IN MEMORIAM

JOHNSTON—In loving memory of our dear daughter, Lottie Isabell Johnston, who departed this life February 5, 1914.

Time may heal the broken hearted;
Time may make the wound look sore,
But it cannot still the longing
For the loved one gone before.
Two years have gone, oh how we miss her,
Often flows the silent tear;
But we hope to meet our dear one
In the home where we will part no more.

Sadly missed by,
Mother and Family.

Brief Local Items

—Last week was a shivery one.

—A bumper ice crop is assured.

—The quality of the ice crop which is being harvested is superior.

—Many homes in town have members ill with the prevailing severe colds.

—The two days of mild weather—Monday and Tuesday—were gratefully received.

—Hume Currie has been elected president of Esquesing Fall Fair, and Alex. Joe, 1st Vice Pres.

—The extremely cold weather on Sunday rendered the attendance at the churches very small.

—Old brute had no difficulty in seeing his shadow on Candlemas day—another six weeks of winter.

—Card parties will be held in the hall of St. Joseph's Church this evening and next Thursday evening.

—Mr. Charles Wilson, electrician, has been sadly bereft through the death of his father at Guelph on Tuesday.

—Georgetown has two lady members on the Public School Board—Mrs. H. W. Kennedy and Mrs. W. H. Wilson.

—Campbellford Town Council has decided to collect no poll tax for 1920 from soldiers who have seen service overseas.

—Guelph carpenters are demanding $1.00 per hour for the coming season's work, an increase of 81% over last year's wages.

—It is reported that A. E. Hellyer, M. P. P., for East Wellington, has resigned in favor of Hon. W. H. Raney, Attorney-General.

—The Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. Albert Stewart, Friday, February 6, at 3 o'clock. Everybody welcome.

—Friday night has the record for low temperatures for the present winter. The mercury dropped to 23 to 28 degrees below zero that night.

—Owing to widespread illness in Rockwood Mr. Maunsell was advised by the officials of St. John's Church there that no service would be held last Sunday.

—"I wish to compliment you on the excellent Free Press you are now getting out, and wish you continued success. I enclose cheque for $3.00 to cover two years subscription."—J. C. L., Calgary, Alta.

—What has become of the agitation we heard so much about a year ago about a memorial to our fallen heroes? Surely we are not going to have it said of us that we do not intend to do anything.—Newmarket Era.

—The striking sign "Acton Soldiers' Memorial Home" on the grounds of Sunderland Villa, the commodious and beautiful residence of the late W. H. Storey, has been the means of much interesting comment during the week.

"I enclose $4.00 for the Free Press for the next two years. We enjoy the paper very much as it gives us all the news from home. We also appreciate the "Old Man" and have been rather curious to know who he is."—H. W. S., San Francisco, California.

—A letter signed "A 1914 ex-Veteran" relative to the medal spoken of last week, has been received without the name of the writer. The reference to the French Government's part in the presentation of the medal was merely the information given by another veteran to the Free Press.

Rev. J. C. Wilson Goes to Weyburn

After several overtures from the session of the Presbyterian Church at Weyburn, Sask., Rev. J. C. Wilson, B. A., has accepted a call to that live western town. He leaves for the west on the 9th inst. and the induction will take place during the week. Mr. Wilson's stipend will be $2,500, with manse and six weeks' holidays. The call to this splendid church is a great compliment to Mr. Wilson. He is no stranger to the congregation, having filled the pulpit from the last of October until the end of the year. Weyburn has great possibilities and the Presbyterian Church a large membership. A recent religious census shows 1,200 Presbyterians. With a prohibition campaign just being launched, with a view to keeping out manufacturing and importation of intoxicating liquors from the Province of Saskatchewan, Mr. Wilson will be in the midst of another energetic temperance campaign. His wide experience here will be of much benefit to the workers in the west. The best of friends here of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and family will be greatly pleased at this early settlement under such favorable conditions.

In Memoriam

JOHN COUCH

A very sad death occurred at Brantford early last Thursday, when John Couch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Couch, of Brampton, died from septic poisoning. John, who was 41 years of age, was a tailor at Simpson's in Toronto, and was visiting in Brantford during the Christmas holidays. While skating there he fell and sustained a compound fracture of his leg between the knee and ankle. He was taken at once to Brantford General Hospital. The wound subsequently became infected, and the leg was amputated in an effort to save his life. His strength, however, was not sufficient to throw off the effects and his life ebbed out. Great sympathy is tendered to the sorrowing parents and family by all who knew him. He was unmarried. The funeral was held in Brampton on Saturday afternoon. The mother of the deceased was Mary, the eldest daughter of the late John Kenney, Jr., Acton, and sister of Messrs. William and John Kenney, Mrs. Jas. McLean, of Erin, is a sister of deceased.

