

Births, Marriages and Deaths are now charged for at the following Deaths, $6.00; Memorial Cards, $6.00 per line extra for poems.

BORN

HROWN—On Saturday, July 21, 1920, at 4 Amatoe St., West Toronto, to Mr. and Mrs. Cuthbert T. Brown, a daughter, following birth.

DIED

WILSON—In John Township, on Saturday, July 24, 1920, John Wilson, his 70th year.

The Action Free Press

TUESDAY, AUGUST 5, 1920

Brief Local Items

—August a busy harvest month.

—A careful man beats all safety devices.

—The wheat harvest is pretty general now.

—Another big Russell store sale commences to-morrow.

—There is a great prospect for a good crop this year.

—Anton G. W. Y. A. "One Big Day" on Saturday, August 14.

—Repairs at the Noble grain elevator will soon be completed.

—Children; green apples; collie; the doctor. Present day doings.

—The honey crop this year is only about one-third the usual yield.

—The flowers in our citizens' gardens are now at their prettiest.

—Several Quebec merchants have been victimized by a bogus cheque artist.

—A magistrate at Brampton has the other day imposed fine for rough language at a baseball game.

—The Humane Club Class of the Methodist Church plan-ned at Blue Spring Park yesterday.

—Rev. Alex. Macfiean, H. A. of Guelph, will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist Church next Sunday.

—Mr. George Davill has sold his brick store, 111 Main Street, to Mr. H. L. Gregory for $4,000.

—A large number of subshewers have renewed their subshewer dues for the week and saved the $200 rate.

—Almost all the oil wells evidently to stimulate July cool weather. Sunday's first day was "cool as a cucumber."

—Some of the farmers in this section report that their fall wheat is turning out as good in yield as they ever had.

—The children and young folks of St. Joseph's Church had a very enjoyable picnic at Blue Spring Park on Saturday.

—Down all over the country we find surprising places for auto, avoid congestion of traffic in the business centres.

—Hereafter the "site shows" at the fall fairs are to be censored. It is getting to be an awfully drab world. Godeur Signal.

—Action Ball Club has arranged for a game with a good team from Guelph in the park at three o'clock on Saturday afternoon.

—There are rumors that the highest paid oil well prices in the case of Hylton have been matched. May the decent not be too gentle.

—California may have a disastrous climate, but most of us prefer Ontario, whose pleasure-scenery is never disturbed by earthquakes.

—The last issue of the Farmers' Sun gave an interesting sketch of the life of Postmaster Matthews, the old postmaster in America.

—The sacramental service in the Methodist Church last Sunday evening was well attended. The number of communicants was large.

—One of the six studio performers out at the Hydro sub-station at Guelph was burned out early Monday morning, causing a loss of about $5,000.

—Contractor Gibbons has made up his mind in his estimation or the new water-tower reservoir on the Wallace property on Main Street during the week.

—The bricklayers have completed the walls of Mr. William Lehman's residence on Arthur Street, and the carpenters are now putting their work forward.

—Chief Conroy has laid information against motorists from Milton, Georgetown, Toronto and Acton during the week for violation of the motor vehicle act.

—The yield and quality of the early potato crop are very encouraging. The potatoes are larger and more numerous than usual and are generally of excellent quality.

—At the first quarterly meeting of the Ontario Conference of the Methodist Church for the conference year, the salary for Rev. J. M. Moyer was fixed at $1,800 by the unanimous vote of the Board.

—The Department of Public Works of the Province has now completed a preliminary route plan of the Provincial Highway on Dundas Street through Halton, in the County Regis-try Office at 2 miles from Acton.

—The big ditcher had some tough digging in the rock last Friday and Saturday at a record pace. The contractors commenced the work on Guelph Street and are now engaged on Mill Street and Park and Lake Avenues.

—Dredging Oakville Harbor.

Dredging operations have been started on the harbor by the local Dredging Company. A large amount of sandbar has been thrown up across the harbor mouth which has seriously interfered with coal barges, yachts and excursion steamer making the harbor difficult to be cleared within a few weeks.

—Was Greatly Beloved at Alliston.

The congregations present morning and evening, Mr. K. K. Clegg, pastor of the Methodist Church, to the high church in which Rev. Mr. Clegg, the retiring pastor of Knox Church, is held by the people of all denominations in the town and district. Mr. Clegg died in his parsonage here on Sunday evening, and that at the latter services many who sought admittance were denied. Rev. Mr. Clegg has gone to his new charge in London.

