Fashion Exhibit For Spring 1920

WE ANNOUNCE OUR FORMAL SPRING OPENING TO TAKE PLACE ON

THURSDAY, MARCH ELEVENTH

AND FOLLOWING DAYS OF THIS WEEK

This will be a display of unusual significance, depicting the most authentic fashions of the hour for a season unprecedented in variety and beautiful creations.

By this announcement we make known our complete readiness for the season in this Spring assemblage of

Suits, Coats, Dresses, Blouses, Skirts, Millinery and Accessories

Only the winsome of the favored modes take part in these displays. Every season, as you know, hundreds of different styles appear for recognition and acceptance by the feminine public. Some of them attain their desired destination, while the others depart from the stage to sink into obscurity and forgetfulness.

We scrupulously watched the weather-cock of fashion to see which way the wind blows before making the collections which we submit to you in this display. We have chosen only the idols of the hour—the cream of the prettiest presented, and it is these which we now solicit you to come and see.

You'll find it a most interesting trip we assure you—to Guelph—to MACDONALD'S.

Mr. Courlay Wants Some Action Now By the Council

His Shoe Factory Business Is being Embarrassed by the Continued Inaction of Council

SAYS EIGHT MONTHS IS BUREAU LONG ENOUGH FOR IN-VESTIGATIONS

The special meeting of the Council called for Monday evening, found Councilor Arnold Cox was "familiar with the situation" and the Rev. Mr.
Hughes, the present pastor there,
with his wife in the Methodist Church here, is a strong preacher and highly esteemed.

New Council Election Probable

At the meeting of the Council Monday evening it was stated that Councilor Hutchinson, who had been re-elected, had not yet been seated.

It is to be a continuation of what the Council originally proposed, that the Rev. Mr. Hughes should be allowed to remain in charge until the new church is built.

Mr. Courlay, the president of the Shoe Factory, has been in touch with the Council and has asked that they do not proceed with the construction of the new church.
