The Acton Free Press

IN APPLE PICKIN' TIME 'Long in apple pickin' time there something in the weather That will set your spirits dancin' till going to the neighbors with the other they're lighter than a feather. You can hear it in the music of neighbor's rooster's call,

You can see it in the squirrel carrying nuts along the wall, An' the runtle,

An' the buntle, An' the hurryin' in o' crops. An' the weedin'. An' the weedin'.

An' the drying of the hope, There's a husy feeling in the air that acts your soul a-rime. In the hearty, healthy, workin' days

o' apple pickin' time. Every critter is natir with the news changin' weather. You can hear the wild goose bonk he calls his flock together. An' the hounds are on the mountain an' the woodchuck's in his lair. the squirrel fills his cellar in the hollow hemlock there. An' the singin'. An' the ringin'.

Of the axes on the bill. Clottin' ready. Workin' steady, All the empty blnu to fill: An' when youth has crept behind your life is past its prime.

You feel your boyhood comin' back is apple pickin' time.

HALLOWE'EN LAKESIDE families had met together in Hallowe'en was always commemorated in great style by the youngsters their wagon had broken right outside of Lakeside. Many secret councils the Connor's gate. were held in the homes of the more inventive and adventurous ones, where sleep of the just, by the kitchen stove, the absorbing questions of costumes when the noise of the visitors wakened him. Poor Bill scratched his head in amazement when he saw all the queer roles of ghosts, witches, clowns and creatures in Mrs. Connor's kitchen. other weird characters were rehearsed He thought he had nightmare, until carefully in Mr. Connors old tumble- the bear asked him to lend a hand with down wood-shed near the orchard, the broken wagon. Then Bill got, busy Every evening for two weeks before and worked away with a will. "1-October 31 the children had hurried juyfully to the shed laughing to themsolves and dancing madly with glee ing rather uncertainly a waggen that in anticipation of the coming fun.

forward to scaring some on the neigh- waiting, by performing for Betty and bor folks, and these shosts were to be her mother. They did their very, very the biggest scarers in the troups. Be- best, and instead of passing a lonely and jesters and witches wild.

the wonderful secrets that Hallowe'en stop dancing and the little fairles all a "Don't tell now, Mother" they fully ole mammy went to sleep, right before on all fathers' and mothers' faces when laughter spent itself. the uncanny procession of figures wended its way in the night, from pie, then more fudge and fairy cakes, house to house. And now on the day before the evening when black cats with eyes affame, aboard for Cedarville." witches sweeping past on brooms and grow and apriles were to reign over party," said Bett" the happy little village, all the young conspirators had gathered at Betty's home to see that everything was ready. levely party already, and I doubt "Sh"- said Fred, "here's father coming!" and every child flew to hide Cedarville, after all that fudge." the queer garments that were scattered

Mr. Connors smiled to himself on the other side of the door. He had shouted "Geddap Maud," and away been a rollicking lad himself-oh! not they went galloping down the road. so very long ago it seemed and it did his kind heart good to hear the chil- mother was asleep. Ole Eill was snordren having such fun getting roady for ing upstairs, so, leaving a light ready for the chibiren when they came in, not to know any thing about it and Betty went to her own title blue and knocked very politely at the door before white room. She said her prayers going into the committee room of the kneeling in the streak of moonlight H. S. H., which being interpreted is the that shone through the window, and Becret Bociety of Hallows'eners.

"Betty," he said, "come here, a separated for the night. Everything with pink eyes,—and bears with boys' was ready, pumpkin faces were cut, brooms for the witches, trailing robes like real live men and a whole lot of for the ghosts, even the bell and ribbon other things all mixed up together, there in readiness. scampered home in the moonlight, run- quick right away!" ning briskly with faces aglow for old Jack Frost was just beginning to tickle the air with his snappy fingers and if was not wise to linger long out of children, and all unbeknown to the Shakasperian scholar dwelt on the youngsters large dishes of taffy and glories of his favorite author. At the fudge and delicious cakes and pies close the Scot approached the lecturer. were cooked ready to satisfy eager ap- and said: petites when the strange visitors entered the homes next night.