MRS. JAMES CAMBLE

Eleven weeks of illness and suffering terminated in the death last Friday morning of Mrs. James Camble at the family homestead at Crowsons Corners. About eight years ago Mrs. Camble suffered from a slight stroke. Her health was never good afterward. She was the daughter of the late Miles Campbell, of Glengarry, her maiden name being Mary Campbell, and her birthplace Vankleek Hill. Her mother was a near relative of the late John Sandfield Macdonald, Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario. She appreciated this relationship highly and her only son was named Charles Sandfield. In 1870 Mr. Campbell and his family moved from Vankleek Hill and lived for a time at Elora, and then moved to Fort Erie. Upon the death of the late Mrs. John Camble, Miss Campbell was engaged as housekeeper for the family. While here she married her bereft husband, James Camble, the eldest son of the home. Thirty-four years ago they settled on the farm, lot 32, con. 1, Esquesing, at Crowsons Corners. Here she died. Four daughters and one son comprised the family. All survive excepting Clara, whose death occurred about thirty years ago. The others are: Charles Sandfield, who occupies a leading position with the Flexlume Sign Co., of Buffalo; Mrs. George Lantz, Acton; Mrs. William Miller, Crowsons Corners, and Mrs. William VanNorman, of Guelph. Two sisters also survive, Mrs. James McDonald, of Elora, and Miss Sarah Campbell, of Chelsea, London, England. Miss Campbell is an experienced teacher of languages and holds a fine position in London. Mrs. Camble endeared her hope and her children beyond any other claim. She was a most hospitable woman and had many valued friends. She was a member of Knox Church, Acton. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon and was conducted by Rev. W. L. Findlay. The floral offerings were numerous. Two of them were especially prized, being sent by Mr. R. R. Wiley, President of the Flexlume Co., Buffalo, and by Walker Lodge A. F. & A. M., Acton. Mrs. Camble was in her seventy-fourth year.

C. F. E. RECORD

When Fred Record was taken ill three weeks ago it was soon realized that pneumonia was threatened. Everything possible was done in the effort to restore him to health. His brother John and Mrs. Record, of Orillia, came at once to assist the nurse and remained until the end. Their presence was a great comfort to the dying brother. On Monday evening he peacefully slept away. Mr. Record was born at St. Ann's in Nelson Township, the second son of Elijah W. and Sarah Augusta Record, seventy-four years ago. About the year 1858, he came to Acton with his mother and two brothers, John and Percy. When he had grown to manhood he was engaged by the late W. H. Storey as a traveller for the famous gloves manufactured here. He remained in this position for many years and then took a position with a prominent firm of glove manufacturers at Kansas City, Mo. But while his business relations were for a quarter of a century in the United States Fred never failed to make an annual visit to the old home here. A number of years ago he retired from the exacting exerciences of a commercial traveller and for some years has been looking after the stores and other property owned here by himself and his brother John. Several years ago he erected for Mr. Gregory the new Wonderland Theatre on a section of the Mill Street property. Mr. Record was a man of amiable disposition and had many friends in the old home here and elsewhere. He never married. He was a worthy citizen. For many years he was a member of Walker Lodge A. F. & A. M. and attended with much regularity. In his earlier days he was a member of the Anglican Church but lately has been an adherent of Knox Church. During his hours of illness his mind was almost constantly on eternal things. Hour after hour he would hum over such hymns as "Just as I am," and "Jesus Lover of my Soul." Rev. W. L. Findlay, B. A., conducted the funeral yesterday afternoon, and the impressive funeral service of the Masonic order was also given by the officers and members of the craft in honor of their deceased brother. Interment was made at Fairview Cemetery. John, the eldest son of the home, is now the only survivor of the family. Percy died in Buffalo five or six years ago, and the devoted mother a few years previously.

LIMEHOUSE

The receipts from the Presbyterian congregation last year amounted to $1,365.74, and for all missions $542.00. The latter includes a legacy of $200 by the late Mrs. Geo. Milne.

About $35 was realized from the Young People's entertainment held last week for the Armenian Fund.

GEORGETOWN

Mr. Ralph Rose has been made a member of the Library Board.

All the teachers of the Public School are making an increase in salary.

The total receipts of Knox Church last year were $6,269.57.

The Hydro-Electric system has a surplus of $21,342.98.

Premier Drury spoke in the Town Hall last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Smith and son of Glasgow, Scotland, arrived in town on Sunday and will make their home here.

Miss Ruth Jermyn, of Toronto, was the guest of Miss Ethel Cook for the week-end.

Miss Jean Barker, of Acton, visited at Mrs. James Watson's during the week.

Mr. E. J. Belfield has his new foundry on the Heath & Blone premises, now running.—Herald.

ERIN

Notwithstanding Erin's wet fair day last October the financial returns passed at the annual meeting showed the total receipts $2,457.26 and the payments $1,613.16, a very good result. W. E. McKinnon is the new president. The fair of 1920 is to be held on Thanksgiving Day.

Two dozen members and friends of the Bullinafad Epworth League spent a social evening in the Methodist Parsonage on January 28.

Dr. and Mrs. Hutchinson, of Brampton, and Mrs. H. Frankum, of Hamilton, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hull.

On Saturday Wm. Delaney, of Cong-huby, surprised and pleased Rev. J. A. Jewitt, by presenting him with a fur coat, the gift of friends on the Erin circuit.

Melville Church, Caledon, contributed one hundred and twenty-five dollars toward the Armenian Relief Fund. —Advocate.

NASSAGAWEYA

The election held on Monday for councillors resulted in Messrs. Leonard Chisholm and Matthew Johnston being elected. There was not a large vote polled.

Premier E. C. Drury will hold a meeting at Brooksville Friday evening.

There are a good many cases of "Grippe" or influenza in Nassagaweya. There was a small attendance at the churches last Sunday on account of so many being sick.

The destruction by fire of Westminster Presbyterian Church, Toronto, on Friday was a great calamity. The pastor, Rev. Dr. Neil, was in his earlier years pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Nassagaweya.

Walter L. Elliot has sold his 100-acre farm in Nassagaweya to his nephews, two sons of his brother, Wm. Elliot.

Reeve D. R. Hutcheon was unable to attend the meeting of the county council last week. He is ill and in bed with grip.