Neighborhood News-Town and Country

OAKVILLE

A beautiful memorial shadow, honoring the memory of the devout members of the Methodist congregation, whose home was in the town, was dedicated yesterday. William Busby, rector, officiated.

The Council has ordered 140 signs for naming the town's streets, at $1.25 each.

The Oakville war veterans will hold their field day and garden party on Saturday, August 7.

—The 10th anniversary of the birth of the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Bush and other friends.

—Moors, N. A.; Deering, A. G.; Perry, R. H.; MacKay, T. C.; Foster and Dr. Abbott, attended the annual meeting of the Oakville Firemen's Lodge held at Niagara Falls last week.

The U. F. O. and U. W. O. Club of Erin Township will hold their annual picnic at Stanley Park, 12th, 13th and 14th inst.

—The man who died in Pasadena, California, was a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Jones, M. A., of Mt. John's Presbyterian Church, Whitchurch, and his wife were visitors with Rev. J. E. and Mrs. Munro last Sunday.—Star.

—Another big Russell store sale commences to-morrow.

—There is a great prospect for a good crop this year.

—Anton G. W. Y. A. "One Big Day" on Saturday, August 14.

—Repairs at the Noble grain elevator will soon be completed.

—Children; green apples; collie; the doctor. Present day doings.

—The honey crop this year is only about one-third the usual yield.

—The flowers in our citizens' gardens are now at their prettiest.

—Several Quebec merchants have been victimized by a bogus cheque artist.

—A magistrate at Brampton has the other day imposed fine for rough language at a baseball game.

—The Humane Club Class of the Methodist Church plan-ned at Blue Spring Park yesterday.

—Rev. Alex. Macfiean, H. A. of Guelph, will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist Church next Sunday.

—Mr. George Davill has sold his brick store, 111 Main Street, to Mr. H. L. Gregory for $4,000.

—A large number of subshewers have renewed their subshewer dues for the week and saved the $200 rate.

—Almost all the oil wells evidently to stimulate July cool weather. Sunday's first day was "cool as a cucumber."

—Some of the farmers in this section report that their fall wheat is turning out as good in yield as they ever had.

—The children and young folks of St. Joseph's Church had a very enjoyable picnic at Blue Spring Park on Saturday.

—Down all over the country we find surprising places for auto, avoid congestion of traffic in the business centres.

—Hereafter the "site shows" at the fall fairs are to be censored. It is getting to be an awfully drab world. Godeur Signal.

—Action Ball Club has arranged for a game with a good team from Guelph in the park at three o'clock on Saturday afternoon.

—There are rumors that the highest paid oil well prices in the case of Hylton have been matched. May the decent not be too gentle.

—California may have a disastrous climate, but most of us prefer Ontario, whose pleasure-scenery is never disturbed by earthquakes.

—The last issue of the Farmers' Sun gave an interesting sketch of the life of Postmaster Matthews, the old postmaster in America.

—The sacramental service in the Methodist Church last Sunday evening was well attended. The number of communicants was large.

—One of the six studio performers out at the Hydro sub-station at Guelph was burned out early Monday morning, causing a loss of about $5,000.

—Contractor Gibbons has made up his mind in his estimation or the new water-tower reservoir on the Wallace property on Main Street during the week.

—The bricklayers have completed the walls of Mr. William Lehman's residence on Arthur Street, and the carpenters are now putting their work forward.

—Chief Conroy has laid information against motorists from Milton, Georgetown, Toronto and Acton during the week for violation of the motor vehicle act.

—The yield and quality of the early potato crop are very encouraging. The potatoes are larger and more numerous than usual and are generally of excellent quality.

—At the first quarterly meeting of the Ontario Conference of the Methodist Church for the conference year, the salary for Rev. J. M. Moyer was fixed at $1,800 by the unanimous vote of the Board.

—The Department of Public Works of the Province has now completed a preliminary route plan of the Provincial Highway on Dundas Street through Halton, in the County Regis-try Office at 2 miles from Acton.

—The big ditcher had some tough digging in the rock last Friday and Saturday at a record pace. The contractors commenced the work on Guelph Street and are now engaged on Mill Street and Park and Lake Avenues.

—Dredging Oakville Harbor.

Dredging operations have been started on the harbor by the local Dredging Company. A large amount of sandbar has been thrown up across the harbor mouth which has seriously interfered with coal barges, yachts and excursion steamer making the harbor difficult to be cleared within a few weeks.

—Was Greatly Beloved at Alliston.