When Betty went in with her father she saw that he looked & little worried "What is the matter, Daddy?" she "Has something happened?" "Oh, no, said her father. "Every thing is fine. But I have to go to town on business Betty and I want you to it was Shakespeare who wrote, 'Uneasy evening. She is a little nervous yet. Now Rabble wad never has written ale after her accident." "But Daddy-," began Betty, and then a brave little guardian angel doctor. that always whispered sweet things in Betty's car, just when she needed goo.l advice. whispered very softly.

Betty never could tell in words ex- head. He wad hang it ower the back actly what that little angel said, but o' his chair!" she knew that if she followed its advice everything would be all right, so instead of protesting against her hard luck- she smiled bravely and oh so sweetly up into her father's face, and said, "All right, Daddy. You know, I really am too old now to be playing of her class. Hallowe'en tricks. I'm fifteen years old, next month," and then she sighed so very softly that her father did not fell in. He could not swim, and would hear. Only the brave little guardian be in danger of drowning. Picture angel heard that sigh, and he took no the scene. The man's sudden cry, the notice of it, for he might have been cry for help. His wife knows his peril, wanting to play Hallowe'en tricks him- and, hearing his screams, rushes imbolf. Who knows? Anyway, next night while the childrep hurriedly donned their costumes Betty came to them and said, "I'm sorry I can't go, but I've sent my ance money." witch's dress over to Linda Gray. Bho wanted to play to-night, but had no dress, and no money to buy one, for her father has been sick. He just wait awhile till Linda comes. She said she wouldn't be long." In a moment or two Linds came, and such a happy girl she was. Her lovely grey eyes were just jumping many's deficit in children since 1814 with mischlef and her mouth was one was 25,000,000, and children mortality smile. Then off the troupe went, on Betty watched them until the last lantern disappeared around the bend children to neutral countries, chiefly in the road, then she went indoors. Her mother was in the living room of the German mark precluded the on she wide comfortable couch where carrying out of the enterprise on the had run away one afternoon, bealth int Germany.

overturning the buggy and throwing her heavily into the ditch, and though ohe was getting much better, did not like to be left alone in the house. Betty and her mother read together for half an hour and talked confidentfally about many things. Then the tired woman dozed. Hetty nat in the dark by her side. She forgot about her disappointment at not > twinkling and the large round moon shining account through the window. Buddonly old Rox their trusty watch dog growled florcely. Beity started up, with boating heart and all sorts of things flitting through her imaginative brain while she listened. She heard & kind voice speak reassuringly to the old dog who stopped barking right Then a tap came to the door. Betty until February 1. lighted a lamp and went to see who was there. "I am sorry to trouble you," said a Hetty but where did it come from? 1920 .- C. E. Saunders, Dominion Cer- purpose. She could see no person there, though callst. she looked intently into the darkness. when suddenly as her eyes grew ac customed to the darkness she could see a huge shaggy bear standing right on her mother's own doorstep. Betty opened her mouth and eyes wide and round as saucers. . "Oh, my goodness!" said sher "what-who-oh my!" Then the bear began to laugh, and he laughed as if he never would stop. Others heard him laughing and came running down the path towards him. A wonderful fairy lady came first with beautiful curly hair and eyes like forpretty hard. Papa stays at home mest get-me-nots. Hhe smiled like-why of all the time, you see, and that mu'ou course, she smiled just like Julia Belit dreadfully inconvenient." bey, who was home from college to see her grandmother, living two miles east of Betty's home. Then came a fat old nigger mammy. Betty never would have known her if she had not shouted, "Hallo there Betsy Apr., and whatever's scared you!" Then she know that ole-mammy was just Tom Selbey, who really was twenty-eight cars too old for doing such foolish hings. Presently a ghost six feet tall, two witches, a funny old dog that was no dog at all, for it had four long T was the day before Hallowe'en feet with boy's boots on, and five little and in the little village of fairles dressed in pink, yellow, blue, Lakenide, the young folks be- red and green dresses, all stood around longing to all the prosperous the doorway and laughed at Betty. "Oh, come along in, all of you, and Betty Connor's comfortable sitting I'll soon find gut who you are," she room to discuss their plans for fun cried. And in they all trooped. The and frolic on the coming delightful bear explained that they were on their way to Cedarville to attend a Hallowe'en masquerade, when the axle of Bill the hired man was sleeping the That night, while old Bill workedoutside in the frosty moonlight blessin anticipation of the coming fun.

