LIVING TESTIMONY.

In a recent issue of the Peterboro Examiner an editorial appeared under the caption of "The Temperance Issue," which said:

"There should be no partying with the liquor traffic—no legalized resistance of the evil in any form in Ontario. The arguments of the anti-prohibitionists, plausible as many of them may seem, fade into insignificance alongside the improvement in Ontario since the Ontario Temperance Act became law. The merchant who has seen his date disappear from his books, the mother who knows that her children have been better dressed and better fed, the children themselves who know that the home life has been happier than in the old days, the parents of young boys who are satisfied that the temptations of a few years ago have been removed, all are living testimony to the benefit that the abolishing of the bar and the liquor shop has been to the community."

Neighborhood News--Town and Country

HABRAGAWEYA
Mr. J. D. Hagar, of Merrick, one of Nassagaweya's oldest and most highly esteemed residents has gone to take up his residence in Victoria, B. C. This aged old township was particularly noted for its food by Hagar, the alleged Liberty League opponent of Premier Drury. We are proud to have from him a majority of 256, notwithstanding the unpopularity of his views.

David Macdonald, M. P., who died at Vancouver, B. C. last Friday, was born at John Mills 74 years ago. He was a son of the late Alexander Marshall, Mrs. John J. Dwyer, of Oshawa, B. C. daughter.

CREWBOON CORNERS
The worst storm of the winter raged over here Saturday and Sunday. The roads were so badly filled in that Mr. Wapshott and Mr. Hart, our "bolt" mechanics, were unable to get through with the mail, consequently we felt rather isolated from the rest of the world.

Miss Margaret Dennis, who was very ill at the beginning of the winter, has now recovered, and is to be out of doors. Her many friends are glad to see her again.

Miss Clara Lantz, Acton, spent the weekend with her grandfather, Mr. Jas. Gamba.

Miss Kathleen Dennis visited friends in Acton this week.

MILTON

Judge Elliot has been ill with influenza. He is at his chambers today for the first time in about two weeks.

Rev. A. E. Marshall, who has been confined to his bed for several weeks, is making good progress towards recovery.

J. P. Little, Milton, was appointed Comptroller for the House of Refuge by the County Council.

Milton's greatest need just now is nurses and nurses' aides.

It is quite evident that the Hon. St. C. Drury is going to make a popular member for Halton County.

The editor of the "Star" handling the paper interesting notes of his travels southward, mentioning Ohio, and Kentucky, were traversed last week.

The electric lights were out for about two hours on Saturday evening, owing to considerable inconvenience to our merchants and putting the movies out of business.

"I want you a line over the telephone," he said when he met her. "Oh, yes," she answered. "I understand all right enough, but to me a line over the telephone is like a straw hat."
"A straw hat?" he asked. "How?"
"Why," she only answered, "it isn't felt."

To the General Public

In order to avoid any misunderstanding in the community we wish to state as follows:

In compliance with petitions, signed almost to a man by the employees of our Tanneries here, we have decided to open a store in Acton for the definite purpose of supplying our employees and their families with staple goods in Groceries and Provisions, Heavy Working Clothes and Boots.

We wish it to be distinctly understood that what we are doing in this matter is at the request of our employees.

It is not our present intention to stock any lines of Fancy Provisions, Fine Clothing, Boots or Shoes.

We would like the public to know that at present we will sell only to our employees on their personal account, and we respectfully request that the general public will make no effort to secure goods at our store.

In opening this store we are only following the plan adopted in Huntsville, Brockbridge, Sydney, N. S., and at numerous other industrial points, where the employers of large factories are aiming to co-operate for the betterment and interest of their workmen.