The congregations present morning and evening, Mr. K. K. Clegg, pastor of the Methodist Church, to the high church in which Rev. Mr. Clegg, the retiring pastor of Knox Church, is held by the people of all denominations in the town and district. Mr. Clegg died in his parsonage here on Sunday evening, and that at the latter services many who sought admittance were denied. Rev. Mr. Clegg has gone to his new charge in London.

ERIN

Mr. Geo. Rogers has returned home after a three weeks' visit with friends in the States.

Mr. Peter Harcourt sold his farm of 150 acres on Tuesday to Mr. Chas. Wilson, of Cooksville, for a handsome figure.

—Thomas of Buffalo, N. Y., a visiting student, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Bush and other friends.

—Moors, N. A.; Deering, A. G.; Perry, R. H.; MacKay, T. C.; Foster and Dr. Abbott, attended the annual meeting of the Oakville Firemen's Lodge held at Niagara Falls last week.

The Council has ordered 140 signs for naming the town's streets, at $1.25 each.

The Oakville war veterans will hold their field day and garden party on Saturday, August 7.

—The 10th anniversary of the birth of the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Bush and other friends.

—Moors, N. A.; Deering, A. G.; Perry, R. H.; MacKay, T. C.; Foster and Dr. Abbott, attended the annual meeting of the Oakville Firemen's Lodge held at Niagara Falls last week.

The Council has ordered 140 signs for naming the town's streets, at $1.25 each.

The Oakville war veterans will hold their field day and garden party on Saturday, August 7.

—The 10th anniversary of the birth of the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Bush and other friends.

—Moors, N. A.; Deering, A. G.; Perry, R. H.; MacKay, T. C.; Foster and Dr. Abbott, attended the annual meeting of the Oakville Firemen's Lodge held at Niagara Falls last week.

The Council has ordered 140 signs for naming the town's streets, at $1.25 each.

The Oakville war veterans will hold their field day and garden party on Saturday, August 7.

—The 10th anniversary of the birth of the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Bush and other friends.

—Moors, N. A.; Deering, A. G.; Perry, R. H.; MacKay, T. C.; Foster and Dr. Abbott, attended the annual meeting of the Oakville Firemen's Lodge held at Niagara Falls last week.

The Council has ordered 140 signs for naming the town's streets, at $1.25 each.

The Oakville war veterans will hold their field day and garden party on Saturday, August 7.

—The 10th anniversary of the birth of the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Bush and other friends.

—Moors, N. A.; Deering, A. G.; Perry, R. H.; MacKay, T. C.; Foster and Dr. Abbott, attended the annual meeting of the Oakville Firemen's Lodge held at Niagara Falls last week.

The Council has ordered 140 signs for naming the town's streets, at $1.25 each.

The Oakville war veterans will hold their field day and garden party on Saturday, August 7.

—The 10th anniversary of the birth of the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Bush and other friends.

—Moors, N. A.; Deering, A. G.; Perry, R. H.; MacKay, T. C.; Foster and Dr. Abbott, attended the annual meeting of the Oakville Firemen's Lodge held at Niagara Falls last week.

The Council has ordered 140 signs for naming the town's streets, at $1.25 each.

The Oakville war veterans will hold their field day and garden party on Saturday, August 7.

—The 10th anniversary of the birth of the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Bush and other friends.

—Moors, N. A.; Deering, A. G.; Perry, R. H.; MacKay, T. C.; Foster and Dr. Abbott, attended the annual meeting of the Oakville Firemen's Lodge held at Niagara Falls last week.

The Council has ordered 140 signs for naming the town's streets, at $1.25 each.

The Oakville war veterans will hold their field day and garden party on Saturday, August 7.

—The 10th anniversary of the birth of the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Bush and other friends.

—Moors, N. A.; Deering, A. G.; Perry, R. H.; MacKay, T. C.; Foster and Dr. Abbott, attended the annual meeting of the Oakville Firemen's Lodge held at Niagara Falls last week.

The Council has ordered 140 signs for naming the town's streets, at $1.25 each.

The Oakville war veterans will hold their field day and garden party on Saturday, August 7.

—The 10th anniversary of the birth of the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Bush and other friends.

—Moors, N. A.; Deering, A. G.; Perry, R. H.; MacKay, T. C.; Foster and Dr. Abbott, attended the annual meeting of the Oakville Firemen's Lodge held at Niagara Falls last week.

The Council has ordered 140 signs for naming the town's streets, at $1.25 each.

The Oakville war veterans will hold their field day and garden party on Saturday, August 7.

—The 10th anniversary of the birth of the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Bush and other friends.</