Jack and Fred Connors had planned to be twin ghosts. Such ghosts had been working mighty hard, too, Betty never before been seen in that countryside. Their heads of glaring white convex, held two eyes which by the aid of a torch glared wickedly in the darkness. The children were looking too glad to relieve the monotony of waiting, by performing for Betty and side these there were niggers, imps evening, thinking of all the fun the kiddles were having Betty had the With delighted simplicity all the best time of her young life. She laugh-children had confided in their parents ed so heartly that the fairy had to night was to discover; but with many stood on tip too in silent awe, and expected great surprise to be shown the interested audience, until her Then they all ate fudge and pumpkin and then more fudge and still more pie until Bill came in and shouted, "All "I'm afraid you will be late for your prty?" said Mr. Bear. "Let me tell you. Miss Betty, we've had one whether we'll be alive when we get to "There's more in his pocket, too," whispered one of the fairles, at which they all laughed. Then Ole Mammy Retty went indoors smiling. Her she was sure she could hear her little guardian angel whisporing in her car. "It was all right Betty, wasn't it?" Betty went to her father, and talk- It was all right, Betty." but before ing together they left the room. Im- she could answer she fell asleep, and mediately afterwards the children what with dreaming of blue fairies for Marjory Bates' black cat were she never really could tell just what did happen until she heard Fred call-"Gee, it's going to be fun, isn't it," ing, "Get up there Betty. It's half the kiddles siggled, and then they past seven and we want our breakfast

LEAVE IT TO BOBBY

A patriotic Soutchman was present Mothers had been busy as well as the at a meeting at which an eminent

> "Ye think a fine lot o' Shakespeare "An' ye think he was mair clever than Rabble Burnst"

. "Why, there is no comparison be tween them!" "Maybe no; but ye tell us the nicht stay with your mother to-morrow lies the head that wears a croon. gonsense as that!"

"Nonsense, sir!" cried the indignant "Ay, just nonsensel Rabble wad has kent that a king, or a queen either,

A NATURAL INFERENCE

an idea of devotion to the members "Now suppose," she | said, "a man working on the river-bank auddenly mediately to the bank. Why does she rush to the bank?" Whereupon a boy in the rear exclaimed, "Why to draw his insur-

2,500,000 CHILDREN LOST TO Professor Emil Abderhalden, the noted psychologist, says that Gerhas continued to increase. During the war Professor Abderhalden devoted much of his time to sending tubercular Switzerland, but the drop in the valu:

SEED GRAIN DISTRIBUTION

The annual free datribution namples of seed grain is being conducted at the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, by the Dominion Corcalint. The following kinds of seed grain will be sent out this season: Spring wheat (in about 6 lb namples) White oats (about (1b), barley (about children and sat watching the stars 5 lb), field pean (not garden pean) (about 5 fb), field beaus, early ripening, only for districts where the season is short, (about 2 lb), flax for mord (about & Ib), and flux for fibro (about 2 lb).

Applications must be on printed forms which may be obtained from the Dominion Cerealist at any time disappointment. No application forms for itself and not for what it will bring. voice which sounded real enough to will be furnished after February 1.

applicant.

HER INCONVENIENT FATHER

When Miss Alice Roosevelt was a little girl she uttered a complaint that must surely find an echo in the heart of every wilful lawbreaker whose case has fallen into the hands of the uncompromising President. Her teacher at school had been 1.1quiring for Mrs. Roosevelt, who was ill, and Alice answered, plaintively:

"Why, how is that?" "Oh, don't you see? He doesn't understand, like mamma. When mamma tells me to be home at four o'clock, and I get there at half past, she understands; but when papa says four and I get there at even quarter past -he doesn't understand at all!"

