Brief Local Items

—September made her bow yesterday.

—Fifteen cent sugar is expected shortly by Toronto dealers.

—Fifteen cent sugar will be welcome; ten cent sugar will be better.

—An Erin farmer sold new potatoes in town on Tuesday for $1.75 per bag.

—The estate of the late G. R. Ryan, Guelph, who died in June, is valued at $181,767.20.

—The dangerous back-filling places on the waterworks trenches still remain unmended.

—The turnip crop gives good promise, but the market is rather discouraging at present.

—The foundations for the civic memorial monument are to be put in within a few days.

—Many municipal councils have decided to fight the application for increased telephone rates.

—Mr. A. J. Murray, of Cloverdale Dairy, is improving his residence by the addition of wide verandahs.

—P. Heffernan, Eramosa, was allowed $25.00 for a ewe killed by dogs, at last meeting of the township council.

—Rev. R. L. Cameron, of Georgetown, occupied the pulpit of Knox Church last Sunday very acceptably.

—If tithing is observed when the crops are harvested this year, the Lord's treasury will be filled to overflowing.

—Rev. E. D. Silcox, of Toronto, preached in the Baptist Church last Sunday in the absence of Rev. Mr. Johnston.

—The sum of $900 was granted to the police village of Rockwood last week by the township council for local improvements.

—Hamilton gravediggers are striking because the city won't pay them 60c an hour. Poor fellows! They're only been getting 55c an hour.

—The big wheat crop in the west will mean cheaper flour and lower-priced bread. A drop of $1.50 a barrel in flour is predicted for this fall.

—Good morning! Have you renewed your Free Press subscription and avoided being placed in the $2.00 class for the year? A few have neglected this.

—Many a dog is considered mad when he is only thirsty," says Our Dumb Animals. Provide water where free access may be had to it by the canines.

—Mrs. Donald McDonald, Main St., holds first place so far for big potatoes. She sent the Free Press a Peerless weighing one and three-quarter pounds on Tuesday.

—The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute will be held on Friday, September 3, at 3 o'clock p. m., at the home of Mrs. Ed. Gamble. A full attendance is requested.

—Blind-piggers are not likely to be quite so lively around Guelph now that a jail sentence stares them in the face. The "cooler" is a terribly dry place.—Guelph Herald.

—With a generous interdenominational spirit Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bishop, of the Fairview Avenue gardens, sent beautiful bouquets of asters to each of the five churches, in town for last Sunday's services.

—"You gotta friend somewhere who still calls this town "Home," ain't cha? Then why don't cha send him th' home town paper for a year? 'N ya don't hafta wait till Christmas t' be that kind of a Santa Claus, neither!"

—The vacant lots on Mill Street, opposite Park Avenue, in view of Fairy Lake, alleged to belong to the corporation of Acton, have a luxuriant crop of noxious weeds—in violation of the law. A similar crop may be seen on the Power House lot.

—Mr. A. E. Nicklin has been successful this season in growing a wonderful crop of potatoes in the little area behind the old Baptist Church on Elgin Street. A potato from the veritable ash heap, weighing 1 lb. 4 oz., reposes in the Free Press window.

—This paper provides the best means of publicity obtainable in this vicinity. It reaches hundreds of homes for the advertisers at lower cost than any other possible way. Are you taking advantage of the opportunity of using its columns to help your business?

—The Trafalgar Township Council has purchased one of the latest adding machines for Clerk Albertson's office and it is now being operated there, relieving much of the tedious work and making accuracy more sure. It is really a wonderfully useful machine.—Oakville Star.

—The officers of Fergus Agricultural Society waited upon Eramosa Council last week requesting a grant. They showed that 55% of their prizes for field crop competition; 40% of their seed fair prizes, and 15% of their show prizes went to Eramosa last year. The council made the fair a grant of $15.

—The Free Press editorial desk has been graced this week with a bouquet of very fine gladiolus blooms, from the garden of Mr. Mack McDonald, Victoria Avenue. Mr. McDonald has been very successful in his culture of this stately flower. One bloom in particular commands general admiration. It is almost black, a very rich maroon.

In Memoriam

HENRY J. FRANKUM

After an illness of two weeks, Henry J. Frankum passed away early Monday morning at his home on John Street, Harriston, from pneumonia. He was born in England 78 years ago, and came to Canada when a boy of 16, settling at Picton, where he worked at his trade of leather dresser. He also worked in the large tanneries at Acton and Southampton. He removed with his family from Acton three years ago. Besides his wife, two sons, Wallace, of Woodbridge, and Harry T., druggist, at Harriston, and one daughter, Miss Lily, at home, survive. He was a life-long member of the Methodist Church, a Conservative, and a member of the Sons of England, at Montreal, and the Orange Lodge of Acton.

A MOST ENJOYABLE PIC-NIC

Best Afternoon's Outing of the Methodist Sunday School for Years

The Methodist Sunday School was the last of the schools in town to hold their annual pic-nic. It was held last Thursday afternoon in Mr. Fred Denny's grove on the first line, opposite Mr. Richard L. Johnston's, lane, and was an unqualified success.

The weather was delightful.

The attendance was larger than for years.

The location was in all respects ideal for a pic-nic.

The grove with its grassy knolls afforded pleasant resting places, and convenient quarters for serving the pic-nic refreshments.

The contiguity of these pic-nic grounds to Mr. Johnston's residence was an appreciated convenience for making tea, an abundant supply of pure cool water, and sundry other calls of exigency.

The music by the band, composed of members of the school and a couple of kind-hearted musical friends, was greatly appreciated. They played before the parade left for the pic-nic grounds, at intervals during the afternoon, and serenaded the town upon their return.

The numerous car owners of the Methodist congregation and Mr. J. R. Anderson, conveyed the 250 who attended, giving them motor rides which all enjoyed. No less appreciation was expressed of the drays placed at the disposal of the school for the day.

The pic-nic lunch was a sumptuous repast and everybody, both young and old thoroughly enjoyed this, under the leafy shade of the lordly beeches and maples of the grove.

A much apreciated feature of the pic-nic was the ample supply of ice cream and cones sent from Toronto by Messrs. H. H. Moore and E. J. Moore, former members of the school, both of whom recently visited the school of their boyhood, and proffered this treat. The supply sent was so generous that every pic-nicker was treated to two servings of cones. It is not to be wondered that a unanimous vote of thanks was accorded the thoughtful donors.

Every member of every committee worked with enthusiasm and this assured the success which was attained. Rev. I. M. Moyer, the pastor, was everywhere and helped to make matters run smoothly. H. P. Moore, the superintendent, seemed to have renewed his youth after a rest of three years from the responsibilities of supervising these annual events.

The thanks of all concerned are extended to Mr. Fred Denny and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Johnston and family for favors extended.

The following is the list of contests of races, etc., and their winners:

Mrs. H. P. Moore's Class—Audrey McLeod, Doris Maddock.

Mrs. Wansborough's Class—Frank Cook, Fred Day.

Mrs. H. P. Moore's Class—Ethel James, Jean Weadge.

W. F. Mooney

PLUMBER, STEAM FITTER, TIN WORKER

Has been fortunate in securing MR. THOMAS SMITH, OF KITCHENER, to execute all plumbing work the citizens of Acton may require in the installation of their waterworks systems.

Mr. Smith has had twenty-five years' experience in this work.

I am prepared to furnish quotations for putting the waterworks system in any building. Will furnish a man to do the digging, or any one may do the digging for themselves.

I will make pipe connections and supply any equipment required.
