1914 is the opinion of Bryce M. Stewart, head of the Labor Department's employment bureau.
—The evening service of Knox Church will be withdrawn next Sunday evening in order that the congregation may attend the anniversary services in the Methodist Church.
—The Press Press' value as an advertising medium is proven with every issue. Last week a lady's gold watch which was lost was advertised. Within an hour the watch was brought to this office. Its recovery was especially gratifying to the owner as it was a wedding gift from her husband.
—Enclosed you will find $1.56 for the Press Press for another year. It surely holds first place in our interest as against the local and Toronto dailies for which we also subscribe. Here's wishing more power to the elbow of the local historian familiarly known as "The Old Man in the Clock Tower."
—J. N. T. London.

CHURCHILL

Rev. J. C. Wilson, B. A., the President of the Hallowell Council for Halton County, will preach in the Congregational Church on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock.
The people of this section will give a good account of themselves on the prohibition vote on the 29th. So far I can learn nearly every ballot will carry four crosses in the "No" column and everybody will be on their feet.
Some of our farmers are pulling turnips for shipment now.
Rev. Mr. Cook, who has been the most faithful minister here for several months, is about to leave Canada to resume his work as a missionary in China. He preached a very affecting farewell sermon on Sunday afternoon. On Monday evening Rev. Mr. Cook gave a highly interesting lecture on China, which was aptly illustrated with lantern views of an unusually excellent type. Mr. A. Brown, Acton, operated.