THE CHIEF SOURCE

The question of milk prices brings to mind one of the best of Bir Harry Lauder's stories. A farm hand was sent one morning by a Scottish cowkeeper to feed his cows with cabbages. "But mind," he said, "that ye gie the biggest to the coo that gies the maint

"Ayl" replied the boy, and disappeared to do his master's biding. "Did ye do as I told ye?" asked the cow-keeper, on the boy's return, "and gle the biggest cabboge to the that gies the maist milk?" "Oh, ay, maister," answered the boy

"I hung the biggest on the pump!"

BAVE WITH A PURPOSE

A six-year-old girl brought the visitor her small fron bank to admire. "Inn't it heavy?" she said proudly. "And there's two dimes in there and one quarter."

The visitor expressed admiration.

What are you going to do with so much money?" she usked. And to her surprise the child answered promptly. "I'm saving it so I can go to college when I'm a big girl," Whether the fund in the little iron hank in ever used for the designated purpose or not, this small girl has started right. There is nothing creditable about saving for saving's sake. The girl who simply learns to heard, without any thought of what the money is for, is in danger of developing in an undestrable way. For even in this extravagant age, miserlineas is not unheard of and there are an amaxers are advised to apply carly to avoid ing number of people who love money

HER VERSION OF IT

childish wall rang through the house, the anxious mother aprang to her feet. Rushing into the hall, she met her liftle daughter coming in from the garden and carrying a broken doll by "What in the matter, darling?" the

Bave by all means, but save with a

"O-o-o-oh, mo-o-ther," nowled the "She lan't much better yet. Yes, It's child. "Willie's broken my do-all!" "The naughty boy! How did he do "[-1-I hit him on the head with it!" was the slow response.-Pitts-mother taked tenderly.

burgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

It is Wise to Prevent Disorder-Many causes lead to disorders of the stomach and few are free from them. At the first manifestation that the tomach and liver are not performing their functions, a course of Parmelee's Veretable Pills should be tried, and it will be found that the directive organs will speedly resume healthy action. Laxatives and nedatives are so blended in these pills that no other preparation could be so effective as

Your Granulated Ryclids,
Byes inflamed by expo-Murtae Eye Remedy Co., Chicago,

87 Years of Service

The foundation stone of any Bank's success must be service to the public.

The 87 years of steady growth of this Bank, its steady increase in assets and resources, are a measure of the sound, consistent, friendly service it extends to its customers.

May we not serve you, too?

Bank of Nova Scotia W K. GRAHAM

Acting Manager Reserve Puest - - 18,000,000

Next Enrollment Day

Address to-day for particulars

C. E. BOUSFIELD, Principal - BRAMPTON, ONT ..

Brampton Business Institute-Monday, November 3

BRAMPTON BUSINESS INSTITUTE

A School of excellence, commodious class rooms, finest equip-Efficiency courses in Business, Stenography, Typewriting.

Which

are you going to have $45 or $82.50

IF you have $100 in the Savings Bank it will pay you 3 per cent. interest, or in fifteen years, $45.00.

you take that money out of the Savings Bank and invest it in Victory Bonds, Canada will pay you 5½ per cent. interest on it, or in the same time, $82.50

BUY Victory Bonds and get more interest

Issued by Canada's Victory Loan Committee in co-operation with the Minister of Finance of the Dominion of Canada.

THE BLESSEDNESS OF BEING

A young man was speaking of at. In a Fireless Cookstove opening in life which had just come to him, to a woman who was fleeply concorned for his success. "I believe you are exactly fitted for this city missionary work," she said; the cooking is stored up in small discs "you are so social, so sympathetic, called "radiators." These radiators can

He caught the expression of her kind of fuel. The heated radiators face. "And so common," be supplied, are placed in the cooking compartment laughing. "Yes," was the quick response, to be cooked. The food is usually that's just it. Thank God, Charlle, placed in the backen Stove in its rays you are 'so compton' to thank God? Many a highly-gifted loss, it is held imprisoned within the man fulls of large usefulness because cooking compartment. These imprisbe does not know how to be "common" oned heat rays tenetrate the raw food common people on a common ground | tically the same time us that allowed The language of his neighbor's work- for an ordinary stove. Enough heat shop is more foreign to him than is can be stored in a radiator in a few the speech of Hoain or Italy. He knows minutes to thoroughly cook an article what the culinary art was as practiced of food which would require several by the ancient Egyptians, but he could hours of continuous fire by the oldnot conduct an intelligent conversa- atyle stove method. There is a saving tion with his own cook on the subject of more than 80 per cent. of the fuel of her daily occupation. He can dis- consumption. course learnedly on the charlot races of the Romans, but he can not talk to his coachman for two minutes without running out of material. He done not know how to be common.-Helected Certain morbid conditions must exist in the stomuch and intestines to encourage worms, and they will exist us long us these morbid conditions permit them to. To be rid of them and upare the child suffering, use Miller's Worm Powders. They will correct the dignative irregularities by destroying the worms, conditions favorable to worms will disappear, and the child will have no more suffering from that bought a number of those "Do it now" signs and hung them up around his offices. They were effective beyond expectations, and yet it can hardly be said that they worked very well. When after the first few days of those signs. the business man counted up the results, he found that the cashler had skipped out with £1,000, the head book-keeper had eloped with the stenographer, three clerks had asked for a raise in salary, and the office boy had lit out for the West to become a bushrunger.-The Soldier.

Oil for Toothache-There is no pain so acute and distressing as toothache. When you have so unwelome a visitor apply Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil according to directions and you will find mmediate relief. It touches the nerve with soothing effect and the pain departs at onde. That it will case toothuche is another fine quality of this bil, showing the many uses it has.

When You Need

BOOTS SHOES

BUY FROM

WILLIAMS

FAMOUS FOR

Satisfactory Footwear

REASONABLE PRICES

Quality

Our Sweater Coats maintain the standard of Quality

Quality

in all our styles.

Raincoats We maintain the standard of Quality in the Raincoats

Quality is the standard in all our merchandise.

R. E. Nelson

Acton Flour and Feed Store

The well-known Brands of King's Choice, Norval and National Flournothing better. ROLLED OATS OILCAKE quantity if desired. SPECIAL LINE IN CHICKEN FRED

FEED FLOUR

GIVE OUR CALF MEAL A TRIAL DOMESTIC ROLLED OATS

Canada Food Board License No. 86

Robert Noble, Limited

How Cooking is Done

The principle of fireless cooking is simplicity itself. The heat that does be heated over any kind of stove, any with the utenell which contains the food state und cold. As the heat from the And was it not something for which | radiators cannot escape from the Fire--because he does not approach the and cook it. The cooking time is prac-Priced at $22.00 and $33.00.

WE HAVE WHAT YOU WAN'I

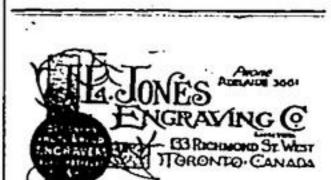

The BOND HARDWARE CO. Ltd.

This Store's Policy

To represent goods exactly as to their quality; to sell to those who know and to those who don't know at a uniform fair price; to fulfill all guarantees and cheerfully correct all mistakes: to deserve your confidence, by always giving you satisfaction.

Savage & Co.

No other Pinno is of action.

It will fill your leisure moments with joy and inspiration.

warm of tone; so supple

Write for catalogue and terms.

C W Kelly & Son;

GUELPH, ONT.

If your tired eyes are calling-for comfortable glasses that will epuble you to read with pase and to look into the distance without eye strain you should visit us. We will examine your eyes and make for them the glasges that will ugain muke life soom worth living. Our prices are as sat-